Additional Details

NYC Fall Semester Only Visiting (Mobility) Student Cancellations

Visiting (Mobility) students not studying at the New York campus for the spring semester must submit their housing cancellation request in writing and vacate their room when winter break begins to the Housing and Residential Education Office to avoid cancellation fees.

Academic Year Students Studying Abroad for the Spring Term

Students in NYC housing for the fall term who plan to study abroad for the spring term must submit a copy of their Study Abroad program acceptance letter and fill out a Housing Cancellation form at the Housing and Residential Education Office. Students must submit their housing cancellation request to universityhousing@newschool.edu and vacate their room before winter break begins to avoid fees.

Students Graduating in December

Students graduating in December will be released from the housing contract for the spring term.

Withdrawal, Leaves of Absence, and Academic dismissals from the University

Students who withdraw, take a leave of absence, or receive an academic dismissal must submit an Exit Form signed by their adviser and fill out a Housing Cancellation form at the Housing and Residential Education Office. Students may be entitled to some refund of housing fees depending on the date the room is vacated. In all cases, the $350 housing deposit is forfeited.

Students Who Defer Admission

Students must notify, in writing, the Housing and Residential Education Office of the defer to avoid cancellation fees.

Disciplinary Dismissals

A resident whose housing is terminated for disciplinary reasons receives no refund of housing fees.
