FALL 2018 ORIENTATION: EMPIRE STATE OF MIND

WELCOME TO THE NEW SCHOOL

Fall 2018 Orientation: Empire State of Mind

Congratulations and welcome to Lang College. Life at Lang is characterized by the unique combination of hard work and personal autonomy. The academics you are about to embark on are reading and writing-intensive and grounded in the scholarly development of critical thinking. But the open curriculum gives you the freedom to explore what is relevant to you.

The theme for the 2018-2019 academic year is Empire State of Mind: a call to action, the inspiration to dig deep, be tenacious, and enact your dreams! The RegPack scheduling portal will assist you in sharing your workshop preferences and identifying the required sessions you will need to attend during Orientation Week. If you think you might not be present during these important orientation events, email us promptly at langadvising@newschool.edu We look forward to seeing you in person soon!

Following are some important notes for you to keep in mind:

Orientation RSVP and Workshop Selection

Incoming students and families must RSVP for Orientation through RegPack. This free registration system will ask you to create a username and password, which will allow you to register for events throughout Orientation Week and Welcome Week(end). Use the instructions on the following pages to select your required workshops, and take your time reading the workshop descriptions to dive into all The New School has to offer!

Orientation Check-In and Final Schedule:

Your RSVP and workshop preference selection on RegPack is one step to completing your registration for Orientation. Be sure to complete your new student checklist items on MyNewSchool, and complete the required modules on the Prep for Success pre-orientation online course.

When you arrive to campus on Sunday, August 19th, you must sign in at the Orientation Check-In desk. At check-in, you will receive your printed, finalized schedule and your welcome kit. You can find the check-in table in the Event Café (UL103) of the University Center, 63 Fifth Avenue. Your families should sign in at the Orientation Check-in desk as well. Do you have questions about Orientation? Email orientation@newschool.edu

Move-In and Arrival:

Orientation begins with your move-in and arrival dates. If you are living off-campus and commuting to school, your orientation begins on Monday, August 20 with your first scheduled activity. Do you have questions about housing? Email universityhousing@newschool.edu Don't forget to sign in at the Orientation Check-In to receive your official workshop schedule, complete with locations!

International Students

International Student Check-In

All international students, professors, and scholars must officially check in with ISSS within ten days of arriving in the United States during the first semester of their program. New students and scholars must complete the online check-in form in their iGlobal page. All new students and scholars must upload their immigration documents (I-20/DS-2019, passport, and printout of their electronic I-94 card). This check-in is in addition to your Orientation Check-In or your School-Based Check-In.

New International Student Orientation

Attendance at the in-person New International Student Orientation is required by both The New School and the U.S. government. During this session, you will learn your rights and responsibilities while in F-1 or J-1 status, learn more about the ISSS office, and meet other international students. Information about the date and location of the New International Student Orientation is included in the welcome letter that was mailed to you along with your I-20 or DS-2019.

Do you have questions about being an International Student at The New School? Email iss@newschool.edu.
