MANNES AT A GLANCE

TRAINING THE COMPLETE MUSICIAN

Mission
Mannes College The New School for Music is dedicated to stimulating, supporting, and advancing the creative role of music in all aspects of a rapidly changing society. Mannes seeks to develop “citizen artists” who engage the world around them, in and through music, in traditional, emergent, and new forms of practice.

Accreditation Statement
All degree programs at The New School are registered by the New York State Education Department. The New School has been regionally accredited by Middle States Commission of Higher Education since 1960.

Faculty
The Mannes faculty consists of expert artists, scholars, and educators. What is more, as part of The New School, which include legendary schools of art and design education, liberal arts, business and policy, jazz, and drama, and the social sciences, Mannes students have unparalleled access to a wide range of expert professors across all of these areas of knowledge.

The Mannes performance faculty includes leading professionals from all areas of the music world—concert artists, chamber musicians, world renown music freelancers, prize-winning composers, and members of such leading organizations as the Metropolitan Opera, New York Philharmonic, Orpheus Chamber Orchestra, the New York City Ballet Orchestra, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, the Orion Quartet, and many others.

The Mannes Techniques of Music faculty (theory and ear training) are highly regarded scholars, musicologists, and educators. The vast majority of the administration and staff at Mannes are accomplished musicians and administrators who deeply understand the challenges facing the students they advise and guide.

Location
Part of every Mannes student’s education is participating in New York’s exciting musical and cultural life. Mannes is located in the heart of the Upper West Side, a residential neighborhood known for its congenial and creative character. Mannes is in walking distance from Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and Riverside and Central Parks.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

DEGREE AND DIPLOMA PROGRAMS

Mannes offers degrees and diplomas at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Young musicians receive superb training in the art and craft of music and are prepared to meet the demands of professional careers.

Undergraduate Programs

The undergraduate programs available at Mannes are the Bachelor of Music degree, the Bachelor of Science degree, and the Undergraduate Diploma. The undergraduate course of study at Mannes requires four years of full-time study to complete. To be full-time, a student must enroll for a minimum of 12 credits of college-level instruction each semester. The minimum residency is two years for qualified and approved transfer students. See “Transcript Evaluation” in this catalog for the transfer credit policy.

Bachelor of Music Degree (BM)

The Bachelor of Music degree is awarded in all major fields upon completion of the appropriate music and academic requirements. These programs are described in “Program Components and Requirements” and listed in “Course Requirements by Major”. The four-year Bachelor of Music program combines intensive study in a specific concentration with coursework in the Techniques of Music and in the liberal arts. Students build a solid foundation for careers as professional musicians. In accordance with the requirements of New York State, at least 25 percent of the credits in each degree program are in liberal arts courses.

Bachelor of Science Degree (BS)

The Bachelor of Science degree is awarded in all major fields upon completion of the appropriate music and academic requirements. These programs are described in “Program Components and Requirements” and listed in “Course Requirements by Major”. The four-year Bachelor of Music program combines intensive study in a specific concentration with coursework in the Techniques of Music and in the liberal arts. Students build a solid foundation for careers as professional musicians. In accordance with the requirements of New York State, at least 25 percent of the credits in each degree program are in liberal arts courses.

Undergraduate Diploma (UDPL)

The Undergraduate Diploma is awarded in all major fields upon successful completion of the Bachelor of Music program minus the following courses: Introduction to Undergraduate Studies, Introduction to Humanities, English Composition, Western Civilization I and II, Fine Arts I and II, and World Literature I and II.

Graduate Programs

The graduate programs available at Mannes are the Master of Music (MM) degree and the Professional Studies Diploma (PDPL). Both graduate programs require two years (four semesters) of full-time study. Full-time study is defined as a minimum of 12 graduate credits per semester for MM students and 9 graduate credits per semester for PDPL students. Transfer credits from other graduate programs are not allowed, except for Introduction to Graduate Studies (a course in resource materials and research methods for MM students).

Master of Music Degree (MM)

The Master of Music degree is awarded in all major fields upon completion of the requirements described in “Program Components and Requirements” and listed in “Course Requirements by Major”. The two-year Master of Music degree program combines advanced study in a specific concentration with coursework. It develops broad musical expertise and artistically sound interpretive skills. Students are required to take major lessons and participate in performance classes throughout their residency.

Professional Studies Diploma Program (PDPL)

The Professional Studies Diploma program is a full-time graduate course of study for advanced performers designed to develop professional skills. All students are required to take major lessons in each of their four semesters of residence and earn a minimum of 36-38 graduate-level credits for program completion. Majors in orchestral instruments are required to participate in the Mannes Orchestra and performance classes every semester and may also be required to participate in chamber music. Majors in voice are required to participate in the Mannes Opera or another vocal performance class every semester. Students choose their courses in consultation with a registration advisor.

MAJORS AND CONCENTRATIONS

Students major in one of the following fields:

Piano
Harpsichord
Orchestral Instruments
Guitar
Voice
Orchestral Conducting
Composition
Theory
Collaborative Piano: Vocal (graduate level only)
Concentrations available within orchestral instruments:
Violin
Viola
Cello
Double Bass
Harp
Flute
Oboe
Clarinet
Saxophone
Bassoon
Horn
Trumpet
Trombone
Tuba
Percussion

Double Majors and Secondary Instruction
Students who apply for and are accepted into more than one major may enroll as double majors. A student pursuing a double major must complete all the requirements for both majors except where those requirements overlap. Students are encouraged to seek advisement from the assistant dean before pursuing this option. Mannes offers no minor fields of concentration. College Division students desiring private lessons outside of their major area may enroll for them through the Extension Division. There are extra charges for both a second major and secondary instruction.
PROGRAM COMPONENTS AND REQUIREMENTS

Mannes’s outstanding curriculum is a synthesis of international styles and schools of thought, incorporating European performance and interpretive disciplines, French solfège, German and Austrian traditions of theory and analysis, and pragmatic modern American pedagogy including opportunities to learn a variety of styles of improvisation.

Mannes students receive private lessons and coaching from faculty members, who are preeminent professionals in their fields. Students participate regularly in large and small ensembles, orchestra, and opera. A basic part of a Mannes education is Techniques of Music, an intensive course of instruction in musical skills and theory. Throughout their studies, all undergraduate students follow this curriculum, created by students of the Viennese theorist Heinrich Schenker. It provides thorough and rigorous instruction in ear training, sight-singing, dictation, keyboard harmony, score reading, theory, and musical analysis.

At the same time, the Mannes curriculum is being expanded to include the wider range of knowledge and skills required by musicians in 2012. In the next two years, the core Mannes curriculum will expand to include innovative coursework in music business and entrepreneurship, an increased focus on verbal and written communications skills, basic knowledge of K-12 and community-based teaching artistry, basic music technology skills, and increased exposure to contemporary classical masterworks.

Through its sister divisions at The New School, Mannes provides extensive opportunities to take courses in the areas of art and design, the social sciences, non profit management and social entrepreneurship, acting, civic engagement, and more.

GENERAL EDUCATION AT THE UNIVERSITY

The New School’s academic programs are designed to prepare students to be productive citizens in the 21st century. In addition to mastery of discipline-specific competencies, the university expects all of its graduates to demonstrate the capacity to think critically, analyze quantitative and/or scientific constructs, communicate effectively both orally and in writing, and use appropriate technologies as tools for collecting information.

PRIVATE STUDY WITH A MAJOR TEACHER

Performance and composition majors are entitled to one hour per week of private instruction in their major field throughout the academic year (28 lessons per year). When applicants fill out an application to Mannes, they may request a teacher or teachers. If they do so, they should list all preferences in ranked order. If an applicant lists no preferences, or the listed teachers are unavailable, a teacher will be assigned. Students with questions or concerns about the major lessons should consult with the associate dean in a timely way. Students may change their major teacher only once during a given program of study; they should initiate that process by speaking with the associate dean.

PERFORMANCE CLASSES

Students majoring in instruments or in voice participate in a variety of ensemble classes as a required part of their course of study. These classes include The Mannes Orchestra, The Mannes Chorus, The Mannes Opera (through a separate audition), instrumental performance classes, vocal performance classes, and chamber music groups for many combinations of instruments and voice.

TECHNIQUES OF MUSIC

Well-schooled musicians hear accurately, read fluently, and write with awareness of musical meaning and syntax. They can analyze works of varying styles and periods with insight into their structural and stylistic characteristics. The renowned Techniques of Music curriculum enables students to coordinate their studies in these four areas with work in their major field.

In the four years of the undergraduate Techniques of Music program, increasingly challenging demands are made upon the student. In the first two years, students are introduced to the basic technical elements of their art. Students learn to read in the various clefs; they acquire the ability to identify by ear the specific rhythmic, melodic, and harmonic events occurring in music of relative simplicity; they master the fundamental concepts of harmony and counterpoint; and they become acquainted with principles of musical form. These studies serve as the basis for the more advanced work undertaken in the third and fourth years: reading and hearing more complex music, including orchestral scores, and writing and executing keyboard work in a variety of styles. In analysis classes, students are asked not merely to label chords or identify thematic groups and sections but to hear and understand musical works as unified wholes in which each detail relates to both an immediate and a larger context. This analytic approach is based on the pioneering work of Heinrich Schenker as developed at the college by Felix Salzer. The written, aural, and keyboard studies also reflect Schenker’s concept of structure, tonal coherence, and musical direction.

UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC STUDIES

Mannes educates complete musicians. Its academic program introduces students to the major areas of intellectual achievement, with particular reference to Western culture, past and present. Students in these courses develop a critical grasp of world history and insight into contemporary meanings and values. Students can supplement academic studies with courses from other divisions at The New School.

UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE ELECTIVES

A certain number of elective courses are required of all degree and diploma students. Although electives play a small role in the undergraduate programs, they make up a significant part of the MM and PDPL programs. Various elective courses are offered each semester in the College Division at Mannes. Some of the courses offered in the Mannes Extension Division are available to college students for undergraduate elective credit. In addition, undergraduate students may choose from a wide variety of electives at other divisions of The New School, many of which are available at no extra cost to the student. Graduate students are welcome to audit foreign language courses at The New School at no charge. Students meet with academic advisors to select classes during each registration period.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Undergraduate Students

To earn an undergraduate degree or diploma, students must have a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA and complete departmental requirements. All candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree, Bachelor of Music degree, and Undergraduate Diploma must be in residence for a minimum of two academic years. A four-year residency is required for first-time freshmen.

The following requirements apply to all undergraduate performance majors:

1. A performance examination, held before a jury of college faculty members from the student’s major field (or a closely related one) and senior members of the administration, is required in each year of residency. These examinations are held in April of each year for all students.

2. The senior-year final examination consists of a performance drawn from a full-length program of suitably demanding works. Jurors attend the graduation recitals of conducting majors, who perform specially arranged programs.

3. A graduation recital of suitably demanding works is required for MM candidates and PDPL candidates. It may be given at any time during the second year of study. Conducting majors are required to conduct a substantial work with a student orchestra.

4. Candidates for the Master of Music degree in performance areas are also required to play in, and provide suitable documentation for, two professional outside performances, which can take place at any time during their course of graduate study.

Graduate Students

To earn a graduate degree or diploma, students must have a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA and complete departmental requirements. All candidates for the Master of Music degree and the Professional Studies diploma must be in residence for four semesters. Candidates for the MM and PDPL must complete their degree requirements within five years of their initial enrollment.

The following requirements apply to all graduate performance majors:

1. A performance examination, played before a jury of college faculty members from the student’s major field (or a closely related one) and senior members of the administration, is required in each year of residency. These examinations are held in April of each year for all students. Special juries may be available in December only for those eligible for December graduation.

2. Second-year final examinations for MM students consist of a performance drawn from a full-length program of suitably demanding works. Jurors attend the graduation recitals of conducting majors, who perform specially arranged programs.

3. A graduation recital of suitably demanding works is required for MM candidates and PDPL candidates. It may be given at any time during the second year of study. Conducting majors are required to conduct a substantial work with a student orchestra.

