Training the Complete Musician

Mission. Mannes College The New School for Music trains aspiring young classical musicians to become first-rate professional artists. The college attracts students from around the world to study at the highest level in the international capital of classical music, New York City. Mannes deliberately limits its enrollment to approximately 300 students, thereby maintaining an intimate and supportive atmosphere among students, faculty, and administrators.

Accreditation Statement. All degree programs at The New School are registered by the New York State Department of Education. The New School has been regionally accredited by the Middle States Commission of Higher Education since 1960.

Faculty. The Mannes faculty consists of artists, scholars, and educators. The performance faculty includes active professionals from all areas of the music world—concert artists, chamber musicians, successful freelancers, established composers, and members of such leading organizations as the New York Philharmonic, the Metropolitan Opera, the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra, the New York City Opera, the Philadelphia Orchestra, and the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center. The faculty who teach Techniques of Music and the humanities are highly regarded scholars, musicologists, and educators. Most of the administration and staff at Mannes are professional musicians who understand the challenges facing the students they advise and guide.

Location. Part of every Mannes student’s education is participating in New York’s exciting musical and cultural life. Mannes is located in the heart of the Upper West Side, a residential neighborhood known for its congenial and creative character. Mannes is in walking distance from Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and Riverside and Central Parks.

DEGREE AND DIPLOMA PROGRAMS

Mannes offers degrees and diplomas at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Young musicians receive superb training in the art and craft of music and are prepared to meet the demands of professional careers.

Undergraduate Programs

The undergraduate programs available at Mannes are the Bachelor of Music degree, the Bachelor of Science degree, and the Undergraduate Diploma. The undergraduate course of study at Mannes requires four years of full-time study to complete. To be full-time, a student must enroll for a minimum of 12 credits of college-level instruction each semester. The minimum residency is two years for qualified and approved transfer students. See “Transcript Evaluation” later in this catalog for the transfer credit policy.

Bachelor of Music Degree (BM)

The Bachelor of Music degree is awarded in all major fields upon completion of the appropriate music and academic requirements. These programs are described in “Program Components and Requirements” (page 4) and listed in “Course Requirements by Major” (page 5). The four-year Bachelor of Music program combines intensive study in a specific concentration with coursework in the Techniques of Music and in the liberal arts. Students build a solid foundation for careers as professional musicians. In accordance with the requirements of New York State, at least 25 percent of the credits in each degree program are in liberal arts courses.

Bachelor of Science Degree (BS)

The Bachelor of Science degree is awarded in all major fields. The Bachelor of Science has the same major requirements as the Bachelor of Music, but 50% of the total degree credits must be liberal arts. These additional credits may be from, but are not limited to, the following fields: humanities, the natural sciences, the social sciences, and the cognitive sciences. Students transferring from other postsecondary institutions may find that they have completed many of the additional liberal arts credits required for this degree.

Undergraduate Diploma (UDPL)

The Undergraduate Diploma is awarded in all major fields upon successful completion of the Bachelor of Music program minus the following courses: Introduction to Undergraduate Studies, Introduction to Humanities, English Composition, Western Civilization I and II, Fine Arts I and II, and World Literature I and II.

Graduate Programs

The graduate programs available at Mannes are the Master of Music (MM) degree and the Professional Studies Diploma. Both graduate programs require two years (four semesters) of full-time study, defined as a minimum of 12 graduate credits per semester. Transfer credits from other graduate programs are not allowed, except for Introduction to Graduate Studies (a course in resource materials and research methods for MM students).

Master of Music Degree (MM)

The Master of Music degree is awarded in all major fields upon completion of the requirements described in “Program Components and Requirements” (page 4) and listed in “Course Requirements by Major” (page 5). The two-year Master of Music degree program combines advanced study in a specific concentration with coursework. It develops broad musical expertise and artistically sound interpretive skills. Students are required to take major lessons and participate in performance classes throughout their residency.

Professional Studies Diploma Program (PDPL)

The Professional Studies Diploma program is a full-time post-master’s advanced course of study designed to develop professional skills in the area of concentration. All students are required to take major lessons in each of their four semesters of residence and earn a minimum of 48 graduate-level credits for program completion. Majors in orchestral instruments are required to participate in The Mannes Orchestra and performance classes during each semester of residency and may also be required to participate in chamber music. Majors in voice are required to participate in The Mannes Opera or another vocal performance class each semester. Students choose their courses in consultation with a registration advisor.

MAJORS AND CONCENTRATIONS

Students major in one of the following fields:

- Piano
- Harpsichord
- Orchestral Instruments
- Guitar
- Voice
- Orchestral Conducting
- Composition
- Theory
- Collaborative Piano: Vocal (graduate level only)
The concentrations available within orchestral instruments are as follows:

- Violin
- Viola
- Cello
- Double Bass
- Harp
- Flute
- Oboe
- Clarinet
- Saxophone
- Bassoon
- Horn
- Trumpet
- Trombone
- Tuba
- Percussion

Double Majors and Secondary Instruction

Students who apply for and are accepted into more than one major may enroll as double majors. A student pursuing a double major must complete all the requirements for both majors except where those requirements overlap. Students are encouraged to seek advisement from the assistant dean before pursuing this option. Mannes offers no minor fields of concentration. College Division students desiring private lessons outside of their major area may enroll for them through the Extension Division. There are extra charges for both a second major and secondary instruction.
Mannes’ outstanding curriculum is a synthesis of international styles and schools, incorporating European performance and interpretive disciplines, French solfège, German and Austrian traditions of theory and analysis, and pragmatic modern American pedagogy.

Mannes students receive private lessons and coaching from faculty members, who are prominent professionals in their fields. Students participate regularly in large and small ensembles, orchestra, and opera. A basic part of a Mannes education is Techniques of Music, an intensive course of instruction in musical skills and theory. Throughout their studies, all undergraduate students follow this curriculum, created by students of the Viennese theorist Heinrich Schenker. It provides thorough and rigorous instruction in ear training, sight-singing, dictation, keyboard harmony, score reading, theory, and musical analysis.

Private Study with a Major Teacher
Performance and composition majors are entitled to one hour per week of private instruction in their major field throughout the academic year (30 lessons per year). When applicants fill out an application to Mannes, they may request a teacher or teachers. If they do so, they should list all preferences in ranked order. If an applicant lists no preferences, or the listed teachers are unavailable, a teacher will be assigned. Students with questions or concerns about the major lessons should consult with the associate dean in a timely way. Students may change their major teacher only once during a given program of study; they should initiate that process by speaking with the associate dean.

Performance Classes
Students majoring in instruments or in voice participate in a variety of ensemble classes as a required part of their course of study. These classes include The Mannes Orchestra, The Mannes Chorus, The Mannes Opera (through a separate audition), instrumental performance classes, vocal performance classes, and chamber music groups for many combinations of instruments and voice.

Techniques of Music
Well-schooled musicians hear accurately, read fluently, and write with awareness of musical meaning and syntax. They can analyze works of varying styles and periods with insight into their structural and stylistic characteristics. The renowned Techniques of Music curriculum enables students to coordinate their studies in these four areas with work in their major field.

In the four years of the undergraduate Techniques of Music program, increasingly challenging demands are made upon the student. In the first two years, students are introduced to the basic technical elements of their art. Students learn to read in the various clefs; they acquire the ability to identify by ear the specific rhythmic, melodic, and harmonic events occurring in music of relative simplicity; they master the fundamental concepts of harmony and counterpoint; and they become acquainted with principles of musical form. These studies serve as the basis for the more advanced work undertaken in the third and fourth years: reading and hearing more complex music, including orchestral scores, and writing and executing keyboard work in a variety of styles. In analysis classes, students are asked not merely to label chords or identify thematic groups and sections but to hear and understand musical works as unified wholes in which each detail relates to both an immediate and a larger context. This analytic approach is based on the pioneering work of Heinrich Schenker as developed at the college by Felix Salzer. The written, aural, and keyboard studies also reflect Schenker’s concept of structure, tonal coherence, and musical direction.

Undergraduate Academic Studies
Mannes educates complete musicians. Its academic program introduces students to the major areas of intellectual achievement, with particular reference to Western culture, past and present. Students in these courses develop a critical grasp of world history and insight into contemporary meanings and values. Students can supplement academic studies with courses from other divisions at The New School.

Undergraduate and Graduate Electives
A certain number of elective courses are required of all degree and diploma students. Although electives play a small role in the undergraduate programs, they make up a significant part of the MM and PDPL programs. Various elective courses are offered each semester in the College Division at Mannes. Some of the courses offered in the Mannes Extension Division are available to college students for undergraduate elective credit. In addition, undergraduate students may choose from a wide variety of electives at other divisions of The New School, many of which are available at no extra cost to the student. Graduate students are welcome to audit foreign language courses at The New School at no charge. Students meet with academic advisors to select classes during each registration period.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Undergraduate Students
To earn an undergraduate degree or diploma, students must have a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA and complete departmental requirements. All candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree, Bachelor of Music degree, and Undergraduate Diploma must be in residence for a minimum of two academic years. A four-year residency is required for first-time freshmen.

The following regulations apply to all undergraduate performance majors:

1. A performance examination, held before a jury of college faculty members from the student’s major field (or a closely related one) and senior members of the administration, is required in each year of residency. These examinations are held in April of each year for all students.
2. The senior-year final examination consists of a performance drawn from a full-length program of suitably demanding works. Jurors attend the graduation recitals of conducting majors, who perform specially arranged programs.

3. A graduation recital is required. It can be performed at Mannes or at an outside venue. All undergraduate recitals performed at Mannes must be performed during the fall semester of the senior year.

Composition majors are required to submit five completed compositions, in fair copy, to a jury consisting of members of the composition faculty. These works should use various performance media and must include an orchestral composition. Guidelines for the other required pieces are developed by the composition department in cooperation with the administration.

Graduate Students

To earn a graduate degree or diploma, students must have a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA and complete departmental requirements. All candidates for the Master of Music degree and the Professional Studies diploma must be in residence for four semesters. Candidates for the MM and PDPL must complete their degree requirements within five years of their initial enrollment.

The following regulations apply to all graduate performance majors:

1. A performance examination, played before a jury of college faculty members from the student’s major field (or a closely related one) and senior members of the administration, is required in each year of residency. These examinations are held in April of each year for all students. Special juries may be available in December only for those eligible for December graduation.

2. Second-year final examinations for MM students consist of a performance drawn from a full-length program of suitably demanding works. Jurors attend the graduation recitals of conducting majors, who perform specially arranged programs.

3. A graduation recital of suitably demanding works is required for MM candidates and PDPL candidates. It may be given at any time during the second year of study. Conducting majors are required to conduct a substantial work with a student orchestra.

4. Candidates for the Master of Music degree in performance areas are also required to play in, and provide suitable documentation for, two professional outside performances, which can take place at any time during their course of graduate study.
COURSE REQUIREMENTS BY MAJOR

This section outlines coursework and credits required for completion of each program at Mannes.

UNDERGRADUATE

Requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree and the Undergraduate Diploma differ. For more information, see “Degree and Diploma Programs” (page 3). The UDPL HEGIS code is 5610.00 for all programs.

