

THE NEW SCHOOL

Facts and Figures Fall 2012

The New School was founded nearly a century ago as a bastion of intellectual and artistic freedom. Rooted in New York City, but active around the world, The New School today contains some of the nation's most respected programs in design, liberal arts, the performing arts, and social and political thought. Students from across the country and around the world attend The New School's wide-ranging programs—on campus in Greenwich Village and online—to earn bachelors, masters, and doctoral degrees, complete certificate programs, or take continuing education classes. New School students enjoy a disciplined education supported by small class sizes, superior resources, and a renowned faculty of artists, scholars, and professionals who practice what they teach. ¹. The New School for General Studies and Milano The New School for Management were merged to form The New School for Public Engagement effective July, 2011.

². Includes Parson/Lang BFA/BA and Jazz/Lang BFA/BA students.

³. Includes Mannes Extension Diploma students.

⁴. Graduate enrollment includes students registered to maintain status (not enrolled in courses for credit).

⁵. "Siteline" courses (offered through Lang) re-designated as on-campus in Spring 2011 (following IPEDS definition), therefore number appears to have decreased.

⁶. FTE calculated as 1 FTE per full-time student plus total number of credits per part-time students divided by 15 for undergraduate and by 9 for graduate students.

¹ Undergraduate admissions facts include entering freshmen and transfer students.

² Admit Rate is calculated using admitted over actionable applications: those applications fulfilling all requirements to be considered for admission. This will be used for all years 2011 and subsequent.

³ First-time, full-time freshmen includes those admitted into 2- and 4-year programs (but does not include transfer students).

⁴ In 2012, Mannes programs changed configuration resulting in a greater number of named programs.

⁵ Parson/Lang BFA/BA and Jazz/Lang BFA/BA students are counted twice - once for each degree.

⁶ The New School for General Studies and Milano The New School for Management were merged to form The New School for Public Engagement effective July, 2011.

⁷ Mannes Extension Diploma students include undergraduates who do not typically graduate from the program in which they are enrolled, instead transfer to other programs at Mannes.

⁸ Weighted average of tuition and fees for first-time, full-time degree- or certificate-seeking undergraduates enrolled Fall 2012. Lowest priced studio double room and typical declining meal plan board.

⁹ Ratio is calculated from FTE for all credit-seeking students (full-time headcount+1/3total part-time headcount). Part-time faculty include only those teaching in fall 2012.
