Learning Outcomes for Culture and Media Studies B.A., Lang:

- Ability to create research/ideas based works in writing and/or one other form of media (e.g., audio, film, video, new media).

- Ability to identify and carry out research using key methodologies in the field (e.g., ethnography, discourse analysis, archival research etc.).

- Ability to identify and apply key concepts and theories in the fields of Culture Studies, Media Studies and/or Screen Studies to the analysis of cultural texts and phenomena.

- Ability to identify and appreciate the social context and social implications of research and creative scholarship in the fields of Cultural Studies, Media Studies and Screen Studies (e.g., how such research might be used to investigate or advance social justice and civic engagement).