EXTERNAL FELLOWSHIPS / SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDS: FOR ALL GRADUATE STUDENTS

If you are a graduate student interested in applying for doctoral dissertation research grants, contact Amy Minter in the Provost’s Office at mintera@newschool.edu with university policy-related questions. (Important: depending on the sponsor, some applications may require institutional submission on the student’s behalf and appropriate lead-time for internal coordination. If applicable, please check well ahead of time on requirements of this process).

Anna Sobol Levy Foundation Fellowships
http://www.annasobollevyfoundation.org/fellowshipprograms.html
Anna Sobol Levy Foundation Fellowships award recipients funding to cover one to two years of graduate study at the Rothberg International School of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in Israel. Applicants must have studied military studies, economic geography, international relations, political science, or history at the undergraduate level and wish to pursue a career in the armed services, diplomatic corps, international relations, or government. Anticipated Deadline: March 1, 2013

Auschwitz Jewish Center Fellowships
http://ajcf.org/education-center/programs/bridge-to-history/
This program, for students who are interested in Jewish studies, Holocaust studies, or related fields, funds a three-week study tour of Jewish and Holocaust sites throughout Poland, plus a short orientation in New York City during the summer of 2013. The program is only open to students who have graduated with a Bachelor’s degree by the time the program begins. Anticipated Deadline: January 21, 2013.

Byron Hanke Fellowship for Graduate Research on Community Associations
http://www.cairf.org/scholarships/hanke.aspx
The Foundation for Community Association Research is proud to offer an annual fellowship ($2000-$4000) available to graduate students working on topics related to community associations. Anticipated Deadline: May 1, 2013

Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Graduate Fellowships
Final Scholarship Deadline
http://www.rangelprogram.org/index.cfm?session.areaid=2&contentid=672&typeid=CBRIAP92223
Fellows will receive up to $35,000 to help fund a two-year Master’s program in International Affairs or a related field. Upon the completion of the degree, the fellow is obligated to serve as a Foreign Service Officer for three years. Fellows must also complete two summer internships: the first in Washington, D.C. working for members of Congress and the second overseas in a U.S. embassy. Anticipated Deadline: January 18, 2013

Charlotte W. Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowships
http://h-net.org/announce/show.cgi?ID=176929
The fellowships are designed to encourage original and significant study of ethical or religious values in all fields of the humanities and social sciences, and particularly to help Ph.D. candidates in these fields complete their dissertation work in a timely manner. At least 20 awards of $25,000 each will be available in the 2013 competition. Anticipated Deadline: November 15, 2013

Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program
http://clscholarship.org/
The Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program offers fully-funded summer language institutes for U.S. university students in “critical need” languages. These languages are: Arabic, Azerbaijani, Bangla, Chinese, Hindi, Indonesian, Japanese, Korean, Persian, Punjabi, Russian, Turkish, Urdu. Selected students will participate in an intensive summer program (approximately 8 weeks) in a country where the language is spoken. Anticipated Deadline: November 15, 2013.

DAAD Scholarships
https://www.daad.org/page/undergradprograms/index.v3page;jsessionid=5sggi69am8r7k
DAAD scholarships are for students interested in studying or interning in Germany. The Study Scholarship provides funding for academic studies in Germany for 10 months; and the Research Grants support research projects in Germany from 1-10 months. The program offers a variety of scholarships and internship programs, including the Undergrad Scholarship which awards up to €650 per month for juniors and seniors studying abroad in Germany for a period of 4 to 10 months (no German language knowledge required), and the Study Scholarship, which awards graduating seniors up to €750 per month for one year of independent study or two years of a full-time graduate program in Germany following graduation from an undergraduate program. The Study Scholarship also covers health insurance while in Germany and provides a one-time flat rate travel stipend. For more information, contact the NY Office for DAAD, (212) 758-3223. Anticipated Deadline: October 28, 2013.