ADMISSION, FINANCIAL AID, AND TUITION AND FEES

ADMISSION
For more information about applying to one of Mannes’ degree programs, email mannesadmissions@newschool.edu, call 212.580.0210 x4862, or visit our website at www.newschool.edu/mannes.

FINANCIAL AID
Two types of support are available to new and returning students at Mannes: need-based awards, administered by the New School Office of Student Financial Services, and merit-based awards, recommended by the Mannes College Scholarship Committee and processed by The New School.

For information about need-based awards, view the information available on our website at http://newschool.edu/studentservices.aspx, or contact the New School Office of Student Financial Services directly at 212.229.8930. See also “University Policies and Information: Student Financial Services” (page 30).

Merit-based awards are based not on financial need but on evidence of outstanding musical talent, ability, and achievement. The level of award is determined at the initial audition as part of the acceptance package. Continuing students at Mannes can expect to retain their merit scholarships each year provided that they remain in good academic standing and demonstrate steady progress toward degree completion. Continuing students with poor progress in the major area, poor progress in classes, low grade point averages (below 3.0 for graduates and 2.0 for undergraduates), or serious disciplinary problems may have their awards reduced or eliminated. Students who do not successfully fulfill their performance responsibilities may also have their awards reduced or eliminated.

In extraordinary situations, and as funds allow, a continuing student may have his or her award increased because of outstanding achievement during the previous year or years. No student should enter the school anticipating a significant increase in merit award or requiring such an increase to complete his or her studies.

All decisions about merit-based awards for new and continuing students are made by the Mannes Scholarship Committee, which consists of faculty and administrators selected from across the spectrum of performance and academic areas. Inquiries about merit-based awards should be made by email to mannesscholarships@newschool.edu.

TUITION INFORMATION
Tuition information per term (12 or more credits) for the 2010–2011 academic year is as follows:

- Degree Course (BM, BS, MM) full-time: $17,170
- Undergraduate Diploma full-time: $17,170
- Professional Studies Diploma full-time: $12,180
- Lessons for a second major: $4,030
- ESL coursework (per course): $1,010

For students with more than one major, the tuition is the cost of the full-time course plus the cost of the second set of major lessons.

FEE INFORMATION
Fee information for the 2010–2011 academic year is as follows:

- Application fee (nonrefundable): $100
- Tuition deposit (new students, nonrefundable): $500
- University Services Fee (per term): $15
- University Health Services Fee (per term): $260
- University Health Insurance Plan (may be waived): $1,817
- Dishonored check fee: $30
- Late registration fee: $150
- Late tuition payment fee: $150

New School Housing offers dormitory housing to Mannes students. For room and board information, see www.newschool.edu/studentservices.

BILLING AND PAYMENT INFORMATION
See billing, payment, and refund policies on page 44.
TRANSCRIPT EVALUATION

FOREIGN TRANSCRIPT TRANSLATION POLICY

International students must have their official transcripts translated into English by a participating member of NACES (www.naces.org). The New School’s preferred provider is World Education Services, Inc. (www.wes.org). Untranslated and unevaluated documents will not be accepted.

TRANSFER CREDIT POLICY

Applicants from other colleges or universities must follow the admission procedures as outlined and have official transcripts sent from secondary schools and colleges attended. Once accepted, transfer students may receive credit toward the Mannes degree pending results of entrance tests, interviews, and transcript evaluation.

Courses in the humanities will be considered for undergraduate transfer credit provided the student earned a grade of B- or higher. Students with more specific questions about transfer credits should contact the assistant dean.

Transfer credits from other graduate programs are not allowed, except for Introduction to Graduate Studies (a course in resource materials and research methods for MM students).

CREDITS BY EXAM

Undergraduate students take a battery of placement tests before beginning their studies and a significant percentage of them are exempt from one or more courses as a result of these tests. Mannes issues credits by exam to entering undergraduate students and lists exempted courses and credits granted on their transcript.
ADVISEMENT AND REGISTRATION

REGISTRATION ADVISEMENT

Each student’s program is designed under the supervision of the assistant dean to insure regular progress toward completion of the degree or diploma. Students are responsible for ensuring they meet all the requirements for their program. Students meet privately with a registration advisor twice a year to review past work and choose future courses. Changes in schedule are also handled by registration advisors at the beginning of each semester during the posted “add/drop” period. It is the student’s responsibility to meet with advisors during the scheduled registration periods; late registration will result in additional charges. The college reserves the right to cancel any class because of low enrollment or circumstances beyond its control.

For more information about registration, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/registrar.

REGISTRATION SCHEDULE

Current Students
In order to reserve a place in the college for the following fall, currently enrolled students must complete registration each spring according to the posted advising and registration schedule. Spring registration for continuing students is completed each fall according to the posted schedule.

New Students
The assistant dean informs all new students of the registration procedure upon payment of the nonrefundable $500 tuition deposit and submission of an Intent to Enroll form to the Office of Admission.

Registration Holds
In the event that a student has failed to satisfy requirements for documentation, payment, or return of library materials, the appropriate university office will place a hold preventing further registration. Students should check MyNewSchool at least two weeks prior to registration to see if any holds have been placed. MyNewSchool will indicate the type of hold and contact information to resolve the hold. The deadlines for completing registration will not be extended because of delays in clearing holds, and students will be subject to any applicable late registration fee.

Adding or Dropping Courses, Program Changes, and Withdrawals
To add or drop a course, a student should contact his or her advisor for approval and instructions. All course changes are made in ALVIN at my.newschool.edu and are processed through the registration advisor.

Please note that class attendance and/or completion of course requirements alone does not constitute formal registration and will not make a student eligible to receive credit for that course. Likewise, failure to attend classes, failure to complete course work, failure to complete payment, or notification of the instructor does not constitute official withdrawal and may result in a permanent grade of “WF” on the student’s record.

The following deadlines apply for students adding and dropping on site in all degree and diploma programs:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Action</th>
<th>Deadline</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Adding a course</td>
<td>Through the second week of the semester</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dropping a course</td>
<td>Through the third week of the semester</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Withdrawal with a grade of W</td>
<td>After the third week of the semester</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Withdrawal</td>
<td>After the seventh week of the semester</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Late-starting courses may be added after these deadlines with the permission of the student’s advisor.

Withdrawing with a Grade of W
A grade of W indicates withdrawal from a course without academic penalty. Permission must be obtained from an advisor. The course will appear on the student’s transcript with a grade of W and is not counted in the cumulative grade point average.

Late Registration Fee and Late Payment Fee Policy
(This policy does not apply to newly admitted students during their first semester.)

Fall Registration: Students registered for the fall semester will be required to make arrangements to pay by August 10. Failure to do so will result in a late payment fee of $150. Students who neglect to register until after August 10 will be charged a late registration fee of $150.

Spring Registration: Students registered for the spring semester will be required to make arrangements to pay by January 10. Failure to do so will result in a late payment fee of $150. Students who neglect to register until after January 10 will be charged a late registration fee of $150.

This policy applies to all continuing degree and diploma students except students returning from a leave of absence.

How to Avoid the Late Payment Fee and Late Registration Fee:
1. If at all possible, register for fall courses in April and for spring courses in November. Advisors may not be available during the summer months. Check with your advisor for his or her availability.

2. Complete the financial aid application process as quickly and efficiently as possible. Do not delay in submitting critical documents. Check with the Financial Aid Office if you have any questions or concerns about your financial aid package.
3. Sign up for the payment plan on time. Check with Student Financial Services if you need an application or have a question.

4. Check ALVIN at my.newschool.edu on a regular basis to see if any charges have been added to your account. Take care of any charges promptly.

5. An electronic invoice (e-bill) for the fall semester will be available online in mid-July. For the spring semester, electronic invoices will be ready for viewing online the first week in December. Invoices will be available only to registered students. If a balance remains on your account after tuition, housing, and other fees have been charged, take care of the balance due by the payment deadline date.

6. If you will be receiving a third-party reimbursement, be sure to submit the appropriate documents to Student Financial Services by the payment deadline date.

7. If you are unable to pay the balance by the payment deadline date, contact the Financial Aid Office and Student Financial Services promptly. You must make arrangements to pay by the payment deadline date.

Appeals: If you are charged the late payment fee or late registration fee and have extenuating circumstances that warrant a review of the fee, you may appeal by writing a letter stating your case and attaching appropriate documentation. The appeal must be received before October 15 for the fall term and before February 15 for the spring term. You will be required to pay the fee before the appeal can be reviewed. If the appeal is granted, a refund will be issued. The appeal should be sent to:

MANNES OFFICE OF RECORDS AND REGISTRATION

The Mannes Office of Records and Registration provides the following services: fulfillment of transcript requests, enrollment verifications, changes of permanent address, graduation petitions, degree verifications, and issuing diplomas.

Degree Verifications

The New School has authorized the National Student Clearinghouse to provide degree verifications. The National Student Clearinghouse can be contacted at:

Web: www.degreeverify.com
Telephone: 703.742.4200
Fax: 703.742.4239
Email: degreeverify@studentclearinghouse.org
Mail: National Student Clearinghouse
13454 Sunrise Valley Drive, Suite 300
Herndon, VA 20171

---

Enrollment Verifications

The New School has authorized the National Student Clearinghouse to act as its agent for verification of student enrollment status.

Students can print an Official Enrollment Verification Certificate through ALVIN at my.newschool.edu for current or past semesters. This Enrollment Verification Certificate can be presented to health insurance agencies, housing authorities, banks, etc., and provides official evidence of enrollment at The New School. Students who have a specific form that needs to be completed should contact the Office of Records and Registration.

GroupWise Email Accounts

In order to guarantee confidentiality of your academic records, all correspondence must be communicated through your assigned email account from The New School, hosted through GroupWise (webmail.newschool.edu). Students are responsible for checking their email messages frequently with GroupWise. Your GroupWise log-on and password will enable you to access my.newschool.edu.

MyNewSchool

MyNewSchool is the university’s customizable Web portal located at http://my.newschool.edu. Through a single secure sign-on process, students are able to access their university email account, view and make changes to their student records, participate in online courses, receive personal and campus announcements, explore library resources, and much more. Most student business is transacted online through MyNewSchool, including registering for classes, verifying financial aid awards, making payment arrangements, and viewing final grades. New students are notified when their MyNewSchool account has been established.

Change of Address

Students are responsible for keeping their address and phone number current with the university. Students may update their contact information in MyNewSchool (http://my.newschool.edu) as needed. University correspondence is mailed to the address designated as official or emailed to the student’s New School email address.
MATRICULATED STUDENTS

Matriculated students are students accepted by the Admission Committee and enrolled in one of the full-time college division degree or diploma programs (BM, BS, UDPL, MM, PDPL). It is not possible to pursue a degree or diploma on a part-time basis except under extraordinary circumstances as allowed by the College Division Executive Committee and approved by the assistant dean.

CHANGE OF MAJOR TEACHER

A student may petition the associate dean for a change of major teacher. No change will be implemented during the course of a semester, and the decision is at the associate dean’s discretion. Students may change major teachers only once during their course of study for each degree or diploma.