4. Candidates for the Master of Music degree in performance areas are also required to play in, and provide suitable documentation for, two professional outside performances, which can take place at any time during their course of graduate study.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS BY MAJOR

This section outlines coursework and credits required for completion of each program at Mannes.

UNDERGRADUATE

Requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree and the Undergraduate Diploma differ. For more information, see “Degree and Diploma Programs”. The UDPL HEGIS code is 5610.00 for all programs.

ADMISSION, FINANCIAL AID, AND TUITION AND FEES

ADMISSION

For more information about applying to one of Mannes’ degree programs, email mannesadmissions@newschool.edu, call 212.580.0210 x4862, or visit our website at www.newschool.edu/mannes.

FINANCIAL AID

Two types of support are available to new and returning students at Mannes: need-based awards, administered by the New School Office of Student Financial Services, and merit-based awards, recommended by the Mannes College Scholarship Committee and processed by The New School.

For information about need-based awards, view the information available at newschool.edu/studentservices.aspx, or call Student Financial Services directly at 212.229.8930. See also “University Policies and Information: Student Financial Services”.

Merit-based awards are based not on financial need but on evidence of outstanding musical talent, ability, and achievement. The level of award is determined at the initial audition as part of the acceptance package. Continuing students at Mannes can expect to retain their merit scholarships each year provided that they remain in good academic standing and demonstrate steady progress toward degree completion. Continuing students with poor progress in the major area, poor progress in classes, low grade point averages (below 3.0 for graduates and 2.0 for undergraduates), or serious disciplinary problems may have their awards reduced or eliminated. Students who do not successfully fulfill their performance responsibilities may also have their awards reduced or eliminated.

In extraordinary situations, and as funds allow, a continuing student may have his or her award increased because of outstanding achievement during the previous year or years. No student should enter the school anticipating a significant increase in merit award or requiring such an increase to complete his or her studies.

All decisions about merit-based awards for new and continuing students are made by the Mannes Scholarship Committee, which consists of faculty and administrators selected from across the spectrum of performance and academic areas. Inquiries about merit-based awards should be made by email to mannesscholarships@newschool.edu.

TUITION INFORMATION

Tuition information per term (12 or more credits) for the 2012–2013 academic year is as follows:

- Degree Course (BM, BS, MM) full-time: $18,330
- Undergraduate Diploma full-time: $18,330
- Professional Studies Diploma full-time: $13,000

Lessons for a second major: $4,300
ESL coursework (per course): $585

For students with more than one major, the tuition is the cost of the full-time course plus the cost of the second set of major lessons.

FEE INFORMATION

Fee information for the 2012–2013 academic year is as follows:

- Application fee (nonrefundable): $100
- Tuition deposit (new students, nonrefundable): $500
- University Services Fee (per term): $130
- Student Senate Fee (per term): $5
- University Health Services Fee (per term): $295
- University Health Insurance Plan (may be waived): $2,519
- Dishonored check fee: $30
- Late registration fee: $150
- Late tuition payment fee: $150

New School Housing offers dormitory housing to Mannes students. For room and board information, see www.newschool.edu/studentservices.

BILLING AND PAYMENT INFORMATION

See Billing, Payment, and Refunds policies later in this catalog.

TRANSCRIPT EVALUATION

Foreign Transcript Translation Policy

International students must have their official transcripts translated into English by a participating member of NACES (www.naces.org). The New School’s preferred provider is World Education Services, Inc. (www.wes.org). Untranslated and unevaluated documents will not be accepted.

Transfer Credit Policy

Applicants from other colleges or universities must follow the admission procedures as outlined and have official transcripts sent from secondary schools and colleges attended. Once accepted, transfer students may receive credit toward the Mannes degree pending results of entrance tests, interviews, and transcript evaluation.

The New School accepts credit from regionally accredited institutions. Credits are accepted under the following conditions: the courses are in the liberal arts or in other subjects comparable to those offered at The New School and the student received a grade of C or better. Coursework from non-regionally accredited institutions will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis; students may be asked to provide course syllabi, portfolios, and other pertinent documentation. Students with more specific questions about transfer credits should contact the assistant dean.
Transfer credits from other graduate programs are not allowed, except for Introduction to Graduate Studies (a course in resource materials and research methods for MM students).

The New School does not transfer grades or grade points from other schools. Credits only are transferred.

CREDITS BY EXAM

Undergraduate students take a battery of placement tests before beginning their studies and a significant percentage of them are exempt from one or more courses as a result of these tests. Mannes issues credits by exam to entering undergraduate students and lists exempted courses and credits granted on their transcript.
ADVICEMENT AND REGISTRATION

REGISTRATION ADVISEMENT

Each student’s program is designed under the supervision of the assistant dean to ensure regular progress toward completion of the degree or diploma. Students are responsible for ensuring they meet all the requirements for their program. Students meet privately with a registration advisor twice a year to review past work and choose future courses. Changes in schedule are also handled by registration advisors at the beginning of each semester during the posted “add/drop” period. It is the student’s responsibility to meet with advisors during the scheduled registration periods; late registration will result in additional charges. The college reserves the right to cancel any class because of low enrollment or circumstances beyond its control.

For more information about registration, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/registrar.

REGISTRATION SCHEDULE

Current Students

In order to reserve a place in the college for the following fall, currently enrolled students must complete registration each spring according to the posted advising and registration schedule. Spring registration for continuing students is completed each fall according to the posted schedule.

New Students

The assistant dean informs all new students of the registration procedure upon payment of the nonrefundable $500 tuition deposit and submission of an Intent to Enroll form to the Office of Admission.

Registration Holds

In the event that a student has failed to satisfy requirements for documentation, payment, or return of library materials, the appropriate university office will place a hold preventing further registration. Students should check MyNewSchool at least two weeks prior to registration to see if any holds have been placed. MyNewSchool will indicate the type of hold and contact information to resolve the hold. The deadlines for completing registration will not be extended because of delays in clearing holds, and students will be subject to any applicable late registration fee.

Adding or Dropping Courses, Program Changes, and Withdrawals

To add or drop a course, a student should contact his or her advisor for approval and instructions. All course changes are made in ALVIN at my.newschool.edu and are processed through the registration advisor.

Please note that class attendance and/or completion of course requirements alone does not constitute formal registration and will not make a student eligible to receive credit for that course. Likewise, failure to attend classes, failure to complete coursework, failure to complete payment, or notification of the instructor does not constitute official withdrawal and may result in a permanent grade of “WF” on the student’s record.

The following deadlines apply for students adding and dropping on site in all degree and diploma programs:

- Adding a course Through the second week of the semester
- Dropping a course Through the third week of the semester
- Withdrawal After the third week of the semester
- Withdrawal with a grade of W through the seventh week of the semester
- Withdrawal After the seventh week of the semester with a grade of WF

Late-starting courses may be added after these deadlines with the permission of the student’s advisor.

Withdrawing with a Grade of W

A grade of W indicates withdrawal from a course without academic penalty. Permission must be obtained from an advisor. The course will appear on the student’s transcript with a grade of W and is not counted in the cumulative grade point average.

Late Registration Fee and Late Payment Fee Policy

(This policy does not apply to newly admitted students during their first semester.)

Fall Registration: Students registered for the fall semester will be required to make arrangements to pay by August 10. Failure to do so will result in a late payment fee of $150. Students who neglect to register until after August 10 will be charged a late registration fee of $150.

Spring Registration: Students registered for the spring semester will be required to make arrangements to pay by January 10. Failure to do so will result in a late payment fee of $150. Students who neglect to register until after January 10 will be charged a late registration fee of $150.

This policy applies to all continuing degree and diploma students except students returning from a leave of absence.

How to Avoid the Late Payment Fee and Late Registration Fee:

1. If at all possible, register for fall courses in April and for spring courses in November. Advisors may not be available during the summer months. Check with your advisor for his or her availability.

2. Complete the financial aid application process as quickly and efficiently as possible. Do not delay in submitting critical documents. Check with the Financial Aid Office if you have any questions or concerns about your financial aid package.
3. Sign up for the payment plan on time. Check with Student Financial Services if you need an application or have a question.

4. Check your student account at my.newschool.edu on a regular basis to see if any charges have been added to your account. Take care of any charges promptly.

5. An electronic invoice (e-bill) for the fall semester will be available online in mid-July. For the spring semester, electronic invoices will be ready for viewing online the first week in December. Invoices will be available only to registered students. If a balance remains on your account after tuition, housing, and other fees have been charged, take care of the balance due by the payment deadline date.

6. If you will be receiving a third-party reimbursement, be sure to submit the appropriate documents to Student Financial Services by the payment deadline date.

7. If you are unable to pay the balance by the payment deadline date, contact the Financial Aid Office and Student Financial Services promptly. You must make arrangements to pay by the payment deadline date.

Appeals: If you are charged the late payment fee or late registration fee and have extenuating circumstances that warrant a review of the fee, you may appeal by writing a letter stating your case and attaching appropriate documentation. The appeal must be received before October 15 for the fall term and before February 15 for the spring term. You will be required to pay the fee before the appeal can be reviewed. If the appeal is granted, a refund will be issued. The appeal should be sent to:

Degree Verifications

The New School has authorized the National Student Clearinghouse to provide degree verifications. The National Student Clearinghouse can be contacted at:

Web: www.degreeverify.com
Telephone: 703.742.4200
Fax: 703.742.4239
Email: degreeverify@studentclearinghouse.org
Mail: National Student Clearinghouse
13454 Sunrise Valley Drive, Suite 300
Herndon, VA 20171

Enrollment Verifications

The New School has authorized the National Student Clearinghouse to act as its agent for verification of student enrollment status.

Students can print an Official Enrollment Verification Certificate through ALVIN at my.newschool.edu for current or past semesters. This Enrollment Verification Certificate can be presented to health insurance agencies, housing authorities,
MATRICULATED STUDENTS

Matriculated students are students accepted by the admission committee and enrolled in a full-time Mannes College division degree or diploma program (BM, BS, UDP, MM, PDPL). It is not possible to pursue a degree or diploma at Mannes on a part-time basis except under extraordinary circumstances as allowed by the College Division Executive Committee and approved by the assistant dean.

CHANGE OF MAJOR TEACHER

A student may petition the associate dean for a change of major teacher. No change will be implemented during the course of a semester, and the decision is at the associate dean’s discretion. Students may change major teachers only once during their course of study for each degree or diploma.

ATTENDANCE POLICIES

The college observes professional standards of attendance for all its performance activities and concerts. The college also requires regular and punctual attendance at all classes, lessons, and rehearsals. Students should inform themselves of the specific attendance policies outlined by instructors at the beginning of each term. Excessive absences may result in lowered grades, failure, or dismissal from a course at the discretion of the instructor in consultation with the assistant dean.

Short-Term Leave

Students are required to be in residence at the college when classes are in session, especially during the final week of classes and exams in each semester. No student may take a leave of absence from the college for professional or personal reasons unless he or she receives permission in advance from the administration. Leaves will be considered for students in excellent academic standing and for a period of time not to exceed two weeks per academic year. Formal requests must be made to the assistant dean well in advance of the departure date. Students in large performing ensembles (e.g., orchestra and opera) should also make sure that their requested absences conform to the regular participation and attendance policies for those groups. In exceptional cases, a leave of absence of more than two weeks may be granted. Such requests should be made to the associate dean.

Leave of Absence

Students in good standing may request an official leave of absence for one or two semesters; such requests should be made to the associate dean. Leaves of absence will be granted only once. Students with approved leaves may resume their full-time studies without re-auditioning or retesting, provided that they inform the associate dean in writing of their intention to return by the agreed-upon deadline.

Leaves of absence for medical reasons require appropriate documentation. To return from a leave taken for medical reasons, a student must submit follow-up documentation indicating that the student is able to resume study. Upon receipt of this documentation, the Office of Student Support will make a decision as to the student’s eligibility to return. Until the student receives clearance to return, a hold will be placed on registration.

A student who withdraws without an official leave of absence or who fails to re-register within the term of an official leave must file a new application and be examined in the regular manner.

Withdrawal

If a student decides not to continue at Mannes, he or she must complete an official Exit Form and have an exit interview with the associate dean. The form and interview ensure proper tracking of the student’s record. Information about refunds in cases of leave of absence or withdrawal is provided in “Billing, Payment, and Refund Policies”.