Ford Foundation Pre-Doctoral Fellowships
http://sites.nationalacademies.org/PGA/FordFellowships/PGA_047958
Ford Foundation Pre-Doctoral Fellowships are awarded to approximately 20 students per year who plan to enroll in a Ph.D. or Sc.D. program and whose long-term career goals include teaching and/or research at the university level. Recipients may study in nearly any academic area which is research-based. Recipients receive a $20,000 stipend per year for three years while pursuing their doctoral degree. Strong preference is given to applicants who are members of a minority group whose representation in the American professoriate has been severe and long-standing (including Alaska Natives, Black/African-Americans, Mexican Americans, Native American Indians, Native Pacific Islanders, and Puerto Ricans). Anticipated Deadline: November 14, 2013

Fulbright Fellowships
http://us.fulbrightonline.org
The Fulbright Program provides grants for individually designed study/research projects; a candidate must submit a Statement of Grant Purpose defining activities to take place during one academic year in a country outside the U.S. During their grants, Fulbrighters will meet, work, live with, and learn from the people of the host country, sharing daily experiences. The program facilitates cultural exchange through direct interaction on an individual basis in the classroom, field, home, and in routine tasks, allowing the grantee to gain an appreciation of others’ viewpoints and beliefs, the way they do things, and the way they think. Grant lengths and dates vary by country. Please see details for specific countries on the Fulbright website. Anticipated Deadline: TBD

Institute for Humane Studies Fellowships
http://www.theihs.org/humane-studies-fellowships

These fellowships provide a one-time monetary award of between $2,000 and $15,000 to support graduate studies at any university in the U.S. or abroad relating to the intellectual and institutional foundations of a free society. Recipients must show a demonstrated interest in research relating to the advancement of a free society. Anticipated Deadline: TBD

James Madison Foundation Graduate Fellowships
http://www.jamesmadison.com

James Madison Fellowships are for students who plan to pursue a career teaching American history or American government at the secondary level (grades 7–12). Fellows receive up to $24,000 to be applied toward their graduate degree program. Financial need is not considered. Fellows are required to teach American history, American government, or social studies in grades 7–12 for one full year for each academic year of funding received, preferably in the state in which the Fellow was a legal resident at the time of winning the fellowship. Fellows must also attend the Foundation’s Summer Institute on the Constitution in Washington, D.C. after they are matriculated in the graduate program and have commenced coursework. Expenses for the Summer Institute are included in the award. Anticipated Deadline: March 1, 2013

J Edgar Hoover Foundation Scholarships
http://www.jehooverfoundation.org/scholarships.asp

Scholarships and grants of up to $25,000 are provided to selected college and university students pursing undergraduate and graduate degrees. These scholarships are presented based on a combination of merit and need, including individuals who may not have an opportunity for higher education. Anticipated Deadline: March 1, 2013

National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships
http://www.nsfgrfp.org/

National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships provide a stipend of $30,000 and a $12,000 cost-of-education allowance to students pursuing research-based Master’s and Doctoral degrees in particular science, technology, mathematics, and engineering fields, including psychology and social sciences, among others. Anticipated Deadline: November 13, 2013

Paul and Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans
http://www.pdsoros.org/competition/

The purpose of the Paul and Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans is to provide opportunities for continuing generations of able and accomplished new Americans to achieve leadership in their chosen fields. The program is established in recognition of the contributions new Americans have made to American life and in gratitude for the opportunities the United States has afforded the Point Foundation Scholarships
Point Scholarships (average $13,600 for one academic year) are designed to help promising LGBTQ students achieve their full academic and leadership potential despite obstacles. Scholars must demonstrate academic excellence, leadership skills, community involvement, and financial need. Attention also will be paid to students who have lost the financial and social support of their families and/or communities as a result of revealing their sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. Point Scholars must agree to maintain a high level of academic performance and to give back to the LGBTQ community through the completion of an individual community service project each year. Anticipated Deadline: January 14, 2013.

Samuel Huntington Public Service Award
http://www.nationalgridus.com/huntington.asp
Award recipients receive $10,000 to help them pursue a one-year public service project anywhere in the world after graduation from college. Applicants who propose to dedicate the majority of the funds directly to their project (instead of to personal expenses) will be given preference. Examples of recent successful proposals include improving access to sanitation in Bangladesh and conducting after-school dance sessions for immigrant students in New York City. Anticipated Deadline: January 18, 2013.

Social Science Research Council Dissertation Proposal Development Fellowship
http://www.ssrc.org/fellowships/dpdf-fellowship/
The Dissertation Proposal Development Fellowship (DPDF) is organized to help early-stage graduate students in the humanities and social sciences formulate effective doctoral dissertation proposals. Each year, the program offers dissertation proposal development under the leadership of pairs of tenured senior faculty in the US and abroad who define emerging or reinvigorated multidisciplinary research fields. These research field directors lead groups of 12 graduate students through two workshops during the fellowship cycle. Anticipated Deadline: February 1, 2013.