THE NEW SCHOOL
APPLICATION FOR READMISSION

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- All applicants for readmission should submit this application and letter of intent in an email to readmit@newschool.edu. Please put your last name and "readmission app" in the subject line.
- If you are an International Student and require a visa to resume your studies at The New School, please communicate directly with the International Student Services office to secure the required documentation (iss@newschool.edu) after you have received your admission decision.
- For students who took classes at other colleges during their absence from The New School, please arrange to have official transcripts sent to the Office of Admission at 79 Fifth Avenue, 5th Floor, New York, NY 10003. Please be sure the transcript is addressed to the division of The New School to which you are seeking readmission. It is not necessary to request a release of your New School transcript.
- Please note: If you were academically dismissed from your program, you must file a readmission application regardless of the length of absence since being enrolled at The New School.
- If you plan on returning to The New School to a different division from which you were last enrolled, please contact the undergraduate admission office at 212-229-5150 to receive counsel on the admission process, application and artistic review, if applicable.

INSTRUCTIONS BY DIVISION