Religious Absences and Equivalent Opportunity

Pursuant to Section 224-a of the New York State Education Laws, any student who is absent from school because of his or her religious beliefs will be given an equivalent opportunity to register for classes or make up any examination, study, or work requirements which he or she may have missed because of such absence on any particular day or days.

EXAMINATIONS

Examinations are given in all subjects at the end of each semester, except the major field of study. Examinations in the major (juries) are held once a year, at which time each student’s work is critically evaluated. Students are required to be present at all regularly scheduled examinations during the year. An unexcused absence from any final semester examination may result in an automatic grade of F for that course.

GRADING

Most undergraduate and many graduate courses at Mannes are organized on a yearly basis rather than on a semester basis. However, grades are given in each subject at midyear, and these grades are recorded on the student’s transcript. Students receiving an F in any course at midyear are disqualified from continuing in that course. A grade of D in an undergraduate class or C– in a graduate class given at midyear indicates unsatisfactory but not failing work. Students continuing on to the second semester must demonstrate significant improvement in order to pass the course.
Incomplete Grades: A grade of I (Incomplete) is given by a faculty member only at the request of the student and with the approval of the assistant dean. Students must complete the Request for a Grade of Incomplete Form with their instructors to request a grade of Incomplete.

Undergraduate students must complete the outstanding course requirements by the end of the seventh week of the following fall semester for spring and summer courses and by the end of the seventh week of the following spring semester for fall courses or receive a permanent grade of WF. Graduate students must complete the outstanding course requirements within a year from the last class meeting or receive a permanent grade of WF.

All credit-bearing degree requirements must be taken for standard letter grade, except for those few courses specifically set up for a Pass/Unsatisfactory evaluation.

*A grade of B– or lower in the major field of study and in certain performance classes is considered unsatisfactory and may result in action by the Academic Standing Committee.

The grade of D is available for undergraduate courses only; the lowest passing grade for graduate students is C–. Students who fail a required Fundamentals class are subject to dismissal.

Repeated Course Policy

With divisional approval, graduate students with a grade of B– or below and undergraduate students with a grade of F or WF are eligible to repeat up to three courses during a single degree program. Although the initial grade will appear on the transcript, the grade earned the second time will be computed in the grade point average, and the previous grade will drop out of the cumulative GPA.

Students must submit an approved form at the time of registration. Repeated courses may not be counted twice toward fulfillment of graduation requirements, nor may they be counted twice for loan or New York Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) certification.

Grade Appeals

Students may petition for an academic grade review by following the procedure outlined below within 60 days after the grade was issued. Before deciding to appeal for a grade change, the student should request a verbal explanation of the basis of the grade from the instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the explanation, he or she may appeal the grade according to the following steps:

1. The student submits a letter outlining any questions and/or objections directly to the faculty member, with a copy to the assistant dean.

2. The instructor submits a written response to the student’s letter within one month of receipt, with a copy to the assistant dean.

3. If the student is still unsatisfied after the faculty member’s written response, he or she may appeal further by writing to the assistant dean, who will convene an appeals committee to review both letters, clarify any outstanding questions or issues, and make a recommendation to the dean of the college. The dean’s decision is final.

Academic Transcripts

An official transcript carries the registrar's signature and the New School seal, and documents a student's permanent academic record at the university. Students may have a transcript mailed to the address of their choosing (including other colleges and institutions) by submitting an official request to the Office of the Registrar. This can be done online at MyNewSchool. Transcripts are not issued for students with outstanding debts to the university. For additional information visit: www.newschool.edu/studentservices/registrar/transcripts/.

ACADEMIC STANDING AND PROGRESS

Dean’s List

Mannes undergraduate students must be full-time and have a term GPA of 3.7 to be placed on the Dean’s List for any given semester.

Undergraduate Students—University-Wide

All matriculated undergraduate students must earn a 2.0 term GPA and cumulative GPA to remain in good academic standing. Students with less than a 2.0 term GPA or cumulative GPA will be placed on academic probation. Students who earn less than a 2.0 term GPA or cumulative GPA for two consecutive semesters will be dismissed. Any undergraduate earning less than a 1.0 term GPA will be dismissed.

Graduate Students—University-Wide

All matriculated graduate students must earn a 3.0 term GPA and cumulative GPA to remain in good academic standing. Students with less than a 3.0 term GPA or cumulative GPA will be placed on academic probation. Students who earn less than a 3.0 cumulative GPA for two consecutive semesters will be dismissed.

Graduate students must have accumulated at least one half of their required credits by the end of their second semester of residency. Students who have not done so will be subject to probation and may not be allowed to register for additional credits (or equivalency credits) the following semester. In addition, students must meet department and program academic requirements in order to remain in good academic standing in their program.

Mannes Students

Undergraduate and graduate students who meet the requirements above and make regular progress toward degree completion are considered to be in good academic standing. Those who do not are subject to disciplinary action by the Academic Standing Committee. The Academic Standing Committee is made up of administrators and faculty members and is chaired by the assistant dean. It meets each semester to review student progress. Any student who earns a grade of B- or lower in a required course, particularly in courses in their major area, is subject to review by the Academic Standing Committee. Disciplinary actions imposed by the committee include academic warning, probation, and dismissal. An undergraduate student who fails one or more Fundamentals courses in the Techniques of Music curriculum is subject to dismissal.

Academic Warning

The student is informed in writing about areas of weakness and suggested steps for improvement. Lack of improvement or additional poor grades will result in further action by the Academic Standing Committee, including probation or dismissal.

Probation

The student is informed in writing that he or she has failed to achieve an adequate academic record and/or is making unsatisfactory progress in the major. Probationary status constitutes an official warning to the student that he or she will be dismissed from the college if the quality of work does not significantly improve during the next semester. Probationary status may entail loss of eligibility for merit scholarship and may also restrict students from participation in some performance opportunities. Students on probation for two consecutive terms are subject to dismissal.

Dismissal

A student may be dismissed by action of the Academic Standing Committee for poor academic performance, unsatisfactory progress in the major, or infractions of the University Policies Governing Student Conduct. Students who have been dismissed and who wish to return to the college must re-apply through the normal admission process for reinstatement no sooner than one academic year from the date of dismissal. If re-accepted, the student will be on probation for the first academic year of reinstatement.

Academic Dismissal Appeals—University-Wide

Students who are dismissed from their degree program may petition to their dean’s office to reverse the decision by filing a formal written appeal. All appeals must be presented in writing, with supporting documentation, within two weeks of receipt of notice of academic dismissal. Students can expect to hear the results of an appeal within two to four weeks of its submission.

Appeals must contain the following information:

- An explanation of poor performance and/or failure to complete required coursework
- A description of plans to improve academic performance and/or to complete outstanding work
- Any other relevant information pertaining to academic history or potential.

Students dismissed on the basis of fall term grades must be notified before spring semester classes begin. If a student’s dismissal status is determined after classes begin, he or she will be allowed to attend classes and be placed on probation for the spring term.

At Mannes, the appeals process is handled by the associate dean, who convenes an ad hoc appeals committee consisting of administrators, department heads, or program coordinators, as appropriate.

Academic Standing and Financial Aid

Satisfactory academic progress is a crucial factor in maintaining eligibility for state, federal, and institutional financial aid. In addition to the standards described above, certain aid programs (such as New York State’s TAP) may have additional or different academic progress requirements. Failure to meet these requirements may jeopardize a student’s continued financial assistance. Students should contact Student Financial Services with questions about general requirements or personal status.

A student who loses financial aid eligibility because of failure to satisfy academic progress requirements may have his or her financial aid reinstated if satisfactory academic standing is regained or if he or she is readmitted to the academic program.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Students are solely responsible for knowing and completing the course requirements for their major, as set forth in the Mannes Catalog of their year of entrance. The assistant dean will evaluate transfer credits from other accredited institutions of higher learning.

Undergraduate Requirements

To earn an undergraduate degree or diploma, students must have a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA and complete departmental requirements. All candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree, Bachelor of Music degree, or Undergraduate Diploma must be in residence for a minimum of two academic years. A four-year residency is required for first-time freshmen.

Graduation with Honors
Undergraduates who have completed at least 60 credits in residence for a bachelor’s degree and who have a cumulative GPA of 3.7 or better will graduate “With Honors” (noted on their diploma and transcript).

Graduate Requirements
To earn a graduate degree or diploma, students must have a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA and complete departmental requirements. Graduate students who exit the program and then reapply and are readmitted must complete their degree requirements within five years.

Graduation Petitions and Fees
The New School confers degrees twice a year, in January and May. The commencement ceremony for May and January graduates is held in May. All degree requirements, as specified in divisional catalogs, must be completed prior to the graduation date for a degree to be awarded.

Students who expect to graduate must submit a Graduation Petition to the Office of the Registrar through MyNewSchool. The petition must be filed regardless of intent to attend the commencement ceremony. Students expecting to graduate in January should petition prior to October 1. Students expecting to graduate in May should petition prior to February 15. Late fees may apply after these deadlines. Go to the registrar’s website for details.

Please note: Attendees must purchase graduation attire in April from the university supplier. Information is provided in February.

Degree Conferral and Issuing of Diplomas
The New School confers degrees in January and May. After all final semester grades are received and posted, an evaluation of the student’s academic record will determine eligibility to graduate. This process takes several weeks. If the student is eligible to graduate, the degree will be conferred and a diploma will be mailed to the student’s specified “diploma address” approximately 12 weeks later. Diplomas are not issued to students with outstanding debts to the university.
MANNES FACILITIES AND SERVICES

FACILITIES

150 West 85th Street

Mannes offers an ideal environment for music education and creativity. The main building, on West 85th Street, features classrooms, practice rooms, a complete music and listening library, an audio studio, and a computer lab. Mannes has two concert halls, one with 250 seats and one with 65 seats, that host hundreds of performances each year by students, faculty, and artists-in-residence.

Mannes is located on Manhattan’s vibrant Upper West Side, a safe, residential neighborhood that is home to hundreds of excellent restaurants, movie theaters, parks, live-music venues, and cozy cafés, not to mention cultural institutions such as the American Museum of Natural History, Symphony Space, and Lincoln Center.

The John Goldmark Practice Center

The John Goldmark Practice Center, within walking distance of the school and adjacent to Lincoln Center, provides additional practice rooms and an opera rehearsal studio. It is located at 37 West 65th Street and is open approximately 60 hours per week.

The Harry Scherman Library

The Scherman Music Library supports degree and diploma programs offered by Mannes College The New School for Music, as well as the rest of The New School and Mannes’ nondegree programs in the Extension and Preparatory Divisions. The growing collection is strong in music theory, scores, and performing editions of the classical repertoire. The collection contains approximately 8,000 books, 30,000 scores, 9,000 recordings, 300 video recordings, many music-related periodical titles, specialized databases, and electronic resources.

The Scherman Library is a member of the Research Library Association of South Manhattan (also known as the consortium), which includes the research libraries of The New School, New York University, Cooper Union, Cardozo Law School, the New York Academy of Art, and the New-York Historical Society. The consortium was established to increase access to research resources for matriculated students and faculty teaching in degree-granting programs at these institutions.

Mannes Computer Lab

A seven-workstation lab on West 85th Street’s sixth floor provides administrative software (Microsoft Word, Excel, etc.), music composition tools, and email and Internet access to Mannes degree- and diploma-seeking students.

SERVICES

Techniques of Music Tutoring

The Techniques of Music Department sponsors a free tutoring program for degree students having difficulty in their Techniques of Music courses (especially theory, ear training, and dictation). Students seeking more information about this service should look for a notice in the fifth-floor hallway or inquire in the Dean’s Office.

Mannes ESL Instruction

During the academic year, Mannes provides instruction in English as a second language (ESL) for students who require it. Placement into courses in ESL conversation and in ESL writing is by examination during the audition period. There is an additional fee for those courses. Students seeking additional practice in English conversation may meet with Mannes “conversation partners” (students who are native English speakers and have expressed interest in working with international students) at no extra charge.