ATTENDANCE POLICIES

The college observes professional standards of attendance for all its performance activities and concerts. The college also requires regular and punctual attendance at all classes, lessons, and rehearsals. Students should inform themselves of the specific attendance policies outlined by instructors at the beginning of each term. Excessive absences may result in lowered grades, failure, or dismissal from a course at the discretion of the instructor in consultation with the assistant dean.

Short-Term Leave

Students are required to be in residence at the college when classes are in session, especially during the final week of classes and exams in each semester. No student may take a leave of absence from the college for professional or personal reasons unless he or she receives permission in advance from the administration. Leaves will be considered for students in excellent academic standing and for a period of time not to exceed two weeks per academic year. Formal requests must be made to the assistant dean well in advance of the departure date. Students in large performing ensembles (e.g., orchestra and opera) should also make sure that their requested absences conform to the regular participation and attendance policies for those groups. In exceptional cases, a leave of absence of more than two weeks may be granted. Such requests should be made to the associate dean.

Leave of Absence

Students in good standing may request an official leave of absence for one or two semesters; such requests should be made to the associate dean. Leaves of absence will be granted only once. Students with approved leaves may resume their full-time studies without re-auditioning or retesting, provided that they inform the associate dean in writing of their intention to return by the agreed-upon deadline. Leaves granted for medical reasons require appropriate documentation both for exit and for readmittance. A student who withdraws without an official leave of absence or who fails to re-register within the term of an official leave must file a new application and be examined in the regular manner.

Withdrawal

If a student decides not to continue at Mannes, he or she must complete an official Exit Form and have an exit interview with the associate dean. The form and interview ensure proper tracking of the student’s record. Information about refunds in cases of leave of absence or withdrawal is provided in “Billing, Payment, and Refund Policies” (page 30).

Religious Absences and Equivalent Opportunity

Pursuant to Section 224-a of the New York State Education Laws, any student who is absent from school because of his or her religious beliefs will be given an equivalent opportunity to register for classes or make up any examination, study, or work requirements which he or she may have missed because of such absence on any particular day or days.

EXAMINATIONS

Examinations are given in all subjects at the end of each semester, except the major field of study. Examinations in the major (juries) are held once a year, at which time each student’s work is critically evaluated. Students are required to be present at all regularly scheduled examinations during the year. An unexcused absence from any final semester examination may result in an automatic grade of F for that course.

GRADING

Most undergraduate and many graduate courses at Mannes are organized on a yearly basis rather than on a semester basis. However, grades are given in each subject at midyear, and these grades are recorded on the student’s transcript. Students receiving an F in any course at midyear are disqualified from continuing in that course. A grade of D in an undergraduate class or C– in a graduate class given at midyear indicates unsatisfactory but not failing work. Students continuing on to the second semester must demonstrate significant improvement in order to pass the course.

Incomplete Grades: A grade of I (Incomplete) is given by a faculty member only at the request of the student and with the approval of the assistant dean. Students must complete the Request for a Grade of Incomplete Form with their instructors to request a grade of Incomplete.

Undergraduate students must complete the outstanding course requirements by the end of the seventh week of the following fall semester for spring and summer courses and by the end of the seventh week of the following spring semester for fall courses or receive a permanent grade of WF. Graduate students must complete the outstanding course requirements within a year from the last class meeting or receive a permanent grade of WF.

All credit-bearing degree requirements must be taken for standard letter grade, except for those few courses specifically set up for a Pass/Unsatisfactory evaluation.

</tbody>
</table>

A grade of B– or lower in the major field of study and in certain performance classes is considered unsatisfactory and may result in action by the Academic Standing Committee.

The grade of D is available for undergraduate courses only; the lowest passing grade for graduate students is C–. Students who fail a required Fundamentals class are subject to dismissal.

Repeated Course Policy

With divisional approval, graduate students with a grade of B– or below and undergraduate students with a grade of F or WF are eligible to repeat up to three courses during a single degree program. Although the initial grade will appear on the transcript, the grade earned the second time will be computed in the grade point average, and the previous grade will drop out of the cumulative GPA.

Students must submit an approved form at the time of registration. Repeated courses may not be counted twice toward fulfillment of graduation requirements, nor may they be counted twice for loan or New York Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) certification.

Grade Appeals

Students may petition for an academic grade review by following the procedure outlined below within 60 days after the grade was issued. Before deciding to appeal for a grade change, the student should request a verbal explanation of the basis of the grade from the instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the explanation, he or she may appeal the grade according to the following steps:

1. The student submits a letter outlining any questions and/or objections directly to the faculty member, with a copy to the assistant dean.
2. The instructor submits a written response to the student’s letter within one month of receipt, with a copy to the assistant dean.
3. If the student is still unsatisfied after the faculty member’s written response, he or she may appeal further by writing to the assistant dean, who will convene an appeals committee to review both letters, clarify any outstanding questions or issues, and make a recommendation to the dean of the college. The dean’s decision is final.
ACADEMIC STANDING AND PROGRESS

ACADEMIC STANDING

Dean’s List

Mannes undergraduate students must be full-time and have a term GPA of 3.7 to be placed on the Dean’s List for any given semester.

Undergraduate Students—University-Wide

All matriculated undergraduate students must earn a 2.0 term GPA and cumulative GPA to remain in good academic standing. Students with less than a 2.0 term GPA or cumulative GPA will be placed on academic probation. Students who earn less than a 2.0 term GPA or cumulative GPA for two consecutive semesters will be dismissed. Any undergraduate earning less than a 1.0 term GPA will be dismissed.

Graduate Students—University-Wide

All matriculated graduate students must earn a 3.0 term GPA and cumulative GPA to remain in good academic standing. Students with less than a 3.0 term GPA or cumulative GPA will be placed on academic probation. Students who earn less than a 3.0 cumulative GPA for two consecutive semesters will be dismissed.

Graduate students must have accumulated at least one half of their required credits by the end of their second semester of residency. Students who have not done so will be subject to probation and may not be allowed to register for additional credits (or equivalency credits) the following semester. In addition, students must meet department and program academic requirements in order to remain in good academic standing in their program.

Mannes Students

Undergraduate and graduate students who meet the requirements above and make regular progress toward degree completion are considered to be in good academic standing. Those who do not are subject to disciplinary action by the Academic Standing Committee. The Academic Standing Committee is made up of administrators and faculty members and is chaired by the assistant dean. It meets each semester to review student progress. Any student who earns a grade of B—or lower in a required course, particularly in courses in their major area, is subject to review by the Academic Standing Committee. Disciplinary actions imposed by the committee include academic warning, probation, and dismissal. An undergraduate student who fails one or more Fundamentals courses in the Techniques of Music curriculum is subject to dismissal.

Academic Warning

The student is informed in writing about areas of weakness and suggested steps for improvement. Lack of improvement or additional poor grades will result in further action by the Academic Standing Committee, including probation or dismissal.

Probation

The student is informed in writing that he or she has failed to achieve an adequate academic record and/or is making unsatisfactory progress in the major. Probationary status constitutes an official warning to the student that he or she will be dismissed from the college if the quality of work does not significantly improve during the next semester. Probationary status may entail loss of eligibility for merit scholarship and may also restrict students from participation in some performance opportunities. Students on probation for two consecutive terms are subject to dismissal.

Dismissal

A student may be dismissed by action of the Academic Standing Committee for poor academic performance, unsatisfactory progress in the major, or infractions of the University Policies Governing Student Conduct. Students who have been dismissed and who wish to return to the college must re-apply through the normal admission process for reinstatement no sooner than one academic year from the date of dismissal. If re-accepted, the student will be on probation for the first academic year of reinstatement.

Academic Dismissal Appeals—University-Wide

Students who are dismissed from their degree program may petition to their dean’s office to reverse the decision by filing a formal written appeal. All appeals must be presented in writing, with supporting documentation, within two weeks of receipt of notice of academic dismissal. Students can expect to hear the results of an appeal within two to four weeks of its submission.

Appeals must contain the following information:

• An explanation of poor performance and/or failure to complete required coursework
• A description of plans to improve academic performance and/or to complete outstanding work
• Any other relevant information pertaining to academic history or potential.

Students dismissed on the basis of fall term grades must be notified before spring semester classes begin. If a student’s dismissal status is determined after classes begin, he or she will be allowed to attend classes and be placed on probation for the spring term.

At Mannes, the appeals process is handled by the associate dean, who convenes an ad hoc appeals committee consisting of administrators, department heads, or program coordinators, as appropriate.
GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

General Requirements
Students are solely responsible for knowing and completing the course requirements for their major, as set forth in the Mannes Catalog of their year of entrance. The assistant dean will evaluate transfer credits from other accredited institutions of higher learning.

Undergraduate Requirements
To earn an undergraduate degree or diploma, students must have a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA and complete departmental requirements. All candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree, Bachelor of Music degree, or Undergraduate Diploma must be in residence for a minimum of two academic years. A four-year residency is required for first-time freshmen.

Graduation Honors
Undergraduates who have completed at least 60 credits in residence for a bachelor’s degree and who have a cumulative GPA of 3.7 or better may graduate “With Honors” noted on their diploma and transcript.

Graduate Requirements
To earn a graduate degree or diploma, students must have a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA and complete departmental requirements. Graduate students who exit the program and then reapply and are readmitted must complete their degree requirements within five years.

Graduation Petitions and Fees
The New School confers degrees twice a year, in January and May. The commencement ceremony for May and January graduates is held in May. All degree requirements, as specified in divisional catalogs, must be completed prior to the graduation date for a degree to be awarded.

Mannes students intending to graduate must file a Graduation Petition Form with the Mannes Office of Records and Registration and pay the appropriate fee by the following dates:

• For January graduation: no fee before October 1, a $20 late fee after October 1, and a $50 late fee after November 1. The final deadline to petition is November 15.

• For May graduation: no fee prior to February 15, a $20 late fee after February 15, and a $50 late fee after March 15. The final deadline to petition is March 30.

Please note: Attendees must purchase graduation attire in April from the university supplier. Additional information will be provided in February.

Degree Conferral and Issuing of Diplomas
The New School confers degrees in January and May. After all semester grades are received and posted, an evaluation of the student’s academic record will be done to determine eligibility to graduate. This process will take several weeks. If the student is eligible to graduate, the degree will be conferred and a diploma will be mailed to the student’s specified “diploma address” approximately 12 weeks later. Diplomas are not issued to students with outstanding debts to the university.
MANNES FACILITIES AND SERVICES

FACILITIES

150 West 85th Street

Mannes offers an ideal environment for music education and creativity. The main building, on West 85th Street, features classrooms, practice rooms, a complete music and listening library, an audio studio, and a computer lab. Mannes has two concert halls, one with 250 seats and one with 65 seats, that host hundreds of performances each year by students, faculty, and artists-in-residence.

Mannes is located on Manhattan’s vibrant Upper West Side, a safe, residential neighborhood that is home to hundreds of excellent restaurants, movie theaters, parks, live-music venues, and cozy cafés, not to mention cultural institutions such as the American Museum of Natural History, Symphony Space, and Lincoln Center.

