

UNDERGRADUATE MINOR
Global Studies / School of Undergraduate Studies / TIPS (NSPE)
18 credits

By the successful completion of this minor, a student should be able to demonstrate:
1. The ability to critically evaluate the role of multiple causal factors in the analysis of global issues and dynamics.
2. The ability to draw from theories, principles and knowledge from more than one discipline to address a specific global problem or dynamic.
3. A strong understanding of one or more contemporary global social or political concerns.
4. The ability to critically evaluate forms of global order.
5. A strong understanding of the construction of identities and the challenges of achieving global justice and governing global flows of people, goods, money, and information.
6. The ability to conduct research and communicate findings effectively.
7. The ability to make a convincing scholarly argument that is relevant to the specific field of inquiry.