Mannes Audio Department

Mannes houses an audio studio to support students’ recording needs. The Audio Department records student recitals, holds private recording sessions, and edits and duplicates existing recordings for a reasonable fee. Reservations for recordings, arranged through the Mannes Bursar’s Office, must be made two weeks before the recital or recording session. To schedule a private recording session, students must reserve the Mannes Concert Hall through the Mannes Concert Office or Goldmark Hall through the Mannes Room Scheduling Desk. Students can request that records be delivered as compact discs, DATs, and/or analog tapes. Students can also hire the Audio Department to videotape their performance.

The Mannes Audio Department offers audiovisual aids to Mannes faculty and administrative staff for use in teaching and job-related presentations. Slide, overhead, and audio equipment (such as portable CD and cassette tape players); classroom stereo systems (including record, CD, and cassette tape players); videocassette recorders; television monitors; and a multimedia cart (including a projection screen) are available. Faculty and staff should make arrangements through the Mannes Dean’s Office and the Audio Department.

Concert Office

The Mannes Concert Office assists students and faculty with all aspects of organizing performances, rehearsals, and recording sessions in the Mannes Concert Hall and the John Goldmark Hall and, for Mannes’ large ensembles, in outside venues. Consult the Concert Office’s Guide to Scheduling Concer for information about scheduling recitals, printing concert programs, and publicizing performances. Copies are available from the Concert Office, located on Mannes’ first floor.
Room Scheduling Desk
Currently registered degree and diploma students may reserve a room for practice or rehearsal in the Mannes building according to the room scheduling policies:

• Submit a request via the online form at http://www.newschool.edu/mannes/roomrequest/, allowing 24 hours advanced notice.
• See the room scheduling manager (Monday–Friday, 9:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m. and 2:00–4:45 p.m.).
• Call 212.580.0210 x4890.

Piano Maintenance Department
Mannes employs one full-time and one part-time piano technician to maintain the college’s pianos. Students using practice rooms and concert facilities are asked to report any problems with Mannes pianos to the Piano Maintenance Department so that the technicians can act appropriately.

Business Office
The Mannes Business Office, located on Mannes’ first floor, manages the payroll for student on-campus employment.
PRIVATE INSTRUCTION

Instrument, Voice, and Composition
Students receive one-hour private lessons weekly for each of the 28 weeks of the academic year. Those majoring in instruments or voice are required to pass an examination in their major field before a faculty jury toward the end of the second semester each year. Jury requirements are available on the Mannes website.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 8 credits (undergraduate)/10-12 credits (graduate)

Theory
In addition to attending classes in Techniques of Music, undergraduate students majoring in theory receive individual piano lessons during their first two years and are required to pass a piano examination before a faculty jury toward the end of the second semester each year. Jury requirements are available on the Mannes website.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 8 credits

Orchestral Conducting
Conducting majors meet individually and in a small group for lessons, including work with two pianos, and study of symphonic, concerto, and operatic literature. All orchestral conducting students work regularly with the Repertory Orchestra, an instrumental ensemble created specifically to support the orchestral conducting program. Advanced students also have the opportunity to conduct reading sessions, rehearsals, and performances of The Mannes Orchestra at the discretion of the music director.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 8 credits (undergraduate)/10-12 credits (graduate)

LARGE AND SMALL ENSEMBLES

The Mannes Orchestra
Sight-reading and study of symphonic and operatic literature; rehearsal and preparation for regular public performances. All majors in orchestral instruments are required to audition annually for seating placement.

6 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

The Mannes Chorus
Sight-reading of choral literature from the 15th century to the present; rehearsal and preparation for regular performances. Members accepted on the basis of audition. Two years of chorus are required for all undergraduate students not subject to the orchestra requirement. Required every year for choral conducting majors.

3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

The Mannes Opera
Entry into The Mannes Opera Young Artists and The Mannes Opera Apprentice Studio class is by audition for juniors, seniors and graduate students. Successful applicants will be assigned to either the Young Artists or Apprentice Studio section of Opera.

The Mannes Opera Young Artists Class
Fundamentals of opera training for students majoring in voice. The class is divided into small sections, each of which is led by various coaches and stage directors, and prepares a brief performance either in concert or of staged scenes from selected operas. A number of students in the class are also chosen to prepare a fully staged production of one or more complete operas for public performance. In addition to fulfilling their performance obligation, students in the class assist in the technical preparation of staged productions.

Varied hours weekly, 8 credits

The Mannes Opera Apprentice Studio Class
Students who successfully audition for this course will be immersed in the preparation of operatic roles by studying both the musical and dramatic aspects of arias and scenes drawn from a wide variety of operatic literature. Intensive musical preparation including individual coaching and acting techniques featuring monologue work are hallmarks of this course. Students will be permitted to observe master classes scheduled by The Mannes Opera and may also be invited to audition for ensemble assignments with The Mannes Opera. The course will culminate with a public performance of opera scenes studied in class. Open to juniors, seniors and graduate students.

2 hours weekly, 15 weeks, credits TBD

Percussion Ensemble
Repertory includes standard works and music of many contemporary composers. Required for students concentrating in percussion in each semester of residency.

3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Guitar Ensemble
Music of the lute and guitar repertory of all periods, written for two or more guitars or in combination with other instruments or voice. Required for students majoring in guitar.

3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Baroque Chamber Players
Performance practices of the 17th and 18th centuries. A laboratory course with emphasis on ornamentation, improvisation, and idiomatic conventions of notation and rhythm. By audition only. Open to singers, instrumentalists, and keyboard players. Can be used to satisfy chamber music or elective credit by advisement.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Contemporary Music Ensemble
Music of the 20th and 21st centuries in classroom performance. Works prepared for periodic public performances. By audition only. Can be used to satisfy chamber music or elective credit by advisement.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

INSTRUMENTAL PERFORMANCE CLASSES

Performance Classes for Orchestral Instruments
Reading and study of orchestral literature in classes grouped by each instrumental area. Emphasis is placed on developing skills necessary to play in a professional orchestra section. Required in each semester of residency.

12 hours per semester, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Ensemble Classes – Winds and Brass
Reading and study of orchestral literature in classes grouped by wind or brass sections. Emphasis is placed on developing skills necessary to play in a professional orchestra section. Required in each semester of residency.

12 hours per semester, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Chamber Music
Study of the standard ensemble literature for string instruments, wind and brass instruments, and piano; performances in student recitals and festivals.

10 hours per semester, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Repertory Orchestra
A performance class designed to assist in the training of orchestral conducting majors. Open by audition to College Division instrumentalists.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 0 credit

GRADUATION RECITAL

Graduation Recital
Candidates for all degrees and diplomas (BM, BS, UDPL, MM, PDPL) must present a graduation recital at Mannes during their final year. Theory majors are exempted from this requirement. For composition majors, this requirement is replaced by the “Performance of Student Compositions” (see below).

0 credit

Performance of Student Compositions
During the period of residency, each student must prepare performances of at least three of his or her own works at concert programs given in the college.

Composition and improvisation of larger-scale keyboard projects in Classical and Romantic styles; sight-reading of figured bass, sight-reading of keyboard literature. Required for piano, harpsichord, theory, composition, and conducting majors.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Score Reading
Details the various problems of orchestral score reading. Covers literature from the classic through the modern period. Required for keyboard, theory, composition, and conducting majors.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Tonal Composition
Advanced studies in tonal composition. Three- and four-part canon and double and triple fugue. Study and exercises in sonata form. Required in place of Theory IV for composition and theory majors. Suggested as an elective for other qualified students.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

Current Research in Theory
A course designed to identify and address some of the major trends in current theoretical research through consideration of significant articles and publications from recent years. Topics for this semester will include narrative, non-western music, neo-Riemannian theory, and perception. Assignments include regular reading and listening plus some written work and class presentations. Required of senior theory majors, recommended for graduate theory majors, open to all other interested students by permission. May be repeated once for credit.

2 hours weekly, 1 semester, 2 credits

OTHER REQUIRED COURSES AND ELECTIVES

The following courses are required for some majors and are open to others as electives.

Orchestration

Orchestration I
Instrumentation. The basic range and techniques of the instruments of the orchestra. The study of their uses and functions within the musical structure as established by the important composers of the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries. Assignments in writing for individual instruments and small combinations as well as for small and full orchestra. Required for students majoring in theory, composition, and conducting.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Orchestration II

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Vocal

Introduction to Operatic Arts
This course provides an introduction to learning operatic roles with an emphasis on musical and dramatic preparation. Students will be given the techniques to understand the composer’s musical intentions and will begin basic preparatory study of stagecraft, including terminology and acting techniques. The course will culminate with a public performance of opera scenes studied in class. Recommended for freshman and sophomores.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Song Interpretation
Designed for singers and pianists who are interested in the performance of art songs. Emphasis placed on analysis of text and music and their interrelation. May be used by pianists for ensemble credit.

1½ hours weekly, 2 semesters, 3 credits

Languages I and II (Italian, German, or French)
The main objective of the language courses is to enable the student to think in a foreign language and thereby enjoy a broadened cultural experience. Each language is assimilated through speaking, reading, writing, and listening. Pronunciation, grammar, vocabulary, translation, conversation, and idioms are stressed. In the second year, the student concentrates on the reading and translation of simple poetry, plays, and short novels in addition to more advanced conversation and vocabulary. Students majoring in voice are required to take one year of each language. Students majoring in theory are required to take two years of either French or German.

Various hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

English Diction
Study of the artistic delivery of English in song using the International Phonetic Alphabet. Required for students majoring in voice.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Italian, French, and German Diction
Study of the fundamentals of phonetics, articulation, and pronunciation of Italian, French, and German as applied to song and operatic literature. Accompanists are provided for a number of classes. Required for students majoring in voice and choral conducting.

Each course 2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Movement for Singers
Led by a professional active in the theater and opera. Includes stage movement and related techniques and styles, such as combat. Required for students majoring in voice and available as an elective for graduate singers not in Opera.

1½ hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Acting for Singers
For the singer and nondancer. Covers expressive movement techniques from gesture to posture and basics of stage movement. Sources are Emile Jacques-Dalcroze, Rudolf Laban, and Etienne Decroux. Additional lessons in functional anatomy, breath, and alignment. Technical study designed to promote physical responsibility and awareness in the singer-actor and to provide a vocabulary for the spontaneous creation of character. This course will include improvisational work and choreography. Required for students majoring in voice. Available as an elective for graduate singers not in Opera.

1½ hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Piano

Piano Sight-Reading
Consists of exercises leading to instant recognition of rhythms, chords, and basic keyboard patterns; keyboard topography; sight-reading of four-hand music, accompaniments, and solo repertory. Required for students majoring in piano who are deficient in sight-reading.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits
Piano Ensemble
Develops good ensemble playing through the study of four-hand (two-piano) compositions, with attention to sound, balance, and voicing. Required for piano majors.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Piano Pedagogy
Examination of teaching material for the preschool child, elementary school beginner, high school beginner, adult beginner, and professional student. Discussions focus on developing musical taste, building technical skill, memorization, and performance; intelligent practice and the establishment of a sound relationship between child, teacher, and parent; visiting lecturers; and demonstrations. Students are required to observe classes and individual instruction and to practice teaching other students. Required for students majoring in piano.

1½ hours weekly, 2 semesters, 3 credits

Guitar
Guitar Survey
Study of problems specifically relating to performance on the guitar. Editing of music for performance, transcription, reading of lute tablature, and sight-reading. Required for all students majoring in guitar.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Guitar Performance Class
Study and performance of the guitar literature. Required for all students majoring in guitar.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

ACADEMIC STUDIES

Undergraduate Curriculum
Mannes requires all undergraduate degree students to complete a core curriculum in the humanities. The curriculum is intended to give students a basic familiarity with the broad spectrum of the humanities, not only in relation to the field of music but also as a continuum of study that will enable them to take an active role in the community of educated citizens. The program offers courses in music, art, literature, and history that provide students with an in-depth understanding of each cultural period as well as a panoramic view of the development of Western civilization in a global context. During the second and third years, the core curriculum includes History of Music, a chronological presentation of music in Western society from classical antiquity through the 19th century (three hours weekly). The first year of History of Music traces the development of music from its earliest forms to 1800; the second year is concerned with music from 1800 through the 20th century.