The John Goldmark Practice Center

The John Goldmark Practice Center, within walking distance of the school and adjacent to Lincoln Center, provides additional practice rooms and an opera rehearsal studio. It is located at 37 West 65th Street and is open approximately 60 hours per week.

The Harry Scherman Library

The Scherman Music Library supports degree and diploma programs offered by Mannes College The New School for Music, as well as the rest of The New School and Mannes’ nondegree programs in the Extension and Preparatory Divisions. The growing collection is strong in music theory, scores, and performing editions of the classical repertoire. The collection contains approximately 8,000 books, 30,000 scores, 9,000 recordings, 300 video recordings, many music-related periodical titles, specialized databases, and electronic resources.

The Scherman Library is a member of the Research Library Association of South Manhattan (also known as the consortium), which includes the research libraries of The New School, New York University, Cooper Union, Cardozo Law School, the New York Academy of Art, and the New-York Historical Society. The consortium was established to increase access to research resources for matriculated students and faculty teaching in degree-granting programs at these institutions.

Mannes Computer Lab

A seven-workstation lab on West 85th Street’s sixth floor provides administrative software (Microsoft Word, Excel, etc.), music composition tools, and email and Internet access to Mannes degree- and diploma-seeking students.

SERVICES

Mannes Writing Center

Each week, Mannes instructors hold open sessions for students seeking help with writing assignments. The Writing Center sessions, usually held in a designated classroom, are available to graduates and undergraduates. Students are encouraged to bring in a completed paper, a draft, an incomplete idea, or just a question or problem they are facing. The bulletin board in Mannes’s lobby area provides more detailed information, such as location and times at which the center is functioning.

Techniques of Music Tutoring

The Techniques of Music Department sponsors a free tutoring program for degree students having difficulty in their Techniques of Music courses (especially theory, ear training, and dictation). Students seeking more information about this service should look for a notice in the fifth-floor hallway or inquire in the Dean’s Office.

Mannes ESL Instruction

During the academic year, Mannes provides instruction in English as a second language (ESL) for students who require it. Placement into courses in ESL conversation and in ESL writing is by examination during the audition period. There is an additional fee for those courses. Students seeking additional practice in English conversation may meet with Mannes “conversation partners” (students who are native English speakers and have expressed interest in working with international students) at no extra charge.

Mannes Audio Department

Mannes houses an audio studio to support students’ recording needs. The Audio Department records student recitals, holds private recording sessions, and edits and duplicates existing recordings for a reasonable fee. Reservations for recordings, arranged through the Mannes Bursar’s Office, must be made two weeks before the recital or recording session. To schedule a private recording session, students must reserve the Mannes Concert Hall through the Mannes Concert Office or Goldmark Hall through the Mannes Room Scheduling Desk. Students can request that records be delivered as compact discs, DATs, and/or analog tapes. Students can also hire the Audio Department to videotape their performance.

The Mannes Audio Department offers audiovisual aids to Mannes faculty and administrative staff for use in teaching and job-related presentations. Slide, overhead, and audio equipment (such as portable CD and cassette tape players); classroom stereo systems (including record, CD, and cassette tape players); videocassette recorders; television monitors; and a multimedia cart (including a projection screen) are available. Faculty and staff should make arrangements through the Mannes Dean’s Office and the Audio Department.
Concert Office

The Mannes Concert Office assists students and faculty with all aspects of organizing performances, rehearsals, and recording sessions in the Mannes Concert Hall and the John Goldmark Hall and, for Mannes’ large ensembles, in outside venues. Consult the Concert Office’s Guide to Scheduling Concerts for information about scheduling recitals, printing concert programs, and publicizing performances. Copies are available from the Concert Office, located on Mannes’ first floor.

Room Scheduling Desk

Currently registered degree and diploma students may reserve a room for practice or rehearsal in the Mannes building according to the room scheduling policies:

- Email mannesrooms@newschool.edu from their GroupWise email account (advance notice is required; not for same-day reservations).
- See the room scheduling manager (or assistant) in the Office of Records and Registration (Monday–Friday, 9:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m. and 2:00–4:45 p.m.).
- Call 212.580.0210 x4890.

Piano Maintenance Department

Mannes employs one full-time and one part-time piano technician to maintain the college’s pianos. Students using practice rooms and concert facilities are asked to report any problems with Mannes pianos to the Piano Maintenance Department so that the technicians can act appropriately.

Business Office

The Mannes Business Office, located on Mannes’ first floor, manages the payroll for student on-campus employment.
PRIVATE LESSONS AND SEMINARS

Instrument, Voice, and Composition
Students receive one-hour private lessons weekly for each of the 30 weeks of the academic year. Those majoring in instruments or voice are required to pass an examination in their major field before a faculty jury toward the end of the second semester each year. Examination requirements may be obtained from the major teacher.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 8 credits (undergraduate)/12 credits (graduate)

Theory
In addition to attending classes in Techniques of Music, students majoring in theory receive individual piano lessons during their first two years and are required to pass a piano examination before a faculty jury toward the end of the second semester each year. Examination requirements may be obtained from the piano teacher.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 8 credits

Orchestral Conducting
Conducting lessons, including work with two pianos, and study of symphonic, concerto, and operatic literature. All orchestral conducting students work regularly with the Repertory Orchestra, an instrumental ensemble created specifically to support the orchestral conducting program. Advanced students also have the opportunity to conduct reading sessions, rehearsals, and performances of The Mannes Orchestra at the discretion of the music director.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 8 credits (undergraduate)/12 credits (graduate)

ENSEMBLES AND PERFORMANCE CLASSES

The Mannes Orchestra
Sight-reading and study of symphonic and operatic literature; rehearsal and preparation for regular performances. All majors in orchestral instruments are required to audition annually for seating placement.

6 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

The Mannes Chorus
Sight-reading and study of choral literature from the 15th century to the present; rehearsal and preparation for regular performances. Members accepted on the basis of audition. Two years of chorus are required for all undergraduate students not subject to the orchestra requirement. Required every year for choral conducting majors.

3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

The Mannes Opera
Fundamentals of opera training for students majoring in voice. The class is divided into small sections, each of which is led by various coaches and stage directors, and prepares a brief performance either in concert or of staged scenes from selected operas. A number of students in the class are also chosen to prepare a fully staged production of one or more complete operas for public performance. In addition to fulfilling their performance obligation, students in the class assist in the technical preparation of staged productions. Entry into The Mannes Opera is by audition at the beginning of the school year.

Varied hours weekly, 8 credits

Percussion Ensemble
Repertory includes standard works and music of many contemporary composers. Required for students concentrating in percussion in each semester of residency.

3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Guitar Ensemble
Music of the lute and guitar repertory of all periods, written for two or more guitars or in combination with other instruments or voice. Required for students majoring in guitar.

3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Baroque Chamber Players
Performance practices of the 17th and 18th centuries. A laboratory course with emphasis on ornamentation, improvisation, and idiomatic conventions of notation and rhythm. Open to singers, instrumentalists, and keyboard players.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Contemporary Music Ensemble

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

UNDERGRADUATE CURRICULUM

Techniques of Music I

Led by a professional active in the theater and opera. Includes stage movement and related techniques and styles, such as combat. Required for students majoring in voice and available as an elective for graduate singers not in Opera.

Each course 3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Acting for Singers
For the singer and nondancer. Covers expressive movement techniques from gesture to posture and basics of stage movement. Sources are Emile Jacques-Dalcroze, Rudolf Laban, and Etienne Decroux. Additional lessons in functional anatomy, breath, and alignment. Technical study designed to promote physical responsibility and awareness in the singer-actor and to provide a vocabulary for the spontaneous creation of character. Required for students majoring in voice.

Each course 3 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Piano

Piano Sight-Reading
Consists of exercises leading to instant recognition of rhythms, chords, and basic keyboard patterns; keyboard topography; sight-reading of four-hand music, accompaniments, and solo repertory. Required for students majoring in piano who are deficient in sight-reading.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Piano Ensemble
Develops good ensemble playing through the study of four-hand (two-piano) compositions, with attention to sound, balance, and voicing. Required for piano majors.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Instrumental

Performance Classes for Orchestral Instruments
Includes separate classes for orchestral instruments. Study and in-class performance of the literature, with emphasis on orchestra audition preparation. Discussion of performance practice problems.

12 hours per semester, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Ensemble Classes – Winds and Brass
Reading and study of orchestral literature in classes grouped by wind or brass sections. Emphasis is placed on developing skills necessary to play in a professional orchestra section. Required in each semester of residency.

12 hours per semester, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Chamber Music
Study of the standard ensemble literature for string instruments, wind and brass instruments, and piano; performances in student recitals and festivals.

10 hours per semester, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Guitar Survey
Study of problems specifically relating to performance on the guitar. Editing of music for performance, transcription, reading of lute tablature, and sight-reading. Required for all students majoring in guitar.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Guitar Performance Class
Study and performance of the guitar literature. Required for all students majoring in guitar.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Repertory Orchestra
A performance class designed to assist in the training of orchestral conducting majors. Open by audition to College Division instrumentalists.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 0 credit

Pedagogy

Ear Training Pedagogy
Projects in the instruction of ear training and dictation. Includes practical application to actual teaching experiences. Required for students majoring in theory; recommended elective for other qualified undergraduates.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

Theory Pedagogy
Projects in theory instruction. Includes practical application to actual teaching experiences. Required for students majoring in theory; recommended elective for other qualified undergraduates.

2 hours weekly, 1 semesters, 2 credits

Instrumental Performance Classes for Orchestral Instruments
Excludes separate classes for orchestral instruments. Study and in-class performance of the literature, with emphasis on orchestra audition preparation. Discussion of performance practice problems.

12 hours per semester, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Guitar Performance Class
Study and performance of the guitar literature. Required for all students majoring in guitar.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Pedagogy

Projects in the instruction of ear training and dictation. Includes practical application to actual teaching experiences. Required for students majoring in theory; recommended elective for other qualified undergraduates.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

Theory Pedagogy
Projects in theory instruction. Includes practical application to actual teaching experiences. Required for students majoring in theory; recommended elective for other qualified undergraduates.

2 hours weekly, 1 semesters, 2 credits

Piano Pedagogy
Examination of teaching material for the preschool child, elementary school beginner, high school beginner, adult beginner, and professional student. Discussions focus on developing musical taste, building technical skill, memorization, and performance; intelligent practice and the establishment of a sound relationship between child, teacher, and parent; visiting lecturers; and demonstrations. Students are required to observe classes and individual instruction and to practice teaching other students. Required for students majoring in piano.

1½ hours weekly, 2 semesters, 3 credits

ACADEMIC STUDIES

Mannes requires all undergraduate degree students to complete a core curriculum in the humanities. The curriculum is intended to give students a basic familiarity with the broad spectrum of the humanities, not only in relation to the field of music but also as a continuum of study that will enable them to take an active role in the community of educated citizens. The program offers courses in music, art, literature, and history that provide students with an in-depth understanding of each cultural period as well as a panoramic view of the development of Western civilization in a global context.

During the second and third years, the core curriculum includes History of Music, a chronological presentation of music in Western society from classical antiquity through the 19th century (three hours weekly). The first year of History of Music traces the development of music from its earliest forms to 1800; the second year is concerned with music from 1800 through the 20th century.

