What is the ISSAB?
ISSAB is a student-led organization that fosters the international community at the New School. Through collaboration with other clubs, outside organizations, and our own activities, we provide immersion into a multitude of cultures. In addition ISSAB acts as a platform to provide feedback concerning ISS services, web site, programs, outreach, and general effectiveness.

First and Last Name: _______________________________________

New School ID: ___________________________________________

Email Address: ___________________________________________

Phone Number: ___________________________________________

Have you ever been a member of a voluntary organization?

How do you think you can contribute to the organization (given your skills and expertise)?

Would you be able to attend bi-weekly meetings?

Would you be interested in a leadership position?

How did you hear about ISSAB?