The curriculum has been established along lines approved by the music and academic consultants of the New York State Board of Education (Albany) and those of the Middle States Accreditation Association.

Students are also encouraged to take advantage of the wide range of undergraduate liberal arts electives available at The New School.

Introduction to Undergraduate Studies
This course provides students with basic knowledge of the reference materials and terminology needed for undergraduate coursework. The first semester prepares students for the music history sequence by introducing key genres and forms, surveying major eras, and presenting important musical works. The second semester teaches students to write research papers and give oral presentations on music topics.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

History of Music I
An intensive study of the development of musical styles and forms from the early Middle Ages through the Classical period. Emphasis on the relationship of music to social history, the visual arts, literature, and philosophy. Required for all undergraduates.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

History of Music II
A continuation of Music History I, from the romantic period through the 20th century. Required for all undergraduates.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

English Composition
Concentrates on writing skills beginning with simple compositions and gradually developing an individual style. Introduction to literature, with a focus on writing in various styles.

1½ hours weekly, 1 semester, 1½ credits

Introduction to Humanities
A survey of the major questions of humanities studies: What are the humanities? Why are they so named? What is history, and how do we study it? What is literature? What is art?

1½ hours weekly, 1 semester, 1½ credits

Western Civilization
A survey of European civilization, from its origins in the Middle East to the present, with emphasis on religious, political, and intellectual developments.

I. Prehistory, ancient civilizations of the Middle East, the classical civilizations of Greece and Rome, the Middle Ages, the Renaissance

II. The Reformation, the Enlightenment, the French Revolution and Napoleon, the Industrial Revolution, nationalism, imperialism, the World Wars, dictatorships and democracies, the Cold War, global perspectives

3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 6 credits
Fine Arts
Study of painting, sculpture, and architecture. The visual arts in their cultural surroundings.
3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 6 credits

World Literature
The major traditions from antiquity to the present, particularly the epic, drama, poetry, and the novel.

I. The epic, Greek drama, medieval romance influenced by Christianity, Elizabethan comedy and tragedy
II. Seventeenth-century, Romantic, and Victorian poetry; the novel; 20th-century literature
3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 6 credits

Graduate Curriculum

Theory Review for Graduate Students
Intensive review of significant areas of theory: two- and three-part species counterpoint, harmonization, and chromaticism; phrasing and musical form. Theory review is required for master’s candidates who, by examination, place below the entrance level in theory.
3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 6 credits

Music History Review for Graduate Students
This course examines representative topics in music history. The first semester covers topics from the baroque and classical eras, while the second semester deals with 19th- and 20th-century topics. This class is required for master’s candidates who, by examination, place below the entrance level in music history.
1 1/2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 3 credits

Introduction to Graduate Studies
This course is designed to provide the student with fundamental knowledge of the reference and research materials required for coursework in the Master of Music program.

The course also introduces students to the process of surveying and evaluating editions and to the practical implications for performance practice. The goal is to help students acquire a basis for artistically sound and informed interpretation. Required for all master’s candidates.
2 hours weekly, 1 semester, 3 credits

Analysis for Graduate Students I
An intensive course in Schenkerian analysis for graduate students. Fundamental concepts and skills of Schenkerian analysis are developed as a preparation for elective seminars such as Analysis for Performers. Required for all Master of Music students. Students whose entrance examination results exempt them from this requirement must take an additional elective, preferably from among the theory options.
3 hours weekly, 1 semester, 3 credits

Analysis for Graduate Students II
An advanced course in Schenkerian analysis for graduate students who have completed Analysis for Graduate Students I or the equivalent. Required of students whose majors require advanced work in Techniques of Music (theory, composition, conducting) and recommended for others with theoretical interests.
3 hours weekly, 1 semester, 3 credits

Advanced Schenkerian Analysis
An intensive seminar in Schenkerian analysis at its most advanced levels, involving in-depth study of selected pieces and consideration of the scholarly literature as appropriate. Work includes weekly preparation of graphs under the instructor’s supervision and a final project. Prerequisites: Analysis II (or Analysis for Graduate Students II).
2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

Professional Performance Obligation
Each student must present evidence of at least two professional engagements outside of the college having taken place during the student’s tenure in the graduate program. The administration determines the acceptability of the performances in consultation with student’s major teacher. Required for all master’s candidates in performance.
2 credits

Graduate Score Reading
Advanced studies in reading from orchestral scores. Covers material from various style periods. Required for all master’s candidates in composition, conducting, and theory.
1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Graduate Keyboard
Advanced continuo: Baroque recitative and aria, accompaniment of concerto and sonata movements. Composition and improvisation of large scale and advanced keyboard projects. Required for theory, composition and conducting majors. Prerequisites: Keyboard II.
1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Dictation V
Advanced studies, including atonal material.
1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Techniques of the Modern Era
An intensive examination of theoretical and stylistic aspects of significant works of the 20th century, focusing on the development of chromatic music from Schoenberg and Stravinsky to Boulez and Stockhausen. Required for all master’s candidates in composition, conducting, and theory.
1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Theory: Writing Projects
Each year, students must prepare two article-length papers of a depth and originality sufficient to justify submission to professional journals. Topics are to be determined in consultation with the faculty and might originate in work done for other graduate-level courses. Students with a commitment to a particular area of interest may petition for the right to prepare a thesis to fulfill this requirement. Required for master’s candidates in theory.

1 hour weekly, 1 semester, 1 credit.

Ear Training Pedagogy
Outline of four-year course of study in ear training; practical application; teaching and coaching of first-, second-, and third-year undergraduate students. Required for master’s candidates in theory.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

Dictation Pedagogy
Outline of four-year course of study in dictation; practical application; teaching and coaching of first-, second-, and third-year undergraduate students. Required for master’s candidates in theory.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

Theory Pedagogy
Examination of fundamental problems of theory instruction, with particular reference to elementary theory teaching as preparation for the study of analysis. Demonstration of specific teaching techniques, survey of standard textbooks, practice teaching, and designing a theory curriculum for college or professional school. Required for master’s candidates in theory.

2 hours weekly, 1 semester, 2 credits

Analysis Pedagogy
Examination of fundamental problems of analysis instruction. Demonstration of specific teaching techniques, survey of standard textbooks, practice teaching, and designing an analysis curriculum for college or professional school. Required for master’s candidates in theory.

2 hours weekly, 1 semester, 2 credits

Ear Training and Score Reading for Graduate Students I
Sight-singing of advanced rhythms and melodies from the literature. Intensive studies in score reading using seven clefs. Required for all master’s candidates in voice.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Ear Training and Score Reading for Graduate Students II
A continuation of Ear Training and Score Reading for Graduate Students I.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Piano for Singers
This course covers technique and repertoire, major and minor scales, and chord progressions. Students will also learn to harmonize and accompany vocal warm-up exercises, as well as learn to play accompaniments for a wide range of vocal repertoire.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Dictation Review Class
Dictation review class is required for master’s candidates who, by examination, place below entrance levels in dictation.

Dictation Review I
Scales and intervals. Simple melodic and contrapuntal dictation.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Dictation Review II
Melodic, contrapuntal, and harmonic dictation.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Vocal Forum
A series of seminars in which students meet with specialists in the vocal arts. Required for all master’s candidates in voice.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Composition Forum
A weekly meeting required for all master’s candidates in composition. Presentations are made by faculty, students, and invited guest lecturers on topics determined each year in accordance with students needs and interests.

2 hours biweekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Vocal Accompaniment for Pianists
The class addresses the techniques required for the art of vocal accompaniment. The main focus is on differences between accompanying art songs and operas. Other topics include preparing a vocal-piano recital and dealing with orchestral reductions.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Electives/Seminars
Graduate electives are one semester long, 2 credits. Seminar courses are elective courses designed to refine the students’ writing skills with regard to musical topics. A research paper is required. A complete list of electives offered each semester, along with course descriptions, is compiled and distributed at the beginning of each registration period.

ALUMNI, DEVELOPMENT, AND AWARDS

ALUMNI

Mannes recognizes that in today’s world success is measured in a variety of ways. Many of our students go on to the stage of the Metropolitan Opera or positions with great orchestras and chamber ensembles. Many serve as faculty at colleges and music schools, and freelance as musicians in cities across the globe. Others go on to create organizations that bring music to inner city school children or establish important and rewarding careers as arts administrators. Still others go on to careers outside of music, becoming doctors or business leaders, and the discipline and scholarship learned at Mannes serves them well no matter where their career takes them.

Mannes publishes two annual newsletters that detail current activities of Mannes alumni, faculty, and students. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/alumni.

DEVELOPMENT

Mannes College The New School for Music is a private, nonprofit organization supported by foundation and corporate grants and tax-deductible gifts from alumni, parents, and other friends. These gifts help to fund scholarship and career development awards, performance opportunities, facility renovations, instrument purchases, endowment, technology needs, master classes, visiting professors, resident composers, and special projects.

GRADUATION AWARDS AND SPECIAL SCHOLARSHIP SUPPORT

Many donors generously contribute gifts for graduation awards to recognize excellence in achievement among members of the graduating class and to provide special scholarship support. There are no applications for these awards; recipients are designated by the Mannes Scholarship Committee.

STUDENT LIFE

COMMUNICATION WITH STUDENTS

MyNewSchool
MyNewSchool is a customizable Web portal, located at my.newschool.edu, that connects students to the university and to their student records. Students can access their university email, view and update their personal information, participate in online courses, receive announcements, use library resources, check their accounts, see their financial aid award status and academic records, and much more. Most student business is transacted online through MyNewSchool, including registration for classes, payment of tuition and fees, and viewing of final grades. New students are notified when their MyNewSchool accounts have been set up.

Student Email Accounts
The university administration and academic departments routinely communicate with students through New School email. The university provides every degree or credit seeking student with a New School email account. Official communications are made to the New School email address only.

Changes of Address and Telephone Number
Students are responsible for keeping their addresses and telephone numbers current with the university. They can update their contact information whenever necessary through MyNewSchool. University correspondence is mailed to the address designated as “official” or emailed to the student’s New School email address.

STUDENT SERVICES

Student Services offers resources and programs to enrich each student’s experience at The New School and prepare students for a life of responsible citizenship. Student Services provides the following resources:

- Student Housing and Residence Life
- Student Health and Support Services
- International Student Services
- Student Disability Services
- Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Career Development
- Intercultural Support
- Student Development
- Recreational and Intramural Sports

To find out more about Student Services, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices.

Student Housing and Residence Life
The New School has living and learning spaces for undergraduate and graduate students with amenities to suit individual needs and budgets. All residences and some apartment facilities are fully furnished and staffed by professional residence hall directors and student resident advisors. Through the enthusiasm and creativity of the resident advisors, students who choose to live in university residences are introduced to diverse educational and social activities at The New School and in New York City. All facilities have 24-hour security coverage, and our staff is trained in handling emergencies should the need arise. The Residence Hall Handbook details housing services and residence hall policies essential to creating safe, supportive, and respectful communities.

For students who wish to navigate the metro New York real estate market, listings of rental properties, shared apartments, short-term accommodations, and sublets are available in the Student Housing office. Student Housing will provide a compilation of current listings on request. The Off-Campus Housing Resource Guide provides information about New York City, its neighborhoods, and the ins and outs of the local real estate market. Workshops and one-on-one sessions with the staff are also available. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/housing.

Students living in certain residence halls are required to enroll in a meal plan. Please review your housing application or visit www.newschool.edu/student-services/meal-plans for more information.

Student Health and Support Services
Student Health and Support Services provides counseling and medical services, promotes student wellness and health, and administers the Student Health Insurance Plan. All degree, diploma, visiting, mobility, graduate certificate, and non-matriculating students in undergraduate and graduate degree programs, including students taking courses only online, are automatically charged a Health Services Fee at registration.