The curriculum has been established along lines approved by the music and academic consultants of the New York State Board of Education (Albany) and those of the Middle States Accreditation Association.

Students are also encouraged to take advantage of the wide range of undergraduate liberal arts electives available at The New School.

Introduction to Undergraduate Studies

This course provides students with basic knowledge of the reference materials and terminology needed for undergraduate coursework. The first semester prepares students for the music history sequence by introducing key genres and forms, surveying major eras, and presenting important musical works. The second semester teaches students to write research papers and give oral presentations on music topics.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

History of Music I

An intensive study of the development of musical styles and forms from the early Middle Ages through the Classical period. Emphasis on the relationship of music to social history, the visual arts, literature, and philosophy. Required for all undergraduates.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

History of Music II

A continuation of Music History I, from the romantic period through the 20th century. Required for all undergraduates.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

English Composition

Concentrates on writing skills beginning with simple compositions and gradually developing an individual style. Introduction to literature, with a focus on writing in various styles.

1 ½ hours weekly, 1 semester, 1 ½ credits

Introduction to Humanities

A survey of the major questions of humanities studies: What are the humanities? Why are they so named? What is history, and how do we study it? What is literature? What is art?

1 ½ hours weekly, 1 semester, 1 ½ credits

Western Civilization

A survey of European civilization, from its origins in the Middle East to the present, with emphasis on religious, political, and intellectual developments.

Two semesters: each course 3 hours weekly (two 1 ½-hour sessions), 1 semester, 3 credits; 6 credits total

I. Prehistory, ancient civilizations of the Middle East, the classical civilizations of Greece and Rome, the Middle Ages, the Renaissance

II. The Reformation, the Enlightenment, the French Revolution and Napoleon, the Industrial Revolution, nationalism, imperialism, the World Wars, dictatorships and democracies, the Cold War, global perspectives

World Literature

The major traditions from antiquity to the present, particularly the epic, drama, poetry, and the novel.

Two semesters: each course 3 hours weekly (two 1 ½-hour sessions), 1 semester, 3 credits; 6 credits total

I. The epic, Greek drama, medieval romance influenced by Christianity, Elizabethan comedy and tragedy

II. Seventeenth-century, Romantic, and Victorian poetry; the novel; 20th-century literature

Fine Arts

Study of painting, sculpture, and architecture. The visual arts in their cultural surroundings.

Two semesters: each course 3 hours weekly (two 1 ½-hour sessions), 1 semester, 3 credits; 6 credits total

GRADUATE CURRICULUM

Theory Review for Graduate Students

Intensive review of significant areas of theory: two- and three-part species counterpoint, harmonization, and chromaticism; phrasing and musical form. Theory review is required for master’s candidates who, by examination, place below the entrance level in theory.

3 hours weekly (two 1 ½-hour sessions), 2 semesters, 6 credits

Music History Review for Graduate Students

This course examines representative topics in music history. The first semester covers topics from the baroque and classical eras, while the second semester deals with 19th- and 20th-century topics. Music History Review is required for master’s candidates who, by examination, place below the entrance level in music history.

1 ½ hours weekly, 2 semesters, 3 credits

Introduction to Graduate Studies

This course is designed to provide the student with fundamental knowledge of the reference and research materials required for coursework in the Master of Music program. The course also introduces students to the process of surveying and evaluating editions and to the practical implications for performance practice. The goal is to help students acquire a basis for artistically sound and informed interpretation. Required for all master’s candidates.

2 hours weekly, 1 semester, 3 credits

Analysis for Graduate Students I

An intensive course in Schenkerian analysis for graduate students. Fundamental concepts and skills of Schenkerian analysis are developed as a preparation for elective seminars such as Analysis for Performers. Required for all Master of Music students. Students whose entrance examination results exempt them from this requirement must take an additional elective, preferably from among the theory options.
Analysis for Graduate Students II
An advanced course in Schenkerian analysis for graduate students who have completed Analysis for Graduate Students I or the equivalent. Required of students whose majors require advanced work in Techniques of Music (theory, composition, conducting) and recommended for others with theoretical interests.
3 hours weekly, 1 semester, 3 credits

Advanced Schenkerian Analysis
An intensive seminar in Schenkerian analysis at its most advanced levels, involving in-depth study of selected pieces and consideration of the scholarly literature as appropriate. Work includes weekly preparation of graphs under the instructor’s supervision and a final project. Prerequisites: Analysis II (or Analysis for Graduate Students II).
2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

Professional Performance Obligation
Each student must present evidence of at least two professional engagements outside of the college having taken place during the student’s tenure in the graduate program. The administration determines the acceptability of the performances in consultation with student’s major teacher. Required for all master’s candidates in performance.
2 credits

Graduation Recital
Candidates for a Master of Music degree and Professional Studies diploma must present a graduation recital at Mannes during their final year. This requirement does not apply to Composition or Theory majors.
0 credit

Performance of Student Compositions
During the period of residency, each student must prepare performances of at least three of his or her own works at concert programs given in the college. Required for all master’s candidates in composition.
0 credit

Graduate Score Reading
Advanced studies in reading from orchestral scores. Covers material from various style periods. Required for all master’s candidates in composition, conducting, and theory.
1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Graduate Keyboard
Advanced continuo: Baroque recitative and aria, accompaniment of concerto and sonata movements. Composition and improvisation of large scale and advanced keyboard projects. Required for theory, composition and conducting majors. Prerequisites: Keyboard II.
1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Dictation V, Ear Training V
Advanced studies, including atonal material.
1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Twentieth-Century Compositional Techniques
An intensive examination of theoretical and stylistic aspects of significant works of the 20th century, focusing on the development of chromatic music from Schoenberg and Stravinsky to Boulez and Stockhausen. Required for all master’s candidates in composition, conducting, and theory.
1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Theory: Writing Projects
Each year, students must prepare two article-length papers of a depth and originality sufficient to justify submission to professional journals. Topics are to be determined in consultation with the faculty and might originate in work done for other graduate-level courses. Students with a commitment to a particular area of interest may petition for the right to prepare a thesis to fulfill this requirement. Required for master’s candidates in theory.
Hours and credits arranged in consultation with the assistant dean.

Ear Training Pedagogy
Outline of four-year course of study in ear training; practical application; teaching and coaching of first-, second-, and third-year undergraduate students. Required for master’s candidates in theory.
2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

Dictation Pedagogy
Outline of four-year course of study in dictation; practical application; teaching and coaching of first-, second-, and third-year undergraduate students. Required for master’s candidates in theory.
2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 4 credits

Theory Pedagogy
Examination of fundamental problems of theory instruction, with particular reference to elementary theory teaching as preparation for the study of analysis. Demonstration of specific teaching techniques, survey of standard textbooks, practice teaching, and designing a theory curriculum for college or professional school. Required for master’s candidates in theory.
2 hours weekly, 1 semester, 2 credits

Analysis Pedagogy
Examination of fundamental problems of analysis instruction. Demonstration of specific teaching techniques, survey of standard textbooks, practice teaching, and designing an analysis curriculum for college or professional school. Required for master’s candidates in theory.
2 hours weekly, 1 semester, 2 credits
Ear Training and Score Reading for Graduate Students I
Sight-singing of advanced rhythms and melodies from the literature. Intensive studies in score reading using seven clefs. Required for all master’s candidates in voice.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Ear Training and Score Reading for Graduate Students II
A continuation of Ear Training and Score Reading for Graduate Students I.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Piano Review Class
Piano review class is required for master’s candidates who, by examination, place below entrance levels in piano.

Piano Review I

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Piano Review II
More advanced technique and pieces. Progressions in all keys. Introduction to figured bass. Sight-reading.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Dictation Review Class
Dictation review class is required for master’s candidates who, by examination, place below entrance levels in dictation.

Dictation Review I
Scales and intervals. Simple melodic and contrapuntal dictation.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Dictation Review II
Melodic, contrapuntal, and harmonic dictation.

1 hour weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Vocal Forum
A series of seminars in which students meet with specialists in the vocal arts. Required for all master’s candidates in voice.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Composition Forum
A weekly meeting required for all master’s candidates in composition. Presentations are made by faculty, students, and invited guest lecturers on topics determined each year in accordance with students needs and interests.

2 hours biweekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Vocal Accompaniment for Pianists
The class addresses the techniques required for the art of vocal accompaniment. The main focus is on differences between accompanying art songs and operas. Other topics include preparing a vocal-piano recital and dealing with orchestral reductions.

2 hours weekly, 2 semesters, 2 credits

Electives/Seminars
Graduate electives are one semester long, 2 credits. Seminar courses are elective courses designed to refine the students’ writing skills with regard to musical topics. A research paper is required. A complete list of electives offered each semester, along with course descriptions, is compiled and distributed at the beginning of each registration period. Recent offerings have included

- Analysis for Performers
- Baroque Performance Practice
- 20th-Century Performance Practice
- Conducting for Non-Majors
- Performance Master Class
- Preparing for Orchestra Auditions
- French Art Song
- German Lieder
- Song Interpretation
- Chamber Music of Brahms
- Music of Debussy and Ravel
- Working with Composers’ Autographs
- J.S. Bach’s Fugues

ALUMNI

A remarkably high percentage of Mannes alumni have successfully pursued careers in music. They include concert soloists, members of established orchestras and opera companies, faculty at colleges and music schools, private teachers, and contract musicians in Broadway show orchestras and recording studios. Others hold positions in related fields, such as arts administration and television and radio broadcasting. Mannes publishes two annual newsletters that detail current activities of Mannes alumni, faculty, and students. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/alumni.

DEVELOPMENT

Mannes College The New School for Music is a private, nonprofit organization supported by foundation and corporate grants and tax-deductible gifts from alumni, parents, and other friends. These gifts help to fund scholarship and career development awards, performance opportunities, facility renovations, instrument purchases, and other needs.

GRADUATION AWARDS AND SPECIAL SCHOLARSHIP SUPPORT

Many donors generously contribute gifts for graduation awards to recognize excellence in achievement among members of the graduating class and to provide special scholarship support. There are no applications for these awards; recipients are designated by the Mannes Scholarship Committee.

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT SERVICES

Student Services offers workshops, lectures, events, and programs that enrich each student’s academic experience at The New School and reflect the university’s diverse student population. It brings together students from all the university’s divisions to build a community dedicated to the principles of fairness, civility, and diversity. Students are encouraged to become involved in student organizations and other leadership programs. Student Services also offers a recreation program and a health education program. Offices include:

- Student Housing and Residence Life
- Student Health Services
- International Student Services
- Student Disability Services
- Student Rights and Responsibilities
- Career Development
- Intercultural Support
- Student Development
- Recreation and Intramural Sports

To find out more about Student Services, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices.

Student Housing and Residence Life

Student Housing and Residence Life offers undergraduates and graduate students unique living and learning spaces with amenities to suit individual needs and budgets. All residences and some apartment facilities are fully furnished and are staffed with professional residence hall directors and student resident advisors. Through the enthusiasm and creativity of resident advisors, students are exposed to diverse educational and social programs at The New School and in New York City. There is 24-hour security coverage, and our residential staff is trained in handling crises and emergencies should the need arise. The Residence Hall Handbook details housing services and residence hall policies that are essential to creating safe, supportive, and respectful communities.

