DOCTORAL DISSERTATION AND POST-DOCTORAL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS

If you are a graduate student interested in applying for doctoral dissertation research grants, contact Amy Minter in the Provost’s Office at mintera@newschool.edu with university policy-related questions. (Important: depending on the sponsor, some applications may require institutional submission on the student’s behalf and appropriate lead-time for internal coordination. If applicable, please check well ahead of time on requirements of this process).

American Association of University Women Dissertation Fellowship
http://www.aauw.org/fga/fellowships_grants/american.cfm
This fellowship is part of the American Fellowships, which support women doctoral candidates completing dissertations or scholars seeking funds for postdoctoral research leave from accredited institutions. These fellowships carry a stipend of $20,000 for the fellowship year. Deadline: November 15, 2013

Association of Institutional Research (AIR) Dissertation Grants
http://www.airweb.org/?page=1626
The AIR offers Dissertation Grants to support research on a wide range of issues of critical importance to U.S. higher education. Dissertation Grants are intended to support one year of research conducted as part of a doctoral dissertation requirement, and conducted under the guidance of a faculty dissertation advisor. At the time of application, the dissertation should be in the early stage of development. Dissertation grants are up to $20,000 for one year. Open to U.S. and international students. Deadline: January 10, 2013

Charlotte W. Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships
http://h-net.org/announce/show.cgi?ID=176929
The fellowships are designed to encourage original and significant study of ethical or religious values in all fields of the humanities and social sciences, and particularly to help Ph.D. candidates in these fields complete their dissertation work in a timely manner. At least 20 awards of $25,000 each will be available in the 2011 competition. Anticipated Deadline: November 15, 2013

Ford Foundation Dissertation Fellowships
http://sites.nationalacademies.org/PGA/FordFellowships/PGA_047959
Through its Fellowship Programs, the Ford Foundation seeks to increase the diversity of the nation’s college and university faculties by increasing their ethnic and racial diversity, to maximize the educational benefits of diversity, and to increase the number of professors who can and will use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. This year the program will award approximately 20 dissertation fellowships. Each fellowship recipient will receive a one-year stipend of $21,000. Deadline: January 9, 2013

Harvard Program on Negotiation (PON) Graduate Research Fellowships http://www.pon.harvard.edu/category/graduate-research-fellowships/
The PON Graduate Research Fellowships are designed to encourage young scholars from the social sciences and professional disciplines to pursue theoretical, empirical, and/or applied research in negotiation and dispute resolution. Successful candidates will receive a stipend of $20,000, desk space and related working facilities at PON, and library and other privileges at Harvard. Deadline: February 15, 2013

Jack Kent Cooke Dissertation Fellowship Award
http://www.jkcf.org/scholarships/graduate-scholarships/jack-kent-cooke-dissertation-fellowship-award/
The award supports advanced doctoral students who are completing dissertations that further the understanding of the educational pathways and experiences of high-achieving, low-income students. The fellowship is a one-time award of $25,000, which may be used for a period of not less than 9 months and up to 18 months. The Foundation is offering two this year, with plans to increase the number to five in the coming years. Anticipated deadline: February 3, 2013

Jennings Randolph Peace Scholarship Dissertation Program
The JR Program for International Peace awards these nonresidential scholarships to students enrolled in U.S. universities who are researching and writing doctoral dissertations on topics related to peace, conflict, and international security. Dissertation proposals from all disciplines are welcome. Each year the program awards approximately 10 Peace Scholar Fellowships. Awards are currently set at $20,000 for 10 months and are paid directly to the individual. Open to citizens of any country; deadline: December 14, 2013

Kauffman Dissertation Fellowship Program
http://www.kauffman.org/kdfp/
Proposals submitted to the Kauffman Dissertation Fellowship Program must address research issues of theoretical and practical importance to the domain of entrepreneurship. The foundation will award up to 15 fellowship grants of $20,000 each. Grant awards may be used to pay for costs associated with the student’s dissertation, including data collection and analysis, travel, and course buyouts. In addition, grant funds may be used to purchase databases or specialized hardware/software. Anticipated deadline: September 19, 2013

National Science Foundation SBE Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement Grants
http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=13453
The NSF’s Division of Behavioral and Cognitive Sciences (BCS), Division of Social and Economic Sciences (SES), and Division of Science Resources Statistics (SRS) award grants to doctoral students to improve the quality of dissertation research. 200-300 awards annually; awards vary in size. *Due dates vary across programs. Applicants should consult the relevant program’s website. Requires institutional coordination and submission on student’s behalf.

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation – Active Living Research Dissertation Awards
http://www.rwjf.org/applications/solicited/cfp.jsp?ID=21041
Dissertation awards (approximately three up to $25,000) will be awarded to doctoral candidates in any field or discipline. Projects must have clear relevance to the overall mission of Active Living Research, and to informing environmental and policy strategies for preventing childhood obesity by increasing physical activity among youths. Anticipated Deadline: February 28, 2013
Spencer Foundation Dissertation Fellowships for Research Related to Education http://www.spencer.org/content.cfm/dissertation-fellowships-in-education-program
The Dissertation Fellowship Program seeks to encourage a new generation of scholars from a wide range of disciplines and professional fields to undertake research relevant to the improvement of education. Approximately 20 nonrenewable fellowships will be awarded. Recipients of the fellowships will receive $25,000 to support completion of the dissertation. Open to U.S. and international students. Anticipated Deadline: October 5, 2013

Udall Foundation Environmental Public Policy and Conflict Resolution Ph.D. Fellowship
http://www.udall.gov/OurPrograms/ECRFellowship/ECRFellowship.aspx
The foundation will award two one-year fellowships of up to $24,000. Dissertation Fellowships are intended to cover both academic and living expenses. The Foundation awards fellowships to doctoral candidates whose research concerns U.S. environmental public policy and/or environmental conflict resolution and who are entering their final year of writing the dissertation. Anticipated Deadline: February 24, 2014

U.S. HUD Doctoral Dissertation Research Grant Program
http://www.grants.gov/search/search.do?mode=VIEW&oppId=55920
The purpose of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Doctoral Dissertation Research Grant (DDRG) program is to enable Ph.D. candidates enrolled at accredited institutions of higher education to complete their research and dissertations on HUD-related housing and urban development issues. Deadline: February 7, 2013; requires institutional coordination and submission on student’s behalf.

Wenner-Gren Foundation Dissertation Fieldwork Grant
http://www.wennergren.org/programs/dissertation-fieldwork-grants Dissertation Fieldwork Grants for up to $20,000 are awarded to individuals enrolled in a doctoral program to support dissertation research. Applicants applying for this grant can also elect to apply for a supplemental $5,000 through the Osmundsen Initiative. Applicants must be engaged in research that contributes to anthropological knowledge. Applicants of any nationality or country of residence may apply. Anticipated Deadline: May 1, 2013