The Medical Services staff of physicians, nurse practitioners, and physician assistants is available to provide treatment for illnesses or injuries, routine health care, and medical advice. The Counseling Services staff of licensed psychologists, clinical social workers, an art therapist, and a psychiatrist provides emotional support and psychological counseling in a supportive environment, working with each student client on a reasonable and helpful plan of action to address the student’s concerns. The Wellness and Health Promotion program empowers students, connects them to information and resources, cultivates healthy attitudes and behaviors, and fosters a culture on campus that values health. Professional health educators meet with students, offer workshops, and provide interactive programs on a variety of topics, including stress reduction, money management, time management, meditation, acupressure, nutrition and cooking, physical activity, smoking cessation, harm reduction, sexual health, HIV/AIDS, depression, sexual assault, and interpersonal violence. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/health.
Student Health Insurance
The university offers students a comprehensive health insurance plan that includes coverage for emergencies, hospitalization, and regular outpatient visits. The Student Health Insurance Plan provides easy access to health care services locally, nationally, and globally. All eligible students are automatically enrolled at registration.

Waivers: Students may be eligible to decline the insurance plan by submitting an online waiver form at the beginning of EVERY fall semester by the posted deadline (or spring semester for students entering in the spring). Access the online waiver form by going to www.universityhealthplans.com (select the “New School” link).

To learn more about the Student Health Insurance Plan and your financial responsibility if you do not waive the insurance, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/health.

Career Services
Career Services at The New School promotes a holistic approach to career planning, helping students make sound career decisions to ensure personal and professional growth. Services include career counseling and assessment, résumé and cover letter reviews, mock interviews, and internship and job search guidance. Special events including career workshops, panels, and networking opportunities also take place throughout the year. Visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/careers for contact information and further details.

International Student Services
The New School is authorized under federal law to enroll non-immigrant alien students. All international students are required to attend an orientation and check in with International Student Services at the beginning of each academic semester. The office checks documents to see that students have been properly admitted into the United States and reviews their rights and responsibilities and government regulations.

The mission of International Student Services is to help international students from other countries reach their full potential and have positive experiences at The New School. Along with the rest of the university community, International Student Services promotes diversity and respect for cultures from all over the world. The office offers workshops, resources, programs, as well as advice and support. Every international student has access to one-on-one advising. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/international.

Student Disability Services
The New School is committed to helping students with disabilities obtain equal access to academic and programmatic services. Student Disability Services assists students who may need special accommodations, as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973. If you have a temporary or chronic disability of any kind, please submit medical documentation to Student Disability Services at the beginning of the semester. The staff will advise you on policies and procedures and discuss available support and accommodations. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/disability.

University Student Senate
The University Student Senate (USS) is the official student government of The New School which is comprised of a representative board of voting members from each of the seven divisions. The USS acts as an intermediary between the student population and the administration to create a cohesive community. For more information and to get involved, visit www.newschoolsenate.org.

Intercultural Support/HEOP
The Office of Intercultural Support (OIS) works with students of diverse backgrounds to build community at The New School. OIS offers individual counseling and sponsors events and workshops to promote intercultural awareness. The staff works closely with recognized student organizations and the Social Justice Committee. This office also administers the Arthur O. Eve Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP) and oversees the Student Ombuds office. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/intercultural.

Social Justice Committee
The Office of the Provost, committed to making social justice one of The New School’s top priorities, has established a university-wide Social Justice Committee to guide The New School’s efforts to promote a sense of inclusion and fairness among the many social identities, life experiences, intellectual approaches, and personal beliefs represented in our community. A concern for social justice is central to the way in which many understand and relate to The New School. This impulse can be traced in the history of our divisions and programs, which have been concerned with providing access to higher education for working people, serving as a haven for scholars at risk, devising policies that promote equity and democratic governance, designing for democratic participation and social change, and contributing to the public discourse on economic development. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/provost/social-justice.

UNIVERSITY RESOURCES AND FACILITIES
The New School is located in New York City’s Greenwich Village, with a few facilities elsewhere in Manhattan. For a campus map and building hours visit www.newschool.edu/about.

Libraries
New School libraries offer a full array of workshops and lab classes for students and faculty. Individual reference appointments are available upon request from students and faculty. For information about the New School libraries and

Blackboard
Blackboard is the virtual “classroom” used for online and many on-campus courses. Log in by selecting the Blackboard icon at my.newschool.edu.

University Writing Center
The University Writing Center helps students become better expository writers, offering individual tutoring sessions in every phase of the writing process, from brainstorming ideas to developing an outline or rough draft to revising and editing. In addition, the Center provides mathematics tutoring, ESOL support such as speech and pronunciation, and tutoring in graduate-level academic writing for students enrolled in MA and PhD programs.

The Writing Center works both by appointment and on a walk-in basis. All sessions start on the hour and are 50 minutes long. To schedule an appointment or for more information visit www.newschool.edu/writingcenter.

Computing Facilities
Students have access to the latest technology in the labs and work spaces operated by the office of Academic Technology (AT). For locations of facilities and hours of operation, visit www.newschool.edu/at. Features and services include:

  • Mac and Windows open labs with printers
  • Computer-equipped presentation classrooms
  • Advanced video, audio, Web, print design, 2D and 3D modeling and animation programs
  • Research, statistics, and Microsoft Office software
  • Private editing suites, an AV recording studio, and a voiceover studio
  • Black and white, color, and large format printing, including wireless printing, standard and photographic quality.
  • Specialty scanners (oversized, slide, film, and drum)

Questions about AT labs, the equipment center, the print output center, and AT-supported presentation classrooms should be directed to the Academic Technology staff: Email at@newschool.edu or call 212.229.5300 ext. 4538.

Wireless
The New School provides free wireless Internet access throughout the campus. For information visit www.newschool.edu/at/network/wireless.

These awards are made possible by the generosity of the Horace W. Goldsmith Foundation and the Harold and Helene Schonberg Piano Scholarship Fund.

How to Apply

Detailed information regarding applying for aid and the types of aid available is available on our website at www.newschool.edu/studentfinancialservices.aspx. In general, to be eligible to apply for assistance under the programs listed above, students must be matriculated in a degree program and be enrolled at least half-time. To be eligible for federal assistance, students must not be in default on or owe a refund to any of the federal aid programs. Students interested in applying for the government and institutional financial assistance programs listed above must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) annually. The New School’s code is 002780. Students are encouraged to file this form electronically at www.fafsa.gov. Completing and submitting the FAFSA enables Student Financial Services to receive a need analysis report or Student Aid Report (SAR) electronically.
Estimated Cost of Attendance and Determining Eligibility

The Student Aid Report (SAR) allows Student Financial Services to determine a student’s eligibility for institutional scholarship awards and federal aid programs. The expected student contribution and aid from other sources are subtracted from the student expense budget to determine the individual student’s financial need. Thus, a simple expression of the financial aid equation is represented by the following formulation: Student Expense Budget – Available Resources = Need.

Your student expense budget, also known as your Cost of Attendance (COA), is the foundation on which eligibility for student financial assistance is determined. Federal laws regulating the disbursement of funds to students receiving Title IV aid (including Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants, William D Ford Direct Loans, Federal Perkins Loans, and Federal Work-Study awards), dictate the expense items that can be included when calculating COA budgets. Allowable expenses for the period of enrollment are tuition and fees, books and supplies, room and board, other personal expenses, transportation costs, and federal loan fees.

Additional Information:

Details on tuition, fees, educational expenses, billing, and payment, as well as rules and regulations governing aid eligibility, can be found at www.newschool.edu/studentservices/financialaid or by contacting Student Financial Services.

BILLING, PAYMENT, AND REFUND POLICIES

Billing and Payment Information

For registered continuing students, invoices will be sent electronically. An email will be sent to the student’s New School email address (nnewschool.edu) notifying him or her that the invoice is ready to view through MyNewSchool. The fall invoices are available for viewing in early July with a payment due date of August 10; invoices for the spring semester are available in December with a payment due date of January 10. The invoice contains all current financial aid as of the date of the invoice.

Students who register just prior to the start of classes must pay their tuition and fees (and housing if applicable) in full, less approved financial aid awards. Degree students may also make payment arrangements with the approval of Student Financial Services at the point of registration.

Accepted forms of payment: Payment may be made by Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express, check (US funds only), money order, travelers check, cash (in person only), and wire transfer (see instructions below). Students are encouraged to make payment online at MyNewSchool for timely, accurate, and secure posting. Online payment may be made using a U.S. checking or savings account, or Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Wire Transfer: For information on how to wire transfer funds to The New School, please sign on to MyNewSchool (click the “Student” tab, then in the “Student Financial Services” channel click “Wire transfer information.”).

Students who do not have access to MyNewSchool are asked to email Student Financial Services for instructions. Only students who have been admitted and deposited can send funds by wire.

Monthly Payment Plan

The New School offers a monthly payment plan, which is accessible through MyNewSchool. It enables students or their families to pay interest-free monthly installments toward tuition, fees, and housing. The monthly payment plan allows you to maximize your savings and income by spreading your education expenses over four or five monthly payments each semester. Many students and families find monthly installments more manageable than one lump payment each semester.

The payment plan is not a loan so there are no credit checks. It is available for the fall and spring semesters. (This payment plan is not available for summer charges).

Matriculated students taking six or more credits per semester and New School for Social Research students maintaining status are eligible.

The plan is interest free and there is a $55.00 enrollment fee per semester. Payment for the fall five (5) month plan begins on August 1, and payment for the fall four (4) month plan begins on September 1. Payment for the spring five (5) month plan begins on January 1, and payment for the spring four (4) month plan begins on February 1. Enrollment is through MyNewSchool.

Important Note: All payment plans are based on per semester charges. Students will need to re-enroll each subsequent semester in order to continue using the payment plan as an option.

Deferral of Payment for Employer Reimbursement

Students expecting reimbursement from an employer or sponsor may defer payment of tuition and fees by submitting a signed authorization letter along with the appropriate deferral form(s). This may be done by mail or fax or in person, but not by email.
The authorization letter must be provided on official employer/sponsor letterhead. This letter should indicate the current date and include the following: student’s full name, New School ID number (if applicable), the amount to be reimbursed, the academic term for the covered charges, the signer’s address and telephone number, and the specific terms for reimbursement (either contingent on receipt of grades or else billable upon registration. Any portion of charges that the employer has not agreed to pay may not be deferred and must be paid upon registration.

Registered degree students must submit the authorization and the deferment form(s) to Student Financial Services by the appropriate payment due date in order to avoid the late payment fee. A non-matriculated (general credit, noncredit, or certificate) student must submit the authorization and deferment form(s) with his or her registration.

Students can mail authorization letters and forms to The New School, Attention: Third Party Billing, 79 Fifth Avenue, 5th floor, New York, NY 10003 or bring their documents in person to the cashiering office at 72 Fifth Avenue. Payments may be made online at my.newschool.edu via their checking account or credit card. Registered Students can fax a credit card authorization with their deferral form and authorizations letters to SFS at 212.229.8582.

Payment for all charges is the responsibility of the student. The student is liable for any and all deferred charges that are not paid by the employer/sponsor. Liability is not contingent on receiving passing grades or completing courses. For answers to questions regarding employer reimbursement, email sfs@newschool.edu or call 212.229.8930.

Terms of Reimbursement

If the reimbursement is made upon receipt of grades: There is a participation fee of $150, and the student must complete both the Employer Reimbursement Deferment Form and the Deferral Credit Card Payment Authorization. (These forms can be downloaded from the website: go to www.newschool.edu/studentservices and select Billing and Payment.) Payment of the $150 participation fee and any balance of tuition and university fees not covered by the authorization letter must be made prior to or submitted with the deferment forms. Deferred charges must be paid in full by February 1 for the fall semester, June 15 for the spring semester, and August 15 for summer term.

If payment is not contingent on receipt of grades and The New School can bill the employer directly, there is no participation fee. The student submits only the Employer Reimbursement Deferment Form (found on the website; see above) with the employer authorization letter. The New School will send an invoice for payment to the employer according to the authorization. Payment for any balance due not covered by the authorization letter must be made prior to or submitted with the deferment form.

Deferral for Approved Financial Aid

Students receiving financial aid may defer tuition and fees only if an award has been granted and the proper forms have been signed and returned to Student Financial Services. Approved financial aid awards appear on student invoices and reduce the amount due. Students must make payment in full of any charges not covered by their financial aid package.