For students who wish to navigate the metro New York real estate market, listings of rental properties, shared apartments, short-term accommodations, and subletting opportunities are available in the Student Housing office. Student Housing provides a compilation of these listings upon request. The Off-Campus Housing Resource Guide also provides information about New York City and its neighborhoods and the ins and outs of the local real estate market. Workshops and one-on-one sessions are also available. For more information about student housing, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices.

Student Health and Counseling Services

Student Health Services promotes the health and well-being of students by providing counseling and medical services, health education, and the Student Health Insurance Plan. All degree, diploma, visiting, mobility, graduate certificate, and nonmatriculating students in undergraduate and graduate degree programs, including students taking courses only online, are automatically charged a Health Services Fee at registration.

Student Health and Counseling Services offers medical services to students who are ill or injured or have questions about their health. A staff of physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, nurses, and office assistants is available to serve students’ medical needs. The counseling services staff—which includes licensed psychologists, clinical social workers, psychological counselors, and a psychiatrist—provides students with a supportive environment to discuss concerns or problems. Counseling Services works with each student to decide on a plan of treatment that addresses these concerns in a reasonable and helpful manner. The Health Education Program offers health-related workshops and training and outreach programs throughout the university. For more information about Student Health and Counseling Services, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/health.

Student Health Insurance

The Student Health Insurance Plan offers affordable medical insurance. All degree, diploma, visiting, mobility, graduate certificate, and nonmatriculating students in undergraduate and graduate degree programs, including students taking courses only online, are automatically enrolled in the plan unless they waive participation by demonstrating that they already have comparable health insurance. Graduate and undergraduate students who register for fewer than 6 credits may waive participation without demonstrating that they have other insurance. There is a deadline for waiving student health insurance. For complete information about the Student Health Insurance Plan, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices/health.

New School Career Development

The Office of Career Development promotes a holistic approach to career planning, helping students make sound career decisions to ensure personal and professional growth. The services provided are designed to assist students as they enter the competitive global arena. The services include individual counseling, special programs and workshops, full- and part-time employment opportunities, career resource information, job search strategies, résumé reviews, mock interviews, and cover-letter writing. To facilitate the online search, Career Development posts career information arranged by field on its website.

The online database of job opportunities for New School students is hosted through College Central. To access the database, visit www.collegecentral.com/newschool. Registration is required. The registration process enables students to upload their résumés and search for positions.

International Student Services

This school is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.
International Student Services’ mission is to help international students reach their fullest potential and have positive experiences while at the university. In cooperation with the university community, International Student Services promotes diversity and respect for cultures from all over the world. The office offers workshops, handouts, and other programs, as well as advice and support.

All international students are required to attend orientation and check in with International Student Services. The office checks documents to see that students have been properly admitted into the United States, and reviews rights, responsibilities, and regulations. Each international student has access to one-on-one advising sessions. For more information, please visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices.

Student Disability Services
The New School fosters an environment that encourages all students to reach a high level of achievement. Through student services and programs, the school emphasizes the importance of recognizing and embracing individual differences. In keeping with this philosophy, The New School is committed to helping students with disabilities obtain equal access to academic and programmatic services. Student Disability Services is designed to assist students with disabilities in need of academic and programmatic accommodations as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973. If you have either a temporary or chronic disability of any kind, feel free to submit medical documentation to Student Disability Services at the beginning of the semester. The staff members can advise you on policies and procedures and discuss any available accommodations and support.

For more information about Student Disability Services, please visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices.

University Student Senate
The University Student Senate (USS) is the official university student government of The New School. Senators are elected by matriculated students from every academic division with the number of senators determined by the size of the school. Elections are held each April for the following school year. The USS represents students’ concerns to administration, plans university-wide events, makes suggestions for improving the university, helps with student orientation, works with the provost and deans on academic planning, represents the students on university-wide committees, and works generally to ensure that the student experience at The New School is positive. The USS meets two or three times a month; the schedule is posted on the USS website. Meetings are open to all students, and students are encouraged to bring their concerns or ideas to the USS. Visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices for more information.

Intercultural Support/HEOP
The Office of Intercultural Support (OIS) works with students of diverse backgrounds to build community at The New School. OIS offers individual counseling services and sponsors events and workshops to promote intercultural awareness. The staff works closely with recognized student organizations as well as the University Diversity Committee. The office also administers the Arthur O. Eve Higher Education Opportunity Program and the Student Ombuds Office.

Food Services
Students may enroll in a meal plan or take advantages of dining facilities on campus on a cash basis. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/studentservices.

Diversity Initiative
The University Diversity Committee is being reconstituted and renamed the Diversity and Social Justice Committee. The new name reflects the broadening of our mission beyond encouraging diversity to building structures and promoting interactions that will foster socially fair relationships among different groups. The committee is currently drafting a new mission statement, which will be available on the New School website sometime this fall.

UNIVERSITY RESOURCES AND FACILITIES
The New School is located in Manhattan’s Greenwich Village, with a few facilities elsewhere in Manhattan. For building hours and a campus map, visit www.newschool.edu/about.

Libraries
The New School libraries offer a full array of workshops and lab classes for students and faculty. Individual reference appointments are available upon request from students and faculty. For information about the libraries listed below, visit www.library.newschool.edu.

The New-York Historical Society

The University Writing Center
The University Writing Center helps students become better expository writers through individual tutoring sessions in every phase of the writing process. Tutors can help students organize an assignment, develop a rough draft, and revise a paper. Rather than offering a quick-fix editing or proofreading service, the center offers tutors who help students develop versatile, lifelong communication skills that will serve them throughout their careers. The staff includes many professional writers in addition to ESOL specialists and speech coaches. Visit www.newschool.edu/admin/writingcenter for more information.

Many foundations administer scholarship programs for students, but most funds are granted to colleges and universities, which then distribute awards according to various criteria. A small number of foundations (some 5,000 organizations identified by the Foundation Center) approve grants directly to individuals. These organizations are listed in an online database, and a significant proportion of those grants are for direct scholarships, fellowships, and loans to students at all undergraduate levels. Students pursuing foundation funding for their education should contact reference librarians at the Foundation Center. To learn more about these special resources for scholarships, visit the www.fdncenter.org.

MyNewSchool
MyNewSchool is the university’s customizable Web portal located at My.Newschool.Edu. Through a single secure sign-on process, students can access their university e-mail account, view and make changes to their student records, participate in online courses, receive personal and campus announcements, explore library resources, view the financial aid award status, and much more. Most student business is transacted online through My.Newschool, including registering for classes, verifying financial aid awards, making payment arrangements, and viewing final grades. New students are notified when their My.Newschool account has been established.

Computer Facilities
Students have access to the latest technology in the university’s computer, print, and A/V equipment centers. For centers and hours, visit www.newschool.edu/at and choose “Labs and Services.” Features include:

- AV recording studio with microphones and lighting gear
- Private editing suites, an equipment center, and a print output center
- Self-help and online reservation for select facilities
- Specialty scanners (oversized, slide, film, and drum)

Wireless
The New School provides free wireless Internet access throughout the campus. Students should be sure to have the latest anti-virus and anti-spyware software.

University Help Desk
The University Help Desk is the point of contact for students, faculty, and staff requiring assistance or information on all university computing issues. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu/at/support/helpdesk/about.html.

COMMUNICATION WITH STUDENTS
The college and university administration routinely communicates with students through these channels:

MyNewSchool
MyNewSchool is the university’s customizable Web portal that connects students to the university. See Student Services for more information.

Student email accounts
The university provides each student with a GroupWise email account. Students are required to activate their account and check their university email daily. Official communications from the college and the university will be made through this account. GroupWise accounts can be set up to forward to a personal email account, but delivery problems with certain providers may be encountered. It is recommended that students use GroupWise.

Weblog
Weblog is the bachelor’s program’s electronic newsletter for announcements of upcoming internship, grant, and scholarship opportunities open to its students, news about commencement and graduation ceremonies, and information about other student resources, http://nsgsbp.wordpress.com/.

Change of Address or Telephone Number
Students are responsible for keeping their address and phone number current with the university. Students may update their contact information in MyNewSchool (http://my.newschool.edu) as needed. University correspondence is mailed to the address designated as “official” or emailed to the student’s New School (GroupWise) email address.
The Office of Student Financial Services at The New School provides a comprehensive program of financial services for degree-seeking students that includes significant institutional scholarship support to eligible students on the basis of merit and need. Eligible students can apply for assistance under the federal, state, and institutional aid programs listed below.

How to Apply

Detailed information regarding applying for aid and the types of aid available is available on our website at http://www.newschool.edu/studentservices.aspx. In general, to be eligible to apply for assistance under the programs listed above, students must be matriculated in a degree program and be enrolled at least half-time. To be eligible for federal assistance, students must not be in default on or owe a refund to any of the federal aid programs. Students interested in applying for the government and institutional financial assistance programs listed above must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) annually. The New School’s code is 002780. Students are encouraged to file this form electronically at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Completing and submitting the FAFSA enables Student Financial Services to receive a need analysis report or Student Aid Report (SAR) electronically. Undergraduate International students may be
Students who register just prior to the start of classes must pay their tuition and fees (and housing if applicable) in full, less approved financial aid awards. Degree students may also make payment arrangements with the approval of Student Financial Services at the point of registration.

Accepted forms of payment: Payment may be made by Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express, check (US funds only), money order, travelers check, cash (in person only), and wire transfer (see instructions below). Students are encouraged to make payment online at MyNewSchool for timely, accurate, and secure posting. Online payment may be made using a U.S. checking or savings account, or Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

Wire Transfer: For information on how to wire transfer funds to The New School, please sign on to MyNewSchool (click the “Student” tab, then in the “Student Financial Services” channel click “Wire transfer information.”).

Students who do not have access to MyNewSchool, please email Student Financial Services for instructions. Only students who have been admitted and deposited can send funds by wire.

Monthly Payment Plan

The New School offers a monthly payment plan, which is accessible through MyNewSchool. It enables students or their families to pay interest-free monthly installments toward tuition, fees, and housing. The monthly payment plan allows you to maximize your savings and income by spreading your education expenses over four or five monthly payments each semester. Many students and families find monthly installments more manageable than one lump payment each semester.

The payment plan is not a loan so there are no credit checks. It is available for the fall and spring semesters. (This payment plan is not available for summer charges).

Matriculated students taking six or more credits per semester and New School for Social Research students maintaining status are eligible.

The plan is interest free and there is a $55.00 enrollment fee per semester. Payment for the fall five (5) month plan begins on August 1, and payment for the fall four (4) month plan begins on September 1. Payment for the spring five (5) month plan begins on January 1, and payment for the spring four (4) month plan begins on February 1. Enrollment is through MyNewSchool.

Important Note: All payment plans are based on per semester charges. Students will need to re-enroll each subsequent semester in order to continue using the payment plan as an option.

