- Perform other duties as assigned

The terms of employment are contained in the Resident Advisor Agreement & Expectations, and any additional expectations set by the AC, RHD and/or HR.
POSITION EXPECTATIONS

PERIOD OF EMPLOYMENT
This is an academic year appointment beginning in early August and ending in late May. RAs are expected to stay in the residence halls through University breaks and holidays based on the needs of the residence hall. With the approval of the RHD or AC, and provided there is the necessary on-call coverage for your building, RAs may leave no earlier than the Friday prior to the start of Winter Break. All RAs must return for spring training in mid-January. Residency is part of the position thus; RAs are expected to sleep in their rooms. For safety purposes you should inform your RHD or HR when you plan to be away. RAs are "in residence" during all periods of halls being occupied/open. Extended absences from the residence hall (48 hours or more) must be arranged in advance with the RHD or HR. Any time an RA is away from the building for a weekend they must submit a request in writing to the RHD or HR at least one week in advance. Approvals of such requests will not be automatic but will be considered based upon the needs of the staff and residence hall.

ON CALL & DUTY
On call and on duty responsibilities require availability during evening and weekend hours. Duty is from 5 P.M. to 8 A.M. on weeknights, and 24 hours (5 P.M. to 5 P.M.) on weekends. During university holidays and breaks, 24-hour on call coverage is required in all residence halls. Additional or longer shifts may be required during opening and closing weeks.

ADDITIONAL TIME COMMITMENTS
RAs are expected to participate in departmental events such as Student Staff Selection, Residence Hall Tours, Open Houses, Housing Selection, and Professional Staff Selection. These commitments are in addition to regular RA duties. Any significant time commitments while employed as a staff member (executive office in a student organization, internships, fieldwork experience, etc.) must be discussed with the RHD or HR and approved by the Associate Director of Residential Education before making the commitment. Approval is not guaranteed.

ADDITIONAL EMPLOYMENT
Plans to accept employment in addition to the RA position must be discussed and approved by the RHD or AC. RA responsibilities are considered primary, and the RHD or AC may deny a request for additional employment. There is a maximum of 15 hours of additional work outside the RA job that is considered acceptable. Exceptions to this policy must be approved through the Associate Director of Residential Education.

STAFF MEETINGS, INDIVIDUAL SUPERVISION
RAs are required to attend weekly staff meetings within their respective residence halls. If one is unable to attend a required meeting due to academic reasons, advance notification must be submitted to the RHD or HR for approval. RAs are required to schedule bi-weekly individual supervision meetings with their RHD or HR. Weekly meetings may be requested at the discretion of the RHD or HR.

TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT
All RAs are required to attend Fall and Spring training/development to be conducted prior to the opening of the residence halls and the start of classes. All RAs are also expected to attend an Orientation for all new and returning RAs for the upcoming academic year. In addition, RAs are required to attend additional professional development and training workshops during the fall and spring semesters. Details about times and locations will be provided during August training. RAs will also need to attend all mandatory meetings/programs assigned by the Senior Director for Student and Campus Life and the Associate Director of Residential Education.

RETENTION AND REAPPOINTMENT
RA retention and reappointment are contingent upon resident feedback, performance evaluations and dialogues, and a supervisor’s recommendation. Overall job performance will be reviewed on a bi-annual basis. Building re-assignment will be based on performance dialogues and participation in the returning staff placement process. Agreements are for one academic year, and are not automatically renewed.
POSITION QUALIFICATIONS

RA candidates must:

- Be at least a full-time, degree seeking student at the start of the position.
- Not have received a semester GPA below 2.5 (for undergraduates) or 3.0 (for graduates).
- Not receive a letter grade of “F”, during the previous Fall or Spring semesters.
- Enter the RA position with a 2.5 cumulative grade point average (undergraduate).
- Enter the RA position with a 3.0 cumulative grade point average (graduate).

All RAs are required to maintain this minimum cumulative GPA. Should their GPA fall below the minimum, they have the following probationary semester to raise their GPA. Additionally, if it is determined that an RA’s cumulative GPA cannot be brought up to the minimum GPA in one semester, the RA will be terminated. RAs placed on University probation (academic or disciplinary) will be terminated from their RA position. RAs may carry a maximum of 18 credit hours. Permission to carry a heavier course load must be obtained from the Assistant Director of Residential Education.

COMPENSATION

STIPEND
Each RA will receive a single room in one of the residence halls.
RAs will receive an annual stipend of $2,000.
RAs will also receive an annual meal stipend of $800 and at residence halls without a kitchen or at auxiliary spaces RAs will have additional meal funds to use in a dining facility.
All stipends are subject to state and federal taxation guidelines. Students receiving any form of financial aid are strongly encouraged to consult with the Financial Aid Office to determine the impact of RA employment on financial aid packages.

RESIDENCE HALL/ROOM ASSIGNMENT
Resident Advisors are assigned to buildings accordingly to provide the best residential program possible. Each RA’s capabilities, personality, and interests will be taken into consideration when specific Residence Hall assignments are made. RA Residence Hall assignments and room placement are for the entire academic year. The Senior Director for Student and Campus, or their designee, reserves the right to move RAs at any point throughout the year.

HOUSING APPLICATION
Resident Advisors who sign a RA Agreement must still complete a housing application but are exempt from paying the $250 damage and security deposit during their employment; however, at the conclusion of their employment, they will be financially responsible for any unauthorized alternations, damages to their room, or cleaning costs. Common area damage charges accrued during the year will not be charged to RAs unless it is determined that they are responsible.