It is the student’s responsibility to know the status of his or her financial aid awards, including loans, so that all tuition and other charges are satisfied in a timely fashion. In the event anticipated financial aid or loans are not realized, the student will be required to pay any outstanding balance through other means.

For additional information contact Student Financial Services.

Returned-Check Fee

If for any reason a check does not clear for payment after being deposited, a penalty of $30 is charged to the student’s account. The university cannot presume that the student has withdrawn from classes because the check has not cleared or has been stopped; payment and penalty remain due. Payment for the amount of the returned check and the $30 returned check fee must be made with cash, a certified bank check, or a money order. Another personal check will not be accepted. A penalty (ten percent of the balance) is charged if payment for a returned check is not received within four weeks. If a second check is returned, all future charges must be paid with cash, a certified bank check, or a money order; personal checks will no longer be accepted.

If it becomes necessary to forward an account to a collection agency, an additional 10 percent penalty will be charged on the remaining account balance.

Fees, including tuition deposits for new students, are nonrefundable. Housing fees are subject to the terms stated in the housing contract.

The above percentages will be applied to the number of credits dropped and the tuition will be recalculated based on the new credit load. The refund amount is the difference between the tuition already paid and the recalculated tuition. Contact Student Financial Services if you have questions about your account. Your financial aid may be affected if you withdraw or drop credits. Failure to complete payment prior to withdrawal does not relieve you of financial liability. For students receiving Title IV funds (federal aid) who withdraw officially or unofficially from all classes, refund calculations will be based on the amount of Title IV aid earned and on the amount of time the student was in attendance, using a proportional calculation through 60 percent of the payment period. This calculation has no relationship to the student’s institutional charges. The amount of tuition, fees, housing, and meal plans assessed will be based on the institutional refund policy. Refund processing takes approximately four weeks.

Electronic refunds deposited in a bank account: Student refunds can be deposited directly into a personal savings or checking account. Students can sign up for this service on MyNewSchool. Exception: For students who are using a Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students to finance their educational expenses, a paper refund check (if applicable) will be sent to the parent borrower. If using a credit card to pay your balance, refunds will be issued back to the card last used to complete this payment.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND HONESTY

Statement of Purpose: Academic Honesty and Integrity

The New School views “academic honesty and integrity” as the duty of every member of an academic community to claim authorship for his or her own work and only for that work, and to recognize the contributions of others accurately and completely. This obligation is fundamental to the integrity of intellectual debate, and creative and academic pursuits. Academic honesty and integrity includes accurate use of quotations, as well as appropriate and explicit citation of sources in instances of paraphrasing and describing ideas, or reporting on research findings or any aspect of the work of others (including that of faculty members and other students). Academic dishonesty results from infractions of this “accurate use”. The standards of academic honesty and integrity, and citation of sources, apply to all forms of academic work, including submissions of drafts of final papers or projects. All members of the University community are expected to conduct themselves in accord with the standards of academic honesty and integrity.

Students are responsible for understanding the University’s policy on academic honesty and integrity and must make use of proper citations of sources for writing papers, creating, presenting, and performing their work, taking examinations, and doing research. Through syllabi, or in assignments, faculty members are responsible for informing students of policies with respect to the limits within which they may collaborate with, or seek help from, others. Individual divisions/programs may require their students to sign an Academic Integrity Statement declaring that they understand and agree to comply with this policy.

The New School recognizes that the different nature of work across the schools of the University may require different procedures for citing sources and referring to the work of others. Particular academic procedures, however, are based in universal principles valid in all schools of The New School and institutions of higher education in general. This policy is not intended to interfere with the exercise of academic freedom and artistic expression.

Definitions and Examples of Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

• cheating on examinations, either by copying another student’s work or by utilizing unauthorized materials

• using work of others as one’s own original work and submitting such work to the university or to scholarly journals, magazines, or similar publications

• submission of another students’ work obtained by theft or purchase as one’s own original work

• submission of work downloaded from paid or unpaid sources on the internet as one’s own original work, or including the information in a submitted work without proper citation

• submitting the same work for more than one course without the knowledge and explicit approval of all of the faculty members involved

• destruction or defacement of the work of others

• aiding or abetting any act of academic dishonesty

• any attempt to gain academic advantage by presenting misleading information, making deceptive statements or falsifying documents, including documents related to internships

• engaging in other forms of academic misconduct that violate principles of integrity.

Adjudication Procedures

An administrator or faculty member at each of the divisions/programs of the University is the Dean’s designee with responsibility for administering the University’s Academic Honesty and Integrity Policy (hereinafter “school designee”). The name of each School Designee is listed on the Provost’s Office website.

The steps below are to be followed in order. If the two parties come to agreement at any of the steps, they do not need to proceed further.

Throughout this policy where correspondence is indicated, but the method is not specified, New School e-mail accounts and/or hard copy, sent through regular mail or hand delivery, may be used and is considered a good faith effort of notification on the part of the University. Each school will follow internal procedures for tracking correspondences with students related to this policy.

All time frames indicated by days refer to business days that do not include when the University’s administrative offices are closed, including weekends and holidays.

Grades awarded under the university’s Academic Integrity and Honesty Policy are not subject to review under this Grade Appeal Policy.

Step 1: Notification to Student

A faculty member who suspects that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty will meet with the student. It is expected that the faculty member will contact the student within ten (10) days after the last day of classes for that semester in which the alleged incident occurs. If academic dishonesty is alleged on an examination, paper, or creative work due within the last two weeks of classes, the faculty member should submit an incomplete grade until the student can be properly notified and the matter resolved. If grading a major culminating work (for example, a Senior Exhibit, final course paper, Masters Thesis, or Doctoral Dissertation) which may take longer to evaluate, faculty may request an exception to this deadline through the Dean’s office.

The student must contact the faculty member within ten (10) days of the notification to schedule a meeting with the faculty member. The faculty member is responsible for setting the meeting. This meeting can be in person or via telephone. A student who fails to respond in the time required will be deemed to have waived his/her rights under this policy. If the student does not respond, and the faculty member determines that the infraction is an actionable offense, s/he will inform in writing the School’s Designee of his/her determination and include copies of the following: correspondence with the student, syllabi, and course assignments.

In cases where the student is taking a course with a faculty member of a different school, the faculty member’s school designee will inform the student’s School Designee who will then oversee the adjudication process.

Step 2: Faculty Meeting with Student

During the meeting with the student, the faculty member will review the allegations with the student and allow the student the opportunity to respond. The student and/or the faculty member may, on a voluntary basis, request the presence of a designated third party from the student’s school or the University’s student ombudsman. A Third Party is appointed within each school for this purpose and can assist in clarifying questions about this policy and its processes, and facilitate communication between the faculty member and the student. The name of each Third Party is listed on the Provost’s Office website and the School Designee can never also serve as a Third Party. If the faculty member and/or the student elect to have a third party present, the requestor is responsible for notifying the other of his/her decision in advance of the meeting.

During this meeting, the student may either accept responsibility for the allegations or dispute them. Regardless, the faculty member will consult with the School Designee and then make one or more of the following determinations:

1. Indicate that the student has not committed an infraction of this policy.
2. Indicate that the student has committed an infraction and impose one of the following sanctions:
   a. require the student to resubmit the assignment; or
   b. give the student a failing grade for that particular assignment; or
   c. give the student a failing grade for the course.
3. Indicate that the student has committed an egregious infraction supporting the recommendation to the Dean that the student be suspended or expelled.

Examples of egregious infractions include, but are not limited to: (1) multiple instances of academic dishonesty in a single course, (2) repeated instances of academic dishonesty by a student in different courses, and (3) academic dishonesty related to a major culminating work such as a Senior Exhibit, Masters Thesis or Doctoral Dissertation.

The faculty member will send correspondence as well as syllabi and course assignments to the School Designee with his/her determination.

In the rare and exceptional circumstance where the Step 2 process cannot occur, the instructor or the School’s Designee shall notify the student of the instructor’s concern that the student has engaged in academic dishonesty and that the matter has been referred to the Dean for resolution. In such cases, the student may proceed as set forth in the Appeals Procedures.

Step 3: Review of Faculty Determination and Possible Imposition of Sanctions by School Designee

The school designee will review the faculty member’s determination and consult, as needed, with appropriate academic personnel. Based on the faculty member’s determination, the nature of the most recent violation as it relates to past violations, consistency within the division and across the University, and on any other relevant information pertaining to the student’s record at the University, the School Designee may determine that modified sanctions should be imposed on the student that can include, but are not limited to, suspension or expulsion.

Recognizing the importance of the decision for the student, the faculty member and the School Designee will notify the student in writing of the sanction(s) as soon as possible, but not more than twenty (20) days after receipt of the faculty member’s written recommendation. In addition, the School Designee will notify the appropriate offices in the school, the faculty member, the faculty member’s School Designee (if the course at issue is offered through another school), as well as the Office of the Assistant Vice President for Student and Campus Life.

Appeal Procedures

If the student is dissatisfied with the outcome of the adjudication procedures, s/he has the right to appeal.

Student’s Right to Appeal

The student may appeal the school designee’s decision to the Dean/Director of the School or his/her designee (hereinafter “Dean”). The appeal must be in writing and sent within ten (10) days of the decision letter received by the student. The student may request that the Dean convene a meeting of the existing committee that is responsible for academic standards and standing, or convene such a committee should one not already exist, to review the appeal. No member of this committee will have been part of the appeals process to date. The committee’s recommendation will be made to the Dean, whose decision is final except in cases where the student has been suspended or expelled. Alternately, the student may waive review by a committee and request that the appeal be reviewed exclusively by the Dean or his/her designee, who will not be the School’s Designee.

The student’s appeal must be reviewed within fifteen (15) days of receipt. Note that an appeal to the Dean may result in a stricter penalty than that applied by the School Designee. The student must be notified in writing of the appeal decision within five (5) days of the decision. A copy of the decision must be sent to the faculty member who brought the initial allegations, the Office of the Assistant Vice President for Student and Campus Life, and other offices as appropriate. The Dean’s decision is final, and not subject to further appeal, except in cases where the decision is either to suspend or expel.

Appeal to the Provost

A student who has been ordered suspended or expelled from the University because of a violation of this policy may appeal to the Provost or his/her designee (hereinafter “Provost”). The appeal must be made in writing within five (5) days of receipt of the Dean’s decision.

If the Provost decides to consider the appeal, such a review will be limited to: (a) whether the adjudication procedures outlined in this policy were properly followed; and (b) whether the sanction imposed is appropriate given the nature of the violation, and is consistent with sanctions imposed across the University in the past for similar violations. Note that an appeal to the Provost may result in a stricter penalty than that applied by the Dean; i.e. an appeal of a Dean’s decision of suspension could result in the Provost’s decision of expulsion. The Provost will, within ten (10) days of receipt of the request, make a determination. The Provost’s decision is final.

OTHER POLICIES

The Student Right to Know Act

The New School discloses information about the persistence of undergraduate students pursuing degrees at this institution. This data is made available to all students and prospective students as required by the Student Right to Know Act. During the 2012–2013 academic year, the university reports the “persistence rate” for the year 2011 (i.e., the percentage of all freshmen studying full time in fall 2011 who were still studying full time in the same degree programs in fall 2012). This information can be found under the common data set information. Visit the Office of Institutional Research at www.newschool.edu/admin/oir for more information.

Campus Crime Statistical Report

The Security and Advisory Committee on Campus Safety will provide upon request all campus crime statistics as reported to the United States Department of Education. Anyone wishing to review the University’s current crime statistics may access them through the web site for the Department of Education: ope.ed.gov/security. A copy of the statistics may also be obtained by contacting the Director of Security for The New School at 212.229.5101.