Deferral of Payment for Employer Reimbursement

Students expecting reimbursement from an employer or sponsor may defer payment of tuition and fees by submitting a signed authorization letter on official employer/sponsor letterhead along with the appropriate deferral form(s) as...
Terms of Reimbursement

If the reimbursement will be made upon receipt of grades: There is a participation fee of $150, and the student must complete both the Employer Reimbursement Deferment Form and the Deferral Credit Card Payment Authorization. (These forms can be downloaded from the website: go to www.newschool.edu/studentservices and select Billing and Payment.) Payment of the $150 participation fee and any balance of tuition and university fees not covered by the authorization letter must be made prior to or submitted with the deferment forms. Deferred charges must be paid in full by February 1 for the fall semester, June 15 for the spring semester, and August 15 for summer term.

If payment is not contingent on receipt of grades and The New School can bill the employer directly: There is no participation fee. The student submits only the Employer Reimbursement Deferment Form (found on the website; see above) with the employer authorization letter. The New School will send an invoice for payment to the employer according to the authorization. Payment for any balance due not covered by the authorization letter must be made prior to or submitted with the deferment form.

Deferral for Approved Financial Aid

Students receiving financial aid may defer tuition and fees only if an award has been granted and the proper forms have been signed and returned to Student Financial Services. Approved financial aid awards appear on student invoices and reduce the amount due. Students must make payment in full of any charges not covered by their financial aid package.

It is the student’s responsibility to know the status of his or her financial aid awards, including loans, so that all tuition and other charges are satisfied in a timely fashion. In the event anticipated financial aid or loans are not realized, the student will be required to pay any outstanding balance through other means.

For additional information contact Student Financial Services.

Returned-Check Fee

If for any reason a check does not clear for payment after being deposited, a penalty of $30 is charged to the student’s account. The university cannot presume that the student has withdrawn from classes because the check has not cleared or has been stopped; payment and penalty remain due. Payment for the amount of the returned check and the $30 returned check fee must be made with cash, a certified bank check, or a money order. Another personal check is not acceptable. A penalty (ten percent of the balance) is charged if payment for a returned check is not received within four weeks. If a second check is returned, all future charges must be paid with cash, a certified bank check, or a money order; personal checks will no longer be accepted.

University Refund Schedule—Degree Students

Courses dropped  % Semester Tuition Charges Refunded
Before semester begins 100%
Within first week of semester 90%
Within second week of semester 80%
Within third week of semester 70%
Within fourth week of semester 60%
After fourth week of semester No refund

Fees, including tuition deposits for new students, are nonrefundable. Housing fees are subject to the terms stated in the housing contract.

The above percentages will be applied to the number of credits dropped and the tuition will be recalculated based on the new credit load. The refund amount is the difference between the tuition already paid and the recalculated tuition. Contact Student Financial Services if you have questions about your account. Your financial aid may be affected if you withdraw or drop credits. Failure to complete payment prior to withdrawal does not relieve you of financial liability. For students receiving Title IV funds (federal aid) who withdraw officially or unofficially from all classes, refund calculations will be based on the amount of Title IV aid earned and on the amount of time the student was in attendance, using a proportional calculation through 60 percent of the payment period. This calculation has no relationship to the student’s institutional charges. The amount of tuition, fees, housing, and meal plans assessed will be based on the institutional refund policy. Refund processing takes approximately four weeks.

Electronic refunds deposited in a bank account: Student refunds can be deposited directly into a personal savings or checking account. Students can sign up for this service on MyNewSchool. Exception: For students who are using a Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students to finance their educational expenses, a paper refund check (if applicable) will be sent to the parent borrower.

UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Academic honesty is the duty of every member of an academic community to claim authorship of his or her own work, and only for that work, and to recognize the contributions of others accurately and completely; it is fundamental to the integrity of intellectual debate and creative and academic pursuits. All members of the university community are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the standards of academic honesty. Students are responsible for knowing and making use of proper procedures for writing papers, presenting and performing their work, taking examinations, and doing research. Instructors are equally responsible for informing students of their policies with respect to the limits within which students may collaborate with or seek help from others on specific assignments. Instructors are expected to educate students about the legal and ethical restrictions placed upon creative work and about the consequences of dishonesty in the professional world.

Academic honesty includes accurate use of quotations, as well as appropriate and explicit citation of sources in instances of paraphrasing and describing ideas or reporting on research findings or any aspect of the work of others (including that of instructors and other students). The standards of academic honesty and citation of sources apply to all forms of academic work (examinations, essays, theses, dissertations, musical work, computer work, art and design work, oral presentations, and other projects). The standards also include responsibility for meeting the requirements of particular courses of study.

The New School recognizes that the different nature of work across the divisions of the university may entail different procedures for citing sources and referring to the work of others. Particular academic procedures, however, are based in universal principles valid in all divisions of The New School and institutions of higher education in general. The above statement reiterates policies outlined in the “The New School Policies Governing Student Conduct” document, which may be obtained from the Office of the Provost. Additional details may be obtained from the “The New School Intellectual Property Rights Policy,” which may be accessed online at www.newschool.edu/admin/provost.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the use of another person’s words or ideas in any academic work by using books, journals, Internet postings, or other student papers without proper acknowledgment. For further information on proper acknowledgment and plagiarism, including expectations for paraphrasing source material and proper forms of citation in research and writing, students should consult the MLA Style Manual and Guide to Scholarly Publishing (second edition), chapter 6, on documentation. The New School Writing Center also provides useful online resources to help students understand and avoid plagiarism (see www.newschool.edu/admin/writingcenter). Students must receive prior permission from instructors to submit the same or substantially overlapping material for two different assignments. Submission of the same work for two assignments without the prior permission of instructors is plagiarism. In some instances, faculty may grant permission to students to collaborate with other students for a particular assignment. If that permission is not granted specifically, students should presume that collaboration on academic work is not permitted and the submission of collaborative work would constitute a violation of the academic honesty principle.

Procedures and Penalties

An instructor who suspects a student has committed plagiarism in course work should give the student an opportunity to explain the origin of the work and should investigate whether or not the student understands the relevant standards of academic conduct. On the basis of this meeting the instructor will assess the case and take into consideration the student’s intent to deceive, the amount of plagiarism, and the type of assignment involved to determine whether a minor or major offense has occurred. The instructor who determines that a minor offense has occurred may counsel a student about standards of academic honesty, explain the consequences of plagiarism, and require the student to resubmit the assignment in an appropriate form. An instructor who determines that a major offense has occurred should fail the plagiarized assignment and submit a report to the assistant dean. The report should include the student’s name, the course, semester, notes on conversations with the student, and copies of the relevant plagiarized submission (with problems identified). Questions about the handling of plagiarism cases should be directed to the assistant dean. In cases where the student is taking a course with a faculty member outside his or her division, the Dean’s Office of the faculty member will ask the Dean’s Office of the student to handle the case. The assistant dean will issue a formal letter to the student, with a copy to the instructor, documenting the case. A copy of this letter will remain in the office of assistant dean. The assistant dean, in consultation with the Mannes Academic Standing Committee, may also impose additional sanctions, which can include a failing grade in a course, suspension, or dismissal. For a second major offense, the assistant dean will impose suspension or dismissal. Students may appeal the findings and penalties in cases of plagiarism to the university appeals committee.
OTHER POLICIES

The Student Right to Know Act

The New School discloses information about the persistence of undergraduate students pursuing degrees at this institution. This data is made available to all students and prospective students as required by the Student Right to Know Act. During the 2009–2010 academic year, the university reports the “persistence rate” for the year 2007 (i.e., the percentage of all freshmen studying full time in fall 2007 who were still studying full time in the same degree programs in fall 2008). This information can be found under the common data set information. Visit the Office of Institutional Research at www.newschool.edu/admin/oir for more information.

Campus Crime Statistical Report

The Security and Advisory Committee on Campus Safety will provide upon request all campus crime statistics as reported to the United States Department of Education. Anyone wishing to review the University’s current crime statistics may access them through the web site for the Department of Education: http://ope.ed.gov/security. A copy of the statistics may also be obtained by contacting the Director of Security for The New School at 212.229.5101.

Intellectual Property Policy

Under The New School’s Intellectual Property Policy, the university shall have a nonexclusive, royalty-free, and worldwide license to use works created by its students and faculty for archival, reference, research, classroom, and other educational purposes. With regard to tangible works of fine art or applied art, this license will attach only to stored images of such work (e.g., slides, videos, digitized images) and does not give the university a right to the tangible works themselves. With regard to literary, artistic, and musical works, this license will attach only to brief excerpts of such works for purposes of education. When using works pursuant to this license, the university will make reasonable efforts to display indicia of the authorship of a work. This license shall be presumed to arise automatically, and no additional formality shall be required. If the university wishes to acquire rights to use the work or a reproduction or image of the work for advertising, promotional, or fundraising purposes, the university will negotiate directly with the creator in order to obtain permission.

Use of Photographs

The New School reserves the right to take or cause to be taken, without remuneration, photographs, film or videos, and other graphic depictions of students, faculty, staff, and visitors for promotional, educational, and/or noncommercial purposes, as well as approve such use by third parties with whom the university may engage in joint marketing. Such purposes may include print and electronic publications. This paragraph serves as public notice of the intent of the university to do so and as a release to the university giving permission to use those images for such purposes.

Statement of Ethical Responsibility for Research Involving Human Subjects

New School faculty and staff engaged in research or supervising student research projects must be aware of their responsibilities for ethical conduct in any project involving the use of human subjects. Faculty and staff are responsible for research done by students under their supervision with respect to these matters. Each research design must be examined for possible risk to subjects. If even minor risk of physical, psychological, sociological, or other harm may be involved, the faculty or staff member must consult with the university Institutional Review Board. The full policy with guidelines and consent forms can be found at newschool.edu/admin/gsp/gspframeset.html.

Immunization Requirements

New York State requires that matriculated students enrolling for six or more credits (including equivalency credit) who were born on or after January 1, 1957, provide the university with documentation of their immunity to measles, mumps, and rubella.

All students must also affirm that they have read the material distributed by the university on meningococcal disease and either plan to get an immunization, have documentation of having had a meningococcal immunization, or decline the immunization in writing. All new students receive in their admission packet an immunization and meningitis documentation form that must be completed and submitted prior to registering for classes. Students who do not submit the form will not be allowed to register.

Information about the measles, mumps, and rubella immunization requirements and meningococcal disease is posted at www.newschool.edu/studentaffairs/health.

Equal Employment and Educational Opportunity

The New School is committed to creating and maintaining an environment that promises diversity and tolerance in all areas of employment, education, and access to its educational, artistic or cultural programs and activities. The New School does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, gender or sexual orientation, religion, religious practices, mental or physical disability, national or ethnic origin, citizenship status, veteran or marital status.

