Jorge Nállim is Assistant Professor of History at the University of Manitoba (Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada). He has published articles and contributions in refereed journals and books on the history of liberalism, anti-fascism, and anti-Peronism. He has completed a book manuscript on the history of liberalism in Argentina in 1930-1955, currently under consideration for publication. His current project focuses on anti-communist intellectual networks in Latin America during the Cold War.

Day & Time: February 22, 2p.m.

Place: 66 West 12th, Room 602

Sponsored by the History Department and co-sponsored by the Janey Program in Latin American Studies at NSSR