Intellectual Property Policy

Under The New School’s Intellectual Property Policy, the university shall have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, and worldwide license to use works created by its students and faculty for archival, reference, research, classroom, and other educational purposes. With regard to tangible works of fine art or applied art, this license will attach only to stored images of such work (e.g., slides, videos, digitized images) and does not give the university a right to the tangible works themselves. With regard to literary, artistic, and musical works, this license will attach only to brief excerpts of such works for purposes of education. When using works pursuant to this license, the university will make reasonable efforts to display indicia of the authorship of a work. This license shall be presumed to arise automatically, and no additional formality shall be required. If the university wishes to acquire rights to use the work or a reproduction or image of the work for advertising, promotional, or fundraising purposes, the university will negotiate directly with the creator in order to obtain permission.

Use of Photographs

The New School reserves the right to take or cause to be taken, without remuneration, photographs, film or videos, and other graphic depictions of students, faculty, staff, and visitors for promotional, educational, and/or noncommercial purposes, as well as approve such use by third parties with whom the university may engage in joint marketing. Such purposes may include print and electronic publications. This paragraph serves as public notice of the intent of the university to do so and as a release to the university giving permission to use those images for such purposes.

Statement of Ethical Responsibility for Research Involving Human Subjects

New School faculty and staff engaged in research or supervising student research projects must be aware of their responsibilities for ethical conduct in any project involving the use of human subjects. Faculty and staff are responsible for research done by students under their supervision with respect to these matters. Each research design must be examined for possible risk to subjects. If even minor risk of physical, psychological, sociological, or other harm may be involved, the faculty or staff member must consult with the university Institutional Review Board. The full policy with guidelines and consent forms can be found at www.newschool.edu/admin/gsp/gspframeset.html.

Immunization Requirements

New York State requires that matriculated students enrolling for six or more credits (including equivalency credit) who were born on or after January 1, 1957, provide the university with documentation of their immunity to measles, mumps, and rubella.
All students must also affirm that they have read the material distributed by the university on meningococcal disease and either plan to get an immunization, have documentation of having had a meningococcal immunization, or decline the immunization in writing. All new students receive in their admission packet an immunization and meningitis documentation form that must be completed and submitted prior to registering for classes. Students who do not submit the form will not be allowed to register.

Information about the measles, mumps, and rubella immunization requirements and meningococcal disease is posted at www.newschool.edu/studentaffairs/health.

Equal Employment and Educational Opportunity

The New School does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, creed, gender (including gender identity and expression), pregnancy, sexual orientation, religion, religious practices, mental or physical disability, national or ethnic origin, citizenship status, veteran status, marital or partnership status, or any other legally protected status.

Inquiries concerning the application of the laws and regulations concerning equal employment and educational opportunity at The New School (including Title VI-equal opportunity regardless of race, color or national origin; Section 504-equal opportunity for the disabled; and Title IX-equal opportunity without regard to gender) may be referred to: The Office of the General Counsel, The New School, 80 Fifth Avenue, Suite 800, New York, New York 10011. Inquiries may also be referred to: the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, U.S. Department of Labor, 23 Federal Plaza, New York, NY 10278, U.S. Department of Education, (Office of Civil Rights, 32 Old Slip, 26th Floor, New York, NY 10005 or the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), New York District Office, 201 Varick Street, Suite 1009, New York, NY 10014. For individuals with hearing impairments, EEOC's TDD number is 212.741.3080.

Students or Employees who believe they have been discriminated against on the basis of a disability may contact their Division’s Dean Office, their Department Director, or the Office of the Senior Vice-President for Human Resources and Labor Relations, who is the University Disability Official.

Academic Freedom: Free Exchange of Ideas

An abiding commitment to preserving and enhancing freedom of speech, thought, inquiry, and artistic expression is deeply rooted in the history of The New School. The New School was founded in 1919 by scholars responding to a threat to academic freedom in this country. The University in Exile, progenitor of The New School for Social Research, was established in 1933 in response to threats to academic freedom abroad. The bylaws of the institution, adopted when it received its charter from the State of New York in 1934, state that the “principles of academic freedom and responsibility … have ever been the glory of the New School for Social Research.” Since its beginnings The New School, has endeavored to be an educational community in which public as well as scholarly issues are openly discussed and debated, regardless of how controversial or unpopular the views expressed are. From the first, providing such a forum was seen as an integral part of a university’s responsibility in a democratic society.

The New School is committed to academic freedom in all forms and for all members of its community. It is equally committed to protecting the right of free speech of all outside individuals authorized to use its facilities or invited to participate in the educational activities of any of the university’s schools. A university in any meaningful sense of the term is compromised without unhindered exchanges of ideas, however unpopular, and without the assurance that both the presentation and confrontation of ideas takes place freely and without coercion. Because of its educational role as a forum for public debate, the university is committed to preserving and securing the conditions that permit the free exchange of ideas to flourish. Faculty members, administrators, staff members, students, and guests are obligated to reflect in their actions a respect for the right of all individuals to speak their views freely and be heard. They must refrain from any action that would cause that right to be abridged. At the same time, the university recognizes that the right of speakers to speak and be heard does not preclude the right of others to express differing points of view. However, this latter right must be exercised in ways that allow speakers to state their position and must not involve any form of intimidation or physical violence.

Beyond the responsibility of individuals for their own actions, members of the New School community share in a collective responsibility for preserving freedom of speech. This collective responsibility entails mutual cooperation in minimizing the possibility that speech will be curtailed, especially when contentious issues are being discussed, and in ensuring that due process is accorded to any individual alleged to have interfered with the free exchange of ideas.

Consistent with these principles, the university is prepared to take necessary steps to secure the conditions for free speech. Individuals whose acts abridge that freedom will be referred to the appropriate academic school for disciplinary review.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, with which The New School complies, was enacted to protect the privacy of education records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their education records, and to provide guidelines for correction of inaccurate or misleading statements.

The New School has established the following student information as public or directory information, which may be disclosed by the institution at its discretion: student name; major field of study; dates of attendance; full- or part-time enrollment status; year level; degrees and awards received, including dean’s list; the most recent previous educational institution attended, addresses, phone numbers, photographs, email addresses; and date and place of birth.
Students may request that The New School withhold release of their directory information by notifying the Registrar’s Office in writing. This notification must be renewed annually at the start of each fall term.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

The right to inspect and review the student’s education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access.

A student should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The university official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the university official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student’s privacy rights under FERPA.

A student who wishes to ask the university to amend a record should write to the university official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why, in the student’s opinion, it should be changed.

If the university decides not to amend the record as requested, the university will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student’s right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

The right to provide written consent before the university discloses personally identifiable information from the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

The university discloses education records without a student’s prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health services staff); a person or company with whom the university has contracted as its agent to provide a service instead of university employees or officials (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the New School Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for the university.

THE NEW SCHOOL IN BRIEF

The New School was established in 1919 as a center of lifelong education, founded on the principle of intellectual and artistic freedom. Its founders were a group of prominent progressive scholars including Charles Beard, John Dewey, and James Harvey Robinson. True to its name, The New School has evolved continuously since its inception in response to the changing universe of ideas, career opportunities, and human curiosity. What began as a non-degree-granting school for working adults has become an innovative urban university offering some of the nation’s most respected programs in the liberal arts, the social sciences, art and design, the performing arts, and public administration. Students from across the country and around the world enroll in The New School’s diverse degree, certificate, and continuing education programs. They are taught by a renowned faculty of artists, scholars, and professionals and enjoy access to the rich resources of one of the world’s great cities. As The New School approaches its 100th anniversary, the ideals of its founders continue to be reflected in the achievements of its students, faculty, and alumni.

THE DIVISIONS OF THE NEW SCHOOL

Eugene Lang College The New School for Liberal Arts

www.newschool.edu/lang
65 West 11th Street, New York NY 10011 | 212.229.5665

Eugene Lang College is The New School’s four-year liberal arts college for traditional-age undergraduates. The college began in 1972 as the Freshman Year Program, an experimental program for high school seniors. It became the Seminar College, a full-time bachelor’s program, in 1975 and a separate division of the university in 1985. This bold experiment in undergraduate education is named in honor of New School trustee Eugene M. Lang, a generous supporter of the college. Students at Eugene Lang College enjoy small seminar-style classes taught by a faculty of prominent scholars, many of whom are also affiliated with the graduate departments of The New School for Social Research. The college’s location in the center of a major metropolitan area offers its students opportunities for civic engagement and internships available to students of few other small liberal arts schools.

Mannes College The New School for Music

www.newschool.edu/mannes
150 West 85th Street, New York, NY 10024 | 212.580.0210

Founded in 1916 by David Mannes and Clara Damrosch, Mannes College became part of The New School in 1989. Mannes is one of the leading classical music conservatories in the world, providing professional training for a select group of talented student musicians. A comprehensive curriculum and a faculty of world-class artists enable students to attain virtuosity in vocal and instrumental music, conducting, composition, and theory. Students also enjoy access to the resources of the university as a whole and opportunities for civic engagement in New York City. Mannes offers undergraduate and graduate music degrees and professional diplomas. Mannes also has a community extension program for adult learners and a preparatory program for children.

The New School for Drama

www.newschool.edu/drama
151 Bank Street, New York, NY 10014 | 212.229.5150

The New School has been a center of innovation in theater since Erwin Piscator brought his Dramatic Workshop here from Europe in the 1940s. His students included Marlon Brando, Walter Matthau, Harry Belafonte, Elaine Stritch, and Tennessee Williams. Piscator established a tradition of excellence in theater education that continues at The New School today. The New School for Drama began in 1994 as a program to train talented individuals for careers in the theater as actors, directors, and playwrights. The New School’s New York City setting offers students abundant opportunities to learn through observation and make professional connections through the broadest theater career network in the United States.

The New School for Jazz and Contemporary Music
www.newsnewschool.edu/jazz
55 West 13th Street, New York, NY 10011 | 212.229.5896

In 1986, The New School established an undergraduate program offering talented young musicians the opportunity to study with professional artists from New York City’s peerless jazz community. The teaching model is based on the tradition of the artist as mentor: Our students study and perform with some of the world’s most accomplished musicians. They are immersed in the history and theory of and latest developments in jazz, blues, pop, and the ever-evolving genres of contemporary music. Learning takes place in classrooms, student ensembles, one-on-one tutorials, public performances, and master classes. Students develop their creative talents to meet the high standards of professional musicianship exemplified by the legendary faculty.

The New School for Public Engagement
www.newsnewschool.edu/publicengagement
66 West 12th Street, New York, NY 10011 | 212.229.5615

The New School for Public Engagement embodies the values that motivated the university’s founders in 1919. The division was renamed in 2011 to reflect its position as an enterprise designed to connect theory to practice, foster innovation in culture and communication, and promote democratic citizenship through lifelong education. The division offers undergraduate degree programs for adult and transfer students and graduate degrees and certificates in its schools of languages, media studies, and writing and in the Milano School of International Affairs, Management, and Urban Policy. The division also offers hundreds of open-enrollment continuing education courses on campus in Greenwich Village and online.

The New School for Social Research
www.newsnewschool.edu/socialresearch
16 East 16th Street, New York, NY 10003 | 212.229.5700

In 1933, The New School gave a home to the University in Exile, a refuge for scholars fleeing persecution by the Nazis. In 1934, The New School incorporated this community as a graduate school of political and social science. Today’s graduate students enjoy opportunities to cross disciplinary boundaries and collaborate with scholars, designers, and artists in other divisions of the university. The New School for Social Research addresses the most urgent political, cultural, and economic concerns of the day and uphold the highest standards of critical inquiry.

Parsons The New School for Design
www.newsnewschool.edu/parsons
2 West 13th Street, New York, NY 10011 | 212.229.8950

Parsons is one of the world’s preeminent colleges of art and design. Founded in 1896 by artist William Merritt Chase and his circle, Parsons was renamed in 1936 for its longtime president, Frank Alvah Parsons, who dedicated his career to integrating visual art and industrial design. Parsons became part of The New School in 1970. It was the first institution in the United States to award university degrees in fashion design, interior design, advertising and graphic design (originally commercial illustration), and lighting design. Parsons has earned and maintained an international reputation as a school at the vanguard of design education. Students in its undergraduate and graduate degree programs hold themselves to exceptional standards of creativity and scholarship, developing their skills and building knowledge in laboratories, workshops, and seminars. Parsons offers general art and design courses and certificate programs for students of all ages.

Visit the home page of each division for information about degrees offered and areas of study.
