Payment Policy – 2019-2020 Academic Year

The following policy for payment of student account applies only to new students who enter the University for the first time in Fall 2019 or later.

- Students are responsible for bill payment of all charges to their student account or to be in good financial standing with the university by August 10 (Fall semester) or January 10 (Spring semester).

- Students who have not paid their bill or are not in good financial standing with the university by August 10 (Fall semester) or January 10 (Spring semester) will have a hold placed on their account and will be assessed a non-refundable late fee.

- Students who have not paid their bill or not in good financial standing with the university by August 22 (Fall semester) or January 16 (Spring semester) will be deregistered from all courses. Students whose enrollment is cancelled for non-payment will not be refunded any enrollment or housing deposits.

- Students who have not paid their tuition and fees, who are dropped from classes will no longer have a seat in their class.

- Students who have not paid their bills and are not in financial good standing with the university will not be permitted to move into housing.

Late Admission:

For fall 2019 students notified of their admission after August 1, 2019, payment is due immediately and must be paid before the start of their program. For spring 2020 students notified of their admission after January 5, 2020, payment is due immediately and must be paid before the start of their program. For those admitted after classes have begun payment is due immediately.

The university reserves the right to drop any student who is not in good financial standing at any point through the end of the add/drop period.

last update: December 2019