SPRING 2012: RESEARCH & DECIDE

- Attend information session on campus or at IIE/Fulbright
- Visit www.fulbrightonline.org to review application process
- Contact asarol@newschool.edu with questions about the application process
- Contact your Fulbright Program Advisor (FPA) with questions about your specific project
- Research overseas university systems and study opportunities
- Consult your network of academic advisors and professors
- Determine if host country affiliation is needed
- Make your decision as to whether or not to apply
- (Fulbright Grants, if awarded, cannot be deferred to a different academic year)

SUMMER 2012: PREPARE YOUR APPLICATION

- Assemble application. Application is available online at www.fulbrightonline.org
- Submit draft of essay, CV, and transcript to your Fulbright Program Advisor (FPA)
- Contact potential recommenders, including language evaluator if needed
- Request official, sealed academic transcripts from all institutions you attended
- Secure host country affiliation, if needed
- Review and revise application materials
- Send recommenders reference forms and drafts of essays and Curriculum Vitae
- Submit draft of application materials for comments, critique
- Final revisions
