Schedule of Events

9:15–9:45 a.m.  Early Bird Campus Tours (Departs from 66 West 12th Street Lobby)
Learn more about the university through our graduate student-led tours of The New School’s Greenwich Village campus. You’ll visit classrooms, libraries, computer labs, administrative offices, and other points of interest.

10:00–11:00 a.m.  Welcome Remarks and Alumni/Current Student Panel
John L. Tishman Auditorium, 1st Floor, 66 West 12th Street

11:15 a.m.–12:30 p.m. Graduate Program Information Sessions
Various locations—to be announced
Typically held in an open forum, presentations are given accompanied with a Q&A session with faculty and admission representatives.

11:15 a.m.–1:00 p.m. Parsons The New School for Design Information Session
John L. Tishman Auditorium, 1st Floor
Students will then attend an individual program session hosted by faculty who will review highlights of the curriculum and provide insight into the rigorous education to be gained in an environment where creativity, critical thinking, and global perspectives about art and design are valued.

12:30–1:00 p.m.  Afternoon Campus Tour (Departs from 66 West 12th Street Lobby)

John L. Tishman Auditorium, 66 West 12th Street, 1st Floor
See description below.

1:30–2:30 p.m.  Graduate Admission Seminar & Financial Aid Workshop for Parsons The New School for Design
Theresa Lang Community and Student Center, 55 West 13th Street, 2nd Floor
These seminars and financial aid workshops will give key tips about applying to graduate school, and highlight what criteria strengthens a student’s application profile at The New School. Admission representatives will also debunk the myths and mysteries surrounding financial aid. Topics discussed will be application essays (focusing on the purpose of each essay), and how they are evaluated. Transfer credits and other pertinent items will also be covered.

2:30–3:00 p.m.  Afternoon Campus Tour (Departs from 66 West 12th Street Lobby)
