Kate Bahn katebahn@gmail.com 238 North 11th Street, 3rd Floor Brooklyn, NY 11211 (617) 821-2649

Education Experience:

New School for Social Research, New York, NY

- PhD Student in Economics
- MSc in Economics, May 2012
- Concentration in Labor Economics, Gender, Feminist Economics, and Teacher Labor Markets
- Relevant coursework: Labor Economics, Advanced Political Economy 1 and 2, Seminar in Economic Methodology, Seminar in Economic Modeling.

Hampshire College, Amherst, MA

- Bachelor of Arts, May 2006
- Concentration in Classical Economic Theory and Labor Studies
- Final year research project and dissertation titled "The Economic Impact of Hurricane Katrina: A Gender, Class and Race Study of Economic Disaster"

Work Experience:

Research Assistant, September 2012 to present Schwartz Center for Economic Policy Analysis

• Coordinating forum of state treasurers and elected officials on state action for retirement income security.

Economics Student Advisor, July 2010- June 2012

Economics Department, New School for Social Research, New York, NY

• Provide program information to continuing students, gather and organize data for biannual academic review of students by department/committee faculty, maintain department student records, recruit and advise prospective students.

Research Intern, June 2009- June 2010

Service Employees International Union, Local 32BJ, New York, NY

 Research for Union strategic campaigns, including economic development research for proposed prevailing wage legislation in Allegheny County, PA, and financial costing of Union contracts for the School District of Philadelphia.

Assistant to the Director of Contract & Grievance Center, August 2007- Jan 2009 Service Employees International Union, Local 32BJ, New York, NY

• Oversaw and assisted in the supervision of 15 Grievance Representatives, tracked Reductions in Force for the union's NYC metro contracts, managed director's written correspondence, carried out general office duties.