Inquiries concerning the application of the laws and regulations concerning equal employment and educational opportunity at The New School (including Title VI-equal opportunity regardless of race, color or national origin; Section 504-equal opportunity for the disabled; and Title IX-equal opportunity without regard to gender) may be referred to: The Office of the General Counsel, The New School, 80 Fifth Avenue, Suite 800, New York, New York 10011. Inquiries may also be referred to: the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, U.S. Department of Labor, 23 Federal Plaza, New York, NY 10278 or the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), New York District Office, 201 Varick Street, Suite 1009, New York, NY
Students or Employees who believe they have been discriminated against on the basis of a disability may contact their Division's Dean Office, their Department Director, or the Office of the Senior Vice-President for Human Resources and Labor Relations, who is the University Disability Official.

The University Disability Official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request was submitted, that records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the university official to whom the request was submitted, that request should be addressed.

A student should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the appropriate academic school for disciplinary review.

Individuals whose acts abridge that freedom will be referred to the appropriate academic school for disciplinary review.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, with which The New School complies, was enacted to protect the privacy of education records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their education records, and to provide guidelines for correction of inaccurate or misleading statements.

The New School has established the following student information as public or directory information, which may be disclosed by the institution at its discretion: student name; major field of study; dates of attendance; full- or part-time enrollment status; year level; degrees and awards received, including dean’s list; the most recent previous educational institution attended, addresses, phone numbers, photographs, email addresses; and date and place of birth.

Students may request that The New School withhold release of their directory information by notifying the Registrar’s Office in writing. This notification must be renewed annually at the start of each fall term.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

The right to inspect and review the student’s education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access.

A student should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official, a written request that identifies the record(s) the student wishes to inspect. The university official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the university official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student’s privacy rights under FERPA.

A student who wishes to ask the university to amend a record should write to the university official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record the student wants changed, and specify why, in the student’s opinion, it should be changed.

If the university decides not to amend the record as requested, the university will notify the student in writing of the decision and the student’s right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

The right to provide written consent before the university discloses personally identifiable information from the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

The university discloses education records without a student’s prior written consent under the FERPA exception for disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health services staff); a person or company with whom the university has contracted as its agent to provide a service instead of university employees or officials (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the New School Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks.

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibilities for the university.

The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the university to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is:

ABOUT THE NEW SCHOOL

The New School was founded in 1919 as The New School for Social Research by a group of prominent progressive scholars, including Charles Beard, John Dewey, James Harvey Robinson, and Thorstein Veblen. The school was established as an alternative to the traditional university and offered an open curriculum, minimal hierarchy, and free intellectual exchange. In 1933, New School President Alvin Johnson created the University in Exile, a refuge for scholars driven out of Germany by the Nazis, and gave it a home at the school. In 1934, the University in Exile was renamed the Graduate Faculty of Political and Social Science and incorporated into The New School, making it a degree-granting institution. Today The New School consists of eight divisions offering undergraduate and graduate degrees and certificates and continuing education courses in the arts, the humanities, the social sciences, and public policy. Students benefit from small classes, access to the rich educational resources of New York City, and a faculty of prestigious scholars and working professionals. The New School is located in Greenwich Village, one of New York City’s oldest and most beautiful neighborhoods. The university’s divisions are The New School for General Studies, The New School for Social Research (formerly the Graduate Faculty of Political and Social Science), Milano The New School for Management and Urban Policy, Parsons The New School for Design, Eugene Lang College The New School for Liberal Arts, Mannes College The New School for Music, The New School for Drama, and The New School for Jazz and Contemporary Music.

The university’s commitment to transcending the boundaries between traditional academic disciplines, its ties to the cosmopolitan cultural and professional life of New York City, and its willingness to reinvent itself remain unchanged, as does its dedication to the ideal of lifelong education for all citizens. The New School holds a place in the avant-garde of American universities, attracting adventurous, creative, civic-minded scholars. For more information, visit www.newschool.edu.

THE DIVISIONS OF THE NEW SCHOOL

The New School for General Studies

66 West 12th Street, New York, NY 10011
212.229.5615, www.newschool.edu/generalstudies

A pioneer of lifelong education in the United States, The New School for General Studies is still a center of innovation today. Its offerings include a bachelor’s degree program for returning students, graduate degree programs that integrate theory and practice, and a broad and serious curriculum open to noncredit students. The school offers the following degrees: the BA and BS in Liberal Arts, BFA in Musical Theater (in association with the American Musical and Dramatic Academy), MA and MS in International Affairs, MA in Media Studies, MFA in Creative Writing, and MA in TESOL. The New School offers graduate-level certificates in Documentary Media Studies and Media Management and undergraduate and noncredit certificates in Creative Arts Therapy, Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages, English as a Second Language, Film Production, and Screenwriting. Accelerated joint bachelor’s/master’s degree options are available in several graduate programs at the university. The curriculum open to noncredit students includes courses in history, psychology, literature, philosophy, film and media studies, visual arts, acting, writing, management and business, foreign languages, and food studies. The school is also the home of the Vera List Center for Art and Politics.
The New School for Social Research

16 East 16th Street, New York, NY 10003
212.229.5700, www.newschool.edu/socialresearch

The New School for Social Research is a graduate center for the social sciences and philosophy that began in 1933 as the University in Exile, the legendary haven for European scholars seeking refuge from fascism. Today each department and program excels in its own area of inquiry while promoting dialogue that transcends the concerns of its field. Students participate in interdepartmental courses and multidisciplinary conferences and forums and collaborate with other social scientists, designers and artists, and faculty and students in other parts of The New School. The New School for Social Research awards masters and doctoral degrees in anthropology, economics, philosophy, political science, psychology, and sociology, as well as interdisciplinary master’s degrees in historical studies and liberal studies.

Parsons The New School for Design

2 West 13th Street, New York, NY 10011
212.229.8950, www.newschool.edu/parsons

Parsons The New School for Design is a degree-granting college of art and design offering professional and liberal education at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The school focuses on critical thinking skills, social engagement, collaborative methods, and global perspective. Parsons graduates are known for their leadership in creative, management, and scholarly areas of art and design. The school was named in 1936 for longtime president Frank Alvah Parsons, who devoted his life to integrating visual art and industrial design. Professional internships, interdisciplinary collaboration, and international study opportunities augment Parsons’ undergraduate, graduate, and certificate programs. Parsons offers the following degree programs: BFA or a five-year BA/BFA dual-degree program in Architectural Design, Communication Design, Design and Technology, Fashion Design, Fine Arts, Illustration, Integrated Design, Interior Design, Photography, and Product Design; BBA in Design and Management; BA in Environmental Studies; BS in Environmental Studies and Urban Design; AAS in Fashion Marketing, Fashion Studies, Graphic Design, and Interior Design; MFA in Design and Technology, Fashion Design and Society, Fine Arts, Interior Design, Lighting Design, Photography, and Transdisciplinary Design; MArch; MArch/MFA (dual degree) in Lighting Design; and MA in History of Decorative Arts and Design and Fashion Studies. The following programs are in development: MA Urban Design Studies; MS Design Management, and MS Urban Design Ecologies. Nonmatriculated students of all ages can participate in a variety of programs, such as Summer Intensive Studies (pre-college and college-level), Continuing Education (for adults), and the Parsons Pre-College Academy (certificate programs and general art and design education for young people in grades 4–12).

Eugene Lang College The New School for Liberal Arts

65 West 11th Street, New York NY 10011
212.229.5665, www.newschool.edu/lang

Eugene Lang College is The New School’s four-year liberal arts college for traditional-age undergraduates. Established in 1985, the school was named in honor of the educational philanthropist and New School trustee Eugene M. Lang. Lang students enjoy the benefits of study in small seminar-style classes and can pursue the BA in the Arts, Culture and Media, Economics, Environmental Studies, Global Studies, History, Interdisciplinary Science, Literary Studies, Philosophy, Psychology, Urban Studies, or Liberal Arts. Liberal Arts majors can complete interdisciplinary programs in Education Studies, Religious Studies, and Social Inquiry; they can also elect a self-designed program of study. In addition, Lang offers a dual-degree program in which students earn a BA from Lang and a BFA from Parsons The New School for Design or The New School for Jazz and Contemporary Music. The college also offers several bachelor’s/master’s dual degree programs with other divisions at The New School.

Milano The New School for Management and Urban Policy

72 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10011
212.229.5400, www.newschool.edu/milano

The J.M. Kaplan Center for New York City Affairs was founded in 1964 as the first academic institution in the United States devoted to the study of a single metropolitan area. In 1975, the Kaplan Center evolved into the Robert J. Milano Graduate School of Management and Urban Policy (later renamed Milano The New School for Management and Urban Policy). Today the school trains working professionals for leadership in government, corporations, and nongovernmental and community organizations. Milano’s teachers are world-class theorists and working practitioners who use New York City as a training ground and laboratory for their students. The curriculum focuses on urban policy, nonprofit management, and organizational change. Students can earn an MS in Nonprofit Management, Organizational Change Management, or Urban Policy Analysis and Management; a PhD in Public and Urban Policy; or a post-master’s certificate in Organizational Development.

Mannes College The New School for Music

150 West 85th Street, New York, NY 10024
212.580.0210, www.newschool.edu/mannes

Mannes is a leading conservatory of classical music that was founded in 1916 by violin and piano duo David Mannes and Clara Damrosch Mannes. It provides professional training for graduate and undergraduate students of music, preparatory instruction for children ages 4 to 18, and classes for adult students at every level of proficiency. At Mannes, a comprehensive curriculum, a faculty of experienced artists, and the resources of an innovative university support students in their quest for virtuosity. Mannes offers the BM, BS, and MM, as well as undergraduate and professional diplomas.
Students can major in every classical instrument, orchestral or choral conducting, composition, theory, and voice. The Mannes community comprises students from every corner of the world and instructors at the top of their fields, including performers and conductors from prominent orchestras, ensembles, and opera companies, as well as renowned soloists, composers, and scholars.

The New School for Drama
151 Bank Street, New York, NY 10014
212.229.5150, www.newschool.edu/drama

The New School has been a center of innovation in theater since Erwin Piscator founded the Dramatic Workshop at the university in the 1940s. Today The New School for Drama prepares talented graduate students for lives and careers as performing artists. The school awards the MFA in Acting, Directing, or Playwriting. Students work under the instruction of distinguished theater professionals in small, challenging classes. The three-year program is progressive: Students begin with self-discovery, develop technical skills in the second year, and finish by writing, directing, and acting in productions and developing a business plan. New York City offers Drama students both limitless opportunities to learn through observation and a wealth of career possibilities.

The New School for Jazz and Contemporary Music
55 West 13th Street, fifth floor, New York, NY 10011
212.229.5896, www.newschool.edu/jazz

Established in 1986, The New School for Jazz and Contemporary Music offers talented musicians an opportunity to train with professional artists from New York City’s illustrious jazz community. The school’s teaching model is based on the tradition of the artist as mentor; students work with accomplished musicians immersed in the history and evolution of jazz, blues, pop, and newer genres. Learning takes place in three environments: the classroom (through instruction in ensemble playing, instrumental music, music history, music theory, and related topics), tutorial instrumental study (through one-on-one sessions with renowned musicians), and master classes (through lectures, performances, and workshops). In these settings, students develop their creative talent while working to meet the high standards set by their instructors. The school awards the BFA; it also offers a five-year dual-degree BA/BFA program in conjunction with Eugene Lang College The New School for Liberal